Select 3 Women on Tentative Panel.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17.—[Special.]—Eleven prospective jurors who professed to have heard little and read less of the Harding administration oil scandals occupied the jury box this afternoon at the end of the first day of the Fall-Sinclair Teapot Dome conspiracy trial in the District Supreme court. Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior, and Harry F. Sinclair, millionaire oil operator, are charged with conspiring to defraud the government in connection with the leasing of the Teapot Dome naval oil reserve in Wyoming.

Three of the tentatively chosen jurors are women who volunteered for jury service under the District statute which makes them eligible but provides no authority for summoning them. One entire panel of 26 venire men had been exhausted and six peremptory challenges had been exercised—three by government prosecutors and three by defense counsel—when Justice Frederick L. Siddons ordered adjournment until tomorrow morning.

Wives of Defendants in Court.

Fall, who is suffering from a cold, and Sinclair, smiling and suave as usual, were separated by their galaxy of attorneys. These include Martin W. Littleton, former New York congressman; George P. Hoover of Washington, William E. Leahy, one time local district attorney, and Mark B. Thompson, a New Mexico attorney and life long friend of Fall. Mrs. Fall and her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Chase, and Mrs. Sinclair were seated among the few spectators who found seats in the tiny courtroom filled with veniremen, lawyers, newspaper men, and court attaches.

On the government's side, District Attorney Peyton Gordon appeared with Atlee Pomerene, former United States senator from Ohio, and Owen J. Roberts, who were appointed by President Coolidge to prosecute the oil fraud cases.

Ask Court to Call Blackmer.

The first dramatic episode of the day came just before the noon recess when, out of the hearing of the prospective jurors, Mr. Roberts asked Justice Siddons to formally call Harry M. Blackmer, chairman of the board of the Midwest Refining company, who fled to France soon after the oil scandal broke and has since refused to return to testify. Blackmer's testimony, if he could be brought before the jury, according to Mr. Pomerene and Mr. Roberts, would definitely establish the payment of $230,500 in Liberty bonds in full by Sinclair in return for the Teapot Dome concession.

Aware that the witness is in Paris and only yesterday reiterated his refusal to return to this country, Mr. Roberts made his request as the basis for proceedings to confiscate $100,000 worth of Blackmer's property in this country under the Walsh act, which authorizes that maximum penalty for recalcitrant witnesses.

Seeks to Explain Absence.

Nathan Miller, former governor of New York, announcing that he was the missing oil man's counsel, sought to explain Blackmer's absence. He was cut off in the midst of an eloquent assertion that Blackmer "has no desire to flout this court" by Justice Siddons, who declared sharply that the explanation had no part in the present trial.

Outside the court room, Mr. Miller assumed the responsibility for Blackmer's absence, declaring that he had advised the latter that he was not bound to testify in the trial and that, in his belief, the Walsh act is unconstitutional.

Both Leases Invalidated.

In this same court room less than a year ago, Fall and Edward L. Doheny, another millionaire oil man, were acquitted of conspiracy in connection with Doheny's lease on the Elk Hills naval reserve in California. Since then, however, the United States Supreme court has twice branded Fall "a faithless public officer" and has invalidated both the Elk Hills and Teapot Dome leases on the ground that they were "shot through with fraud and corruption."

Sinclair, who, the government charges, inspired the organization of a fake Canadian oil purchasing company in order to build up the slush fund out of which Fall was paid, was convicted several months ago and sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and serve a month in jail for refusing to answer questions propounded by the senate oil scandal investigating committee. Sinclair's appeal from that conviction is pending in the District Circuit Court of Appeals.

Germany Crippled by Strikes and Lockouts

140,000 LEAVE POSTS; RATION ELECTRIC POWER

$8 a Week Miners Ask 64c Raise.

BULLETIN.

BERLIN, Oct. 17.—(U. P.)—The strike of lignite miners in central Germany is virtually 100 per cent effective. While power plants in the affected districts still are in operation, current has been rationed and electric advertising has been prohibited in Halle, Halberstadt, Wissenfels and Limeral.

BERLIN, Oct. 17.—Eighty thousand miners today walked out of the soft coal mines of central Germany, imperiling the Berlin coal and electric supply. Sixty thousand textile workers have been locked out at Munchen-Gladbach. The coal barons are calling for soldiers to protect the mines from terrorism by the workers, though the latter have organized an emergency service to prevent accidents at the mines.

The electricity supply in many central German cities already is affected and the authorities have begun rationing the current.

Labor circles are talking of a general strike. The price of rolls and bread went up 20 per cent today, all of which shows Germany still is in the throes of a readjustment crisis.

Due to Two Reasons.

This mainly is due to two reasons. First, the taxes, which are unavoidable, since Germany must enforce high taxation to fulfill its obligations under the Dawes plan. Second, the gluttony of the German tradesmen.

The coal strike illustrates the latter perfectly. The miners earn an average of $8 per week. They want $8.64. The ministry of labor, in the recent arbitration, decreed that this is coming to them. The owners are ready to grant the increase, provided they are permitted to increase the price of coal accordingly. The minister of economics vetoed this increase, because more expensive coal means an all around increase in the price of German production.

Coal Dealers Profiteering.

An investigation showed that the owner of a coal mine delivers coal in Berlin for a fraction less than twenty-five cents a hundredweight, but the Berlin dealer sells it for almost forty-two cents. The dealer is profiteering, but the minister of economics says he has no legal means to prevent this.

Conditions are similar in most branches of German industry, which are paralyzed through the greed of the tradesmen and their own inability to readjust the cost with the sales price. The patience of the workers now is exhausted. Throughout the country, in all industries, strikes are flaming up, the same as they did at the beginning of the inflation days.

The socialists will interpellate the government in the Reichstag tomorrow regarding its plans for settling the strike.

Railroad Workers Get Increase.

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 17.—(AP)—About 7,000 railway locomotive engineers employed on Canadian railroads will receive wage increases retroactive to July 1, 1927, under terms of the new agreement effected in Montreal by Peter Heenan, minister of labor, in conference with railroad and labor officials, it was announced today.

7,000 Canadian Miners Out.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 17.—Seven thousand miners of the Drumheller Valley field, in central Alberta, went on strike this afternoon. They demand recognition of the Canadian organization known as the Canadian Mine Workers' union. These are men who seceded from the United Mine Workers of America two years ago and have been dissatisfied ever since. Inspector Brankley of the northwest mounted police, Calgary, has been notified and detachments of police are being sent in to preserve order.

MAN'S STOMACH STOLEN; THIEF HUNTED IN PARIS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, Oct. 14.—M. Francois, a concierge, tonight asked the police to look for his stomach, which was stolen from the St. Michel hospital today. M. Francois claims the thieves made off with the stomach a few minutes after it had been removed and while he was unable to prevent the robbery because he was still under the influence of ether.

The concierge was operated on for cancer by Dr. Pauchet, a famous Paris surgeon, who found it necessary to remove the stomach. Because of the strange condition of the organ, the doctor passed the stomach among the crowd of internes and medical students who had watched the operation. As he was finishing the operation, the doctor discovered the stomach had disappeared, the doctor had to sew up the concierge.

The patient's stomach was in such bad condition that it does not make much difference whether it is put back, the doctor said, but the concierge, appraised of the theft, demands that gendarmes be put on the track of the culprits.

HUNT FIREBUG AS FIVE GARAGES ARE SET AFIRE

Capt. Hugh McCarthy of the Sheffield avenue station late last night ordered an intensive search throughout his district for a supposed firebug who set fire to five garages within two hours' time. According to Frank Braban, chief of the 13th battalion, each blaze had been started by igniting oil soaked paper. Firemen extinguished each of the fires with little loss. The alarms came from 911 Wrightwood avenue, 1042 Altgeld street, 858 Fullerton avenue, and two others near Lincoln avenue and Fullerton.

Screams of John Schmidt, 4 years old, of 5344 North Latrobe avenue, attracted Policeman Edward Russ, who turned to see the child's clothing in flames. Russ smothered them with his jacket and took the boy to the Montrose hospital, where he died late last night. Police said he caught fire from a bonfire at the rear of his home.

Put Dry Plank in Platform, Borah to GOP

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17.—[Special.]—Senator William E. Borah [Rep., Idaho] is preparing to make an active campaign for a definite prohibition enforcement plank in the Republican national platform.

The Idaho senator, whose name has been mentioned as the possible choice of the senate radical group as its presidential candidate, announced today that he had accepted an invitation to speak on the prohibition question at a meeting under the auspices of the New York Women's Club for Law Enforcement at Carnegie hall, New York City, on Nov. 12.

Correspondence made public by Senator Borah disclosed that before accepting the invitation he had written to Mrs. Samuel Benz, head of the club, asking if its purpose was to urge the political parties to take a definite stand in favor of prohibition enforcement. Unless this was the purpose Senator Borah said he did not care to take part in its meeting. Mrs. Benz replied that the club favored such declarations and Senator Borah then accepted the invitation.

Demands Practical Method.

"The time has come when we ought to deal with the subject in a concrete and practical way and to use the only instruments and methods by which we may accomplish anything," said Senator Borah in his letter to Mrs. Benz.

"This is a government of parties. Through party organization and through the operation of the machinery of the party, officials are selected from deputy marshals to President. And it is through officials that we enforce the law.

"Now the question is: Are those people who are in favor of the eighteenth amendment willing to sit back and permit others to operate the machinery by which enforcement is to be had?

Assails Nullificationists.

"If we are correctly informed by the public press and if we can correctly read the purposes of the organization leaders through their actions, it is clear that both political parties propose to avoid anything in the way of a commitment to the upholding and maintaining of the constitution of the United States, except perhaps an insipid, meaningless generality to the effect that they believe in law and order.

"They might just as well say under the present circumstances that they believe in the ten commandments. Here is a definite and extraordinary situation. The constitution is being deliberately defied. And there are those who say it is right and proper to defy it, and through organized public opinion to nullify it.

"If political parties are unwilling to meet that issue, if when the constitution of the United States is definitely challenged political expediency withholds support, it must be apparent to all that those who are opposed to the constitution have won out."

Doubt Arises in Probe of Triple Killing

Convinced at first that Wilfred Winters, a sickly youth of 22, had shot and killed two girl companions in a frenzy of disappointed love, stimulated by moonshine, and had then put a bullet into his own head, early yesterday morning, police working on the triple slaying last night were uneasily pondering certain circumstances tending to cast some doubt on the theory of a double murder and suicide.

The body of Winters was found slumped over the wheel of his rented sedan after the car had crashed into a light pole at 79th street and Rhodes avenue. A block and a half south in Rhodes avenue, witnesses were bending over the bodies of two girls who had been pushed from the car. They were Margaret Martin, 19 years old, of 7336 University avenue, and Catherine Stadler, 19, of 1206 East 72d street. Margaret had been killed by two shots in the breast. Catherine, shot in the back, died on the way to a hospital.

Four Shots Fired and Heard.

On the floor of the sedan was found a rusty .38 caliber revolver, Harrington and Richardson make, from which four shots had been fired. Investigation developed that Winters had loved the Martin girl and that he had been drinking earlier in the evening. Lieut. Louis Slad, reconstructing the scene, saw the youth quarreling with his sweetheart, suddenly going mad, shooting both girls and then killing himself.

But when police opened their investigation in preparation for the inquest today, they secured testimony from Frank Eckdahl of 8117 Rhodes avenue, which brought out a new angle to puzzle them.

"I was coming home at 12:45 in the morning," he said. "I saw an automobile going north in Rhodes avenue. I heard four explosions which I thought at first was the exhaust from an automobile. Then in front of my home at 8117 Rhodes avenue, the body of a girl was pushed into the street. Twenty-five feet farther on the body of another girl was pushed out.

Goes to Girls' Aid.

"I ran to the first girl, but she was dead, I saw. The second one was still breathing and I held her in my arms for about three minutes. Then another automobile came along and we rushed her to a hospital, but she was dead before we reached there."

From the spot where Eckdahl said he heard four shots fired to the place where the automobile crashed is two blocks. Rhodes avenue is narrow at that stretch. It would have been impossible, police are inclined to think, for the car to have proceeded for two blocks with none but a dead man at the wheel. And they asked the question: "Was there some one else in the car who steered it for a distance and then jumped out?"

They hope, through tracing the revolver, to answer this question. A dozen of Winters' acquaintances, some of whom had been with him until 11 o'clock Sunday evening, declared they had never seen him with a revolver and declared it their belief that he did not know how to use one.

Police Reënact Scene.

Again, three policemen placed themselves in the front seat of the sedan and endeavored to reënact the killing as if Winters was the murderer. The difficulties of a driver in a car going twenty-five miles an hour (the rate of speed attested by Eckdahl) turning around to shoot his two companions and then pushing them from the car were pointed out.

Added to this was the testimony of Ogden Palmquist, 8008 Rhodes avenue,

2 PADLOCKED CHICAGO CAFES STAY CLOSED

Friars Inn, Moulin Rouge Lose.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17.—[Special.]—The United States Supreme court today refused to review proceedings which resulted in the issuance of padlock injunctions against the Friars Inn and the Moulin Rouge, two well known Chicago cabarets, last December. The effect of the court's denial of a writ of certiorari, which was announced without comment, is to uphold the use of the nuisance abatement section of the national prohibition act against café owners who cater to hip flask toters by supplying "set-ups"—cracked ice, ginger ale and glasses.

Almost identical petitions appealing from the ruling of the Circuit Court of Appeals, which sustained the Chicago federal district court's injunctions, were filed in the United States Supreme court last June by Mike Fritzel, owner of the Friars Inn, and William R. [Izzy] Rothstein, owner of the Moulin Rouge. The resorts were ordered closed for a year and on March 23 last the order was upheld by the Circuit Court of Appeals.

What Defense Contended.

The petitions argued that the "keeping" of liquor by patrons in a hip flask for personal consumption is not a "keeping" by the owner of a cabaret within the meaning of the law which prohibits the keeping of liquor by any one "for sale or barter or other commercial purpose."

"Where," it was asked in the petitions, "is there foundation for a theory that a legitimate business may be closed for a year if on such premises something entirely lawful, but susceptible of pleasurable use, is sold to a 'wet'? Why limit the padlock to restaurants? Was it the intention of congress to bring about prohibition by starving the 'wets'? A bank furnishes money to a 'wet.' With that money he may purchase intoxicants. Are banks to be padlocked as nuisances?

Padlocks for Clothing Stores.

"Clothing stores furnish protection from the elements and directly contribute to the preservation of the health of a 'wet.' Hotels furnish shelter to 'wets' and 'drys' alike. Are clothing stores and hotels to be padlocked? Why punish the restaurant keeper? Was it the intention of congress to transform the 'wets' into wards of the federal government and to prohibit dealings with such wards if the effect thereof is to enable such wards to enjoy their weakness?"

The Volstead act does not make it an offense to deal with or sell legitimate merchandise to persons who violate the act, it was contended in the petitions. "Drinkers are not branded as lepers to be segregated and deprived of human contact," the briefs continued.

And Even for Banks.

"If the possession of whisky by a guest in a restaurant is to be imputed to the owner of the restaurant, why is not the possession of whisky on the person of a customer in a bank sufficient to transform the bank into a nuisance?" the petitioners argued. "Is it only when a 'wet' sits down at a table to eat that his presence taints the place as a nuisance? If a place becomes a nuisance by reason of a 'wet' drinking his own liquor while eating there, why not while banking or buying postage stamps, or by serving as a juror, or by looking at a stock ticker?

"Why the peculiar limitation to eating? Is a flask on the hip while in a restaurant any different from a flask on the hip while in a bank? Why is a restaurant keeper doomed to destruction and ruin in selling food to a 'wet'? Since when has a restaurant keeper the right to search the person of his guests to discover concealed flasks or liquor?"

YELLOWLEY IS PLEASED

The decision of the Supreme court holding, in effect, that cafés which furnish "set ups" to drinking customers are violating the prohibition law was hailed with satisfaction last night by E. C. Yellowley, local prohibition administrator.

He promised that good use of the ruling would be made and that the efficiency of his forces would be materially increased by it.

"We do not intend to begin any concerted drive on hotels or restaurants," he said. "They are constantly under surveillance, and whenever we find that open, public, and undisturbed drinking is going one there will be suitable action."

He added that the prohibition forces had always contended that the cabaret owner had no right to pass the blame on to the customer when drinking was discovered in a place.

"Cabaret men, if the decision had been otherwise, might advertise that customers could bring in their liquor and consume it unmolested," he said.

Local attorneys for the café owners involved in the test case pointed out what they considered an injustice in the ruling. They asserted that the Supreme court decision showed it made no difference whether the restaurant keeper knows liquor is on his premises.

"One pint on a guest's hip, even if it isn't displayed, can result in a padlock," they complained.

Café Managers Aren't Worried.

Hotel and restaurant managers in general were not greatly disturbed by the news from Washington.

"We can't forbid drinking," said E. J. Stevens, manager of the Stevens hotel, "the law already does that. But we don't aid or encourage it."

Frank Bering of the Hotel Sherman said his organization did not encourage public drinking.

BOYS' CANDIDATE PROMISES WORK FOR WAYWARD

Wilton Polk, 17 year old candidate for mayor of the Chicago Boys' Brotherhood Republic, added a new plank to his platform yesterday when he pledged his support to the plan of Chief of Police Hughes to find jobs for wayward boys.

Young Polk called on Deputy Chief Ira J. McDowell at his office and discussed the idea. Deputy McDowell promised that he would order his secretary, Sergt. Charles Harder, to confer with the boy officials of the organization within a short time.

The mayoral election of the local branch of the republic will be held Friday night at Hulbert hall, 1530 South Hamlin avenue. Polk, a senior at Harrison Technical high school, is opposed by David Jackson, 18, senior at Crane high school. Jackson's main plank is "100 per cent self-government." He claims that the republic is only 80 per cent self-governed and 20 per cent supervised.

[Copyright: 1927: By The New York Times.]

AUGSBURG, Germany, Oct. 17.—Ten persons lost their lives and ten were badly injured when fire last night destroyed the famous castle of Affing, near here. The castle, which was one of the historic landmarks of southern Bavaria and was more than 250 years old, was known to many tourists.

The flames, starting in a defective chimney, rapidly enveloped the entire building. The stately tower collapsed, burying fifteen firemen and employés of the estate. Seven were killed instantly and the others were severely injured.

Two servant girls were killed when they jumped from windows. A fireman, trying to save a boy by hanging from a window ledge, slipped and fell, breaking nearly every bone in his body.

HELD AS AUTO THIEVES.

Two men arrested yesterday confessed, the police say, to the stealing of more than 50 automobiles. The prisoners are Arthur De Marco, owner of an ice cream parlor at 1549 Clybourn avenue, and Julius Groveth, 1159 Larrabee street.

INSANITY PLEA, REMUS DEFENSE FOR KILLING WIFE

Sanity Hearing Ordered for Oct. 31.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 17.—[Special.]—George Remus may never go to trial on the indictment charging him with first degree murder in the fatal shooting of his wife, Mrs. Imogene Remus, on Oct. 6.

Under a decision reached in Judge Shook's Criminal court today, a hearing will be heard in Criminal court on Oct. 31, on the question of Remus' sanity. Should the jury, by vote of nine or more of its members, find him to have been insane at the time of the shooting the entire case will be disposed of by his commitment to the state hospital for the criminal insane.

In the event, however, that the jury returns a verdict holding him to have been sane, he will go to trial on the murder charge on Nov. 14.

Loses First Skirmish.

The sanity hearing was decided upon after Remus had lost the first skirmish in his legal battle to escape the electric chair.

The defeat was suffered when Judge Shook ovverruled a motion by Charles H. Elston, attorney for Remus, in which he sought to evade the provisions of a new law and not be required to set up an insanity defense at this time, at the same time retaining the privilege of doing so during the trial if desired.

For the purposes of the motion, only, Elston and Remus announced in it the intention of pleading insanity, but asked that he be not required to be governed by the provisions of the new statute, on the ground that it is not constitutional.

The new law, passed by the last legislature, stipulates that if an insanity defense is to be used in a first degree murder case, it must be set up in advance of the trial, that a hearing on defendant's sanity then shall be held before a jury and that its verdict may be returned upon the votes of nine of its twelve members. Should the verdict be one of sanity, the defendant is excluded from making the defense of insanity at his trial.

Opens Fire on Law.

Elston summed up briefly his attack upon the constitutionality of the law in three arguments.

"First," he said, "it is unconstitutional because it is possible under the law for a jury of nine to pass upon the defendant's defense instead of a legal jury of twelve.

"Second inasmuch as the law provides that the state may use the verdict as evidence against the defendant, and no reference is made to its use by the defendant, it is discriminatory.

"Third, in view of the fact that the statute compels the defendant to submit his defense in advance of his trial, it is compelling him to testify against himself."

Immediately after the court had overruled the motion, Elston announced that pleadings setting up the defense of insanity for Remus would be filed. Judge Shook ordered this action taken before noon tomorrow, announcing that at that hour.

Judge Shook ruled that the defense may take depositions, for the purpose of evidence, from all of the persons living in other cities who were named in the application.

FLYERS DIE AS BRAZIL GREETS FRENCH AIRMEN

Thousands See Burning Plane Crash.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, Oct. 17.—The welcome to the French trans-Atlantic aviators, Dieudonne Costes and Lieut. Joseph Le Brix, who arrived at the Rio de Janeiro military aviation field at 12:25 today, cost the lives of three Brazilian aviators.

Thousands of spectators gathered to greet the Frenchmen, who had hopped from Africa to Brazil and then down the coast, were horrified to see one of the Brazilian escort planes burst into flames and crash to earth, instantly killing Capt. Attilla Oliveira, Lieut. Salustiano Franklin Silva, and Second Lieutenant Thomas Menna Barreto.

Lieut. Barreto was preparing to make a parachute descent, as part of the maneuvers, when the Breguet plane in which he and his two fellow officers were flying suddenly caught fire and dropped like a flaming meteor.

Ruth Elder Sails for Europe.

HORTA, Fayal Island, Azores, Oct. 17.—[U. P.]—The tranquil Azores, which for three days have been the world's trans-Atlantic aviation center, may see the departure at dawn tomorrow of two women aviators—one bound for Paris and frocks, the other for New York and fame.

Ruth Elder, ruminating on her New York to Paris adventure, which so nearly ended in tragedy in mid-Atlantic, boarded the little Portuguese mail boat Lima tonight which leaves Horta at 4 a. m. tomorrow for Lisbon—an eight day trip.

Mlle. Lillie Dillenz, Vienna actress, will hop off at dawn, weather permitting, in the Junkers plane D-1230, piloted by Fritz Loose, on a flight to Newfoundland and New York.

Believes in Thirteen.

With Capt. George Haldeman, Ruth will try to get a fast steamer for France or England at Madeira, where her boat will call. Otherwise, she may continue to Lisbon and go overland to Paris.

Horta's 7,000 population planned a splendid ovation for Miss Elder when she went aboard the Lima. The boat is scheduled to arrive at Lisbon on Oct. 26, fully thirteen days after the Dutch tanker Barendrecht rescued Ruth and Haldeman some 350 miles from the Azores.

Ruth said she believed in "thirteen," pointing out that she was rescued on the thirteenth. She hoped, therefore, to make some splendid purchases in Paris.

Wishes Actress Good Luck.

Miss Elder has chatted several times with Mlle. Dillenz, the only other aviatrix who has started a trans-Atlantic flight and lived through it. She expressed the hope that the Viennese actress would succeed in her effort to be the first woman to cross the Atlantic by plane—an honor Ruth herself had sought and may seek again.

Miss Elder's stay here, like Mlle. Dillenz's, has been unique. The actress, although she has women's clothes and even offered to loan a dress or two to Ruth for dancing and dinners, has preferred the garb of an aviator.

German Plane Reaches Lisbon.

LISBON, Portugal, Oct. 18.—(AP)—The Heinkel hydro-airplane D-1220, en route from Warnemuende, Germany, to the United States by way of the Azores, alighted on the river here at [illegible] a. m. The plane, piloted by Horst Merz, completed a hop of about 250 miles from Vigo, Spain, where it was forced to land because of strong winds.

Plan Winnipeg-Chicago Line.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 17.—A small fleet of airplanes arrived from Minneapolis this afternoon. The party, headed by Verne L. Roberts, will meet Gen. J. H. McBrien of the Canadian Air league tomorrow to talk over plans for an air service from Winnipeg to Chicago and with New York.

Try This Before Making Engine Repairs

Check the ignition and look the spark plugs over whenever the engine falls short of the fine performance that it once had.

Many times expensive repair bills are incurred and it is afterwards found that all that was needed was a new set of spark plugs. This because all spark plugs in time deteriorate and need to be replaced.

When you buy spark plugs, be sure to insist on AC—the make on which Lindbergh, Chamberlin, Byrd and other great flyers staked their lives—and you will be sure of perfect spark plug performance.

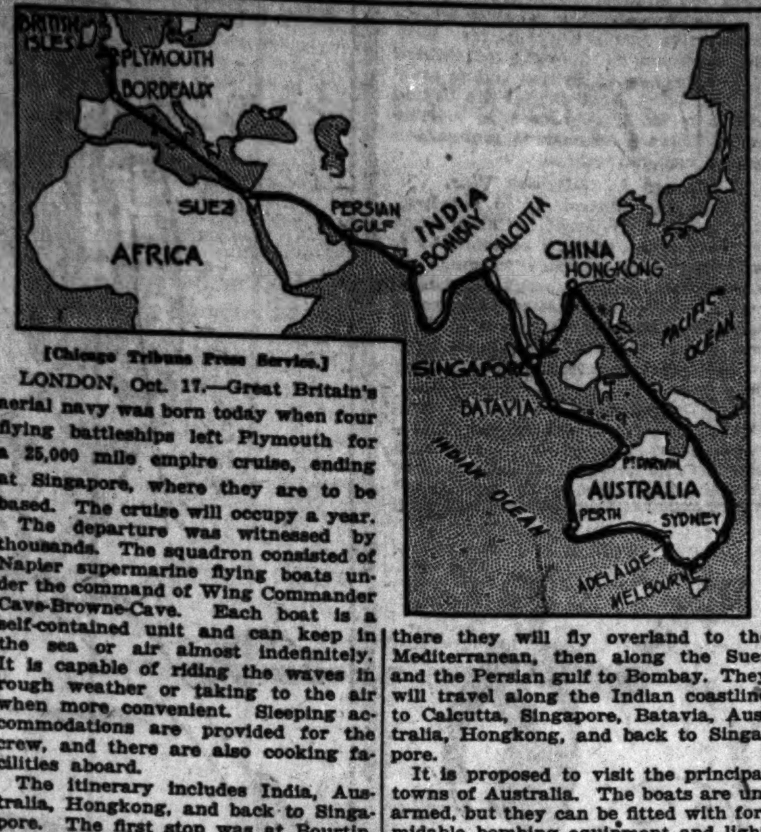
BRITAIN SENDS FORTH AIR NAVY



[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Oct. 17.—Great Britain's aerial navy was born today when four flying battleships left Plymouth for a 25,000 mile empire cruise, ending at Singapore, where they are to be based. The cruise will occupy a year.

The departure was witnessed by thousands. The squadron consisted of Napier supermarine flying boats under the command of Wing Commander Cave-Browne-Cave. Each boat is a self-contained unit and can keep in the sea or air almost indefinitely. It is capable of riding the waves in rough weather or taking to the air when more convenient. Sleeping accommodations are provided for the crew, and there are also cooking facilities aboard.

The itinerary includes India, Australia, Hongkong, and back to Singapore. The first stop was at Bourtin, near Bordeaux, France, tonight. From there they will fly overland to the Mediterranean, then along the Suez and the Persian gulf to Bombay. They will travel along the Indian coastline to Calcutta, Singapore, Batavia, Australia, Hongkong, and back to Singapore.

It is proposed to visit the principal towns of Australia. The boats are unarmed, but they can be fitted with formidable bombing equipment and light guns.

LEVINE'S HOME COMING FINDS NEW YORK DAMP

New York, Oct. 17.—[Special.]—Charles A. Levine completed today the travels he started June 4 when he hopped off across the Atlantic with Clarence Chamberlin.

The "first trans-Atlantic airplane passenger" was the city's guest and as such was brought from the Leviathan to the Battery on the city tug Macom, escorted by police launches, serenaded by the fire department band and handshaken by Grover Whalen, the mayor's proxy handshaker.

These official attentions, however, followed by a reception by Mayor Walker at City hall, did not make Mr. Levine's homecoming more than what a dramatic critic would call "adequate."

Policemen were ranked about the streets, but nowhere were they needed, for Mr. Levine was driven north through a drizzle damp silence. He had, as one man shouted at him from the sidewalk of lower Broadway, come home too late. Those who watched him pass were friendly, glad he was home, but unexcited.

Yet those 1,500 or 2,000 who gathered at the Battery to see him come ashore, although they did not cheer, were sincere in their liking for the chunky, baldish little man from Far Rockaway, who had spent $100,000 of the million he had made at thirty to fulfill a crazy whim.

He, in turn, was not expecting cheers and the mere presence of the small crowd touched him.

It was a hard task to maintain his good humor, for on the Leviathan and on the Macom, as well as at the Biltmore, where he rested before meeting the mayor, he was asked a hundred questions about the $500,000 suit the government has started against him on a post war salvage contract, about his quarrels with his successive pilots and his financial arrangements with them and others, about his reported fist fights in Paris and Germany.

Mr. Levine merely remarked pleasantly that the man who had insulted him in Paris, and whom he had hit effectively, had "the kind of a face you'd love to take a sock at."

THE DAWN HOPS TO SEA; RETURNS AFTER FEW HOURS

Woman Flyer Hopes to Start Again Today.

Old Orchard Beach, Me., Oct. 17.—[Special.]—Commander Frances Grayson and her valiant crew of "The Dawn" lifted from the wide beach at Old Orchard shortly after sunrise this morning and circled out to sea. A few moments later they were back, it having been necessary to valve 280 gallons of gasoline as the plane was nose heavy.

Mrs. Grayson's first words after the plane had again settled on the sand were:

"We'll try it again."

The take off came after three hours filled with rapid calculations by Brice Goldsborough, the navigator, and by hasty preparations by all connected with the flights. That is was not successful was not the fault of the plane, nor of the crew, said Mrs. Grayson. It was only because an error had been made in the disposal of the load, putting a few gallons of gasoline too far forward.

Steps were taken to remedy this by taking some of the gasoline from the nose tank and putting it in five gallon cans, which could be stowed in the rear of the boat. About 50 gallons were so transferred.

Mrs. Grayson hopes again to take off tomorrow morning. She said she was fortunate at having at her disposal 300 gallons of high test aviation gasoline which had been stored in the hangar at the beach for the use of Capt. Haldeman and Miss Elder, who at one time planned to fly to Old Orchard and from there to take off for Europe.

LINDY SEES NEED FOR AIRWAYS ON LAND, NOT OCEAN

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17.—[Special.] — Development of successful trans-continental airways rather than ocean air routes should be the immediate goal of American airmen, in the opinion of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, pioneer trans-oceanic flyer.

Dropping into Washington for a luncheon engagement at the White House, the famous young pilot told the President that while interest in aviation is booming throughout the United States, much remains to be done in the way of building up long distance cross-country airplane service.

"I believe," Col. Lindbergh said, after he left the White House, "that more good will be accomplished in the immediate future by the development of continental airways than by sporadic attempts to cross the Atlantic. We need considerable more development in land aerial transportation, and that problem should be solved first."

DRIVES INTO FREIGHT TRAIN.

Ramsay, Ill., Oct. 17.—[Special.]—E. T. McMillan of Deland, Ill., drove his automobile into a Nickel Plate freight train at a crossing early this morning, and was badly injured. There were no signal lights.

NO REBUKE FOR GEN. SUMMERALL AT WHITE HOUSE

Secretary Davis Goes to Aid in Flood Relief.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17.—[Special.] — The incident precipitated by President Coolidge's sudden recall of Maj. Gen. Charles P. Summerall, army chief of staff, from an inspection and speaking tour of the Pacific coast is apparently closed as far as the White House is concerned.

Following a conference with the President, Secretary of War Davis intimated today that Mr. Coolidge was now satisfied that Gen. Summerall was misquoted in his San Diego speech on the deplorable housing situation existing in the army.

Inquirers at the White House and the war department were led to infer that the presidential irritation aroused by the remarks attributed to Gen. Summerall had now been dissipated and that Mr. Coolidge has no intention of even calling upon the chief of staff for a letter of explanation.

Will Advise on Budget.

Officials at the White House said that no engagement had been made for Gen. Summerall, and as far as they know none will be arranged until the President is ready to take up war department budget matters. It was explained that in the absence of Secretary Davis, who leaves tomorrow on an inspection trip of the Mississippi flooded districts, Gen. Summerall would act for him on budget questions.

Secretary Davis called twice at the White House today and was apparently successful in smoothing over any dissatisfaction that might have existed over the conduct of his department.

Following his first visit Mr. Davis admitted that housing conditions in the army were still "pretty bad," but said he believed the President and congress were now fully awake to the situation and doing what they could to alleviate matters. He pointed to the fact that $22,000,000 was authorized by congress for new army construction last year.

Still Use Temporary Barracks.

Secretary Davis said, however, that the army was hopeful that sufficient funds would be made available so housing projects could be moved along at greater speed. In answer to questions he said that several thousand soldiers were still compelled to live in temporary barracks and that this condition would hold true for some time unless construction work was expedited.

It was disclosed at the war department that, while housing conditions have improved slightly in some places where construction work is progressing, in many instances it has been necessary to break up training units and transfer parts of divisions long distances in order to put the men in permanent houses. Such action has not only interfered with training but has proved expensive, it was stated.

Representative James [Rep., Mich], acting chairman of the house military affairs committee, said today that his investigation of housing conditions had convinced him that construction should be greatly expedited.

BRITTEN ASKS 30 NEW CRUISERS, 2 PLANE CARRIERS

Confident Congress Will Approve Program.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17.—[Special.]—Adoption by the coming congress of a five year naval building program calling for the construction of thirty 10,000 ton cruisers and two giant aircraft carriers similar to the Lexington and Saratoga was urged today by Representative Fred Britten [Rep., Ill.] upon his arrival in Washington after an extended tour in Europe. Mr. Britten estimates such a program would cost approximately $400,000,000.

"With the shameful results of the Geneva conference still fresh in our minds surely the coming congress will authorize a building program commensurate with proper protection of American commerce, wealth, and prestige," Mr. Britten said.

"My investigations have convinced me that the construction of six cruisers a year would not be an unreasonable number for the United States. If this were done this country would be insured of a well balanced navy regardless of what Great Britain and Japan might do during that period."

"Build Six Cruisers a Year."

Mr. Britten, who is a member of the house naval affairs committee and a "big navy" man, expressed confidence that congress would be willing to approve a program providing six cruisers a year.

"American equality is unthinkable in England," Mr. Britten said. "It will require another generation before the slow moving Britisher is convinced of our industrial and political importance. British refusal to agree upon sea equality at Geneva is positive evidence that she regards us as a prospective enemy or future foe. British diplomacy is not only far sighted but expressive of British public opinion, and there is nothing for the United States to do but proceed in a sane and deliberate manner to maintain a proper national defense.

Forsees U. S.-British War.

"European statesmen do not hesitate to say that Great Britain's place in the sun can only be regained by a war in which America is made to suffer great losses in wealth and man power. They say British statesmen are calmly waiting the day when they can assist, directly or indirectly, in pulling America from our predominant position."

Mr. Britten said the Geneva conference failed because American representatives refused to "be British patriots and agree to build the kind of cruisers best suited to British needs."

Neglect Dandruff and you'll soon GET BALD

You cannot afford to neglect dandruff. It quickly grows worse and worse, causing abnormal loss of hair, and eventual baldness.

You can rid your head of every particle of dandruff in three short days. The use of MONAHATO for three successive days will drive it away; once-a-week treatment thereafter will keep it away.

Monahato leaves your scalp spotlessly clean and your hair soft and lustrous. It stops excessive fall of hair and corrects itching scalp. It's guaranteed to do it!

Monahato
The Three-Day Dandruff Destroyer

This natural hair tonic is made from imported herbs. It contains no harsh chemicals to dry up the hair and make it brittle. It gives new life and health to both hair and scalp.

Wife Is Seeking $15,000 from W. I. O. Twombly.

Gloria of the glorious yellow curls and the innocent blue eyes, the 6 year old daughter of Willard I. O. Twombly and Ethel Long Twombly, became the center of a brisk legal battle yesterday in Judge John J. Sullivan's court.

The little girl was taken into the judge's chambers, away from dark insinuations in the case, the picture of a bad father drawn by attorneys for the mother, the picture of an incompetent mother given by the attorneys for the father. The child was left with what stray crumbs she could find to make out the meaning of it all. This afternoon, when the case goes on for more enlightenment as to motives and character, she may learn something more of the fate in store for her.

Attorney Dudley Field Malone, who has won fame in Paris as a divorce lawyer and whose pleading in the evolution case in Dayton, Tenn., against William Jennings Bryan gave him high rank as an orator, was in court with Attorney George L. Schein, representing the blonde young wife of the inventor of a radio tube. Mr. Twombly was in court with his attorney, Joel Baker.

Back Alimony at Issue.

The hearing was on motion to compel Mr. Twombly to pay about $15,000 back alimony, accumulated since the separation suit in New York. The final divorce case is to be heard later.

Mr. Schein related the court history of the case. Part of this record is an order releasing the inventor from alimony payments until he had been given freedom to see his child. Mr. Schein argued that this freedom always had existed in New York, the home of the mother, and that Mr. Twombly had not availed himself of opportunities offered to see the child, but used his failure to do so as a subterfuge to escape the payment of alimony.

The lawyer read an affidavit from Mary E. Long of Syracuse, the child's grandmother, telling how at Christmas time, 1925, the child was brought to New York to see her father, who did not want to see her, saying he had no time to bother with her. He did not even give her any presents, the grandmother had sworn.

Says Mother Was Poor.

Mr. Malone, who is serving without fee and who has, according to Mr. Schein, helped defray the little girl's expenses at school, told the court that Mrs. Twombly had been left destitute and had lived on money borrowed on notes. He said Twombly had beaten her and also the little daughter. Mr. Schein mentioned another woman other than Mrs. Twombly as a factor in Twombly's life.

Mr. Baker said there was no attempt to evade support of the mother and child by his client, but that Mr. Twombly merely insisted that the court order be lived up to permitting him to see his daughter without interference. He said it was impossible for the couple to live together again, but that the father wanted to know where the child was and how she was being treated. He denied that his client was wealthy now and said notoriety had hurt him in business and he was not able to pay $15,000.

Report Girl Is Kidnaped; Police Find She's Married

Acting on a report that 17 year old Thelma Spencer of 1923 Sunnyside avenue had been kidnaped and was being held a prisoner at 4445 Clifton avenue, Sergt. Roy Steffen and a police squad went to that address last night. They found the girl there with Edward Hartberg, 24 years old. Hartberg produced a certificate showing they had been married at Crown Point, Ind., during the afternoon. Despite the protests of the couple, Thelma was sent to her mother and Hartberg spent the remainder of the night in jail charged with disorderly conduct.

DETROIT MAYOR CALLS DRY LAW RANKEST JOKE

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Mayor John W. Smith, a candidate for reelection, today issued a statement to the Associated Press, unequivocally endorsing earlier statements attributed to him opposing enforcement of the national prohibition law.

"I am wet, and do not believe any sane or sensible person believes the prohibition law can be enforced in great cities like Detroit, Chicago or New York," he said. "It is about time the people of the United States realize that any attempt to enforce the prohibition law in any city will result in the breeding of hypocrisy, corruption of the police department, and the employment of the meanest of tactics. The whole thing is the rankest sort of a joke.

"If an attempt was made here to enforce the law it would result in the employment of snoopers, who would go around peeking in their neighbor's windows. The whole law is the rottenest hypocrisy."

SEEK TO DELAY EXECUTION OF MRS. CASSLER

An effort will be made this morning to delay the execution of Mrs. Catherine Cassler, set for Friday morning, until such time as her appeal to the Supreme court can be perfected, according to an announcement made yesterday by Attorney W. W. Witty. Chief Justice William V. Brothers of the Criminal court will be asked to change the execution day and to grant defense attorneys more time to get the case into the higher court.

Mrs. Cassler was condemned to death for her part in planning the murder of William Lindstrom, a cabinet maker. Mrs. Lillian Fraser and Loren Patrick, her co-conspirators, are now serving life terms in the penitentiary. At the time Mrs. Cassler said she would sooner go to her death than to the penitentiary.

Mrs. Cassler seemed not the least bit disturbed yesterday by the fact that her execution day is less than a week off. She seemed confident that a delay will be granted.

Mrs. Esther L. Kohn Loses $10,000 Pearl Necklace

Loss of a $10,000 pearl necklace by Mrs. Esther L. Kohn of 2237 Commonwealth avenue was revealed yesterday when Wagner & Glidden, insurance adjusters, made it known they are attempting to recover the string. The necklace consists of 81 matched pearls and a diamond crusted barrel shaped clasp. Mrs. Kohn said the string was either lost or stolen on Oct. 13 when she wore it on a shopping tour.

U. S. ADVERTISING CHIEFS GATHER IN 13 CONVENTIONS

Business Paper Editors Hear Max Mason.

Thirteen national organizations whose activities are concerned with the vast subject of advertising in all forms are scheduled to open their annual conferences in Chicago this week. From 5,000 to 8,000 persons, it is estimated, will attend the multiple convention, and the arrival of visitors began yesterday. The associations participating are:

Audit Bureau of Circulation.
Association of Newspaper Classified Advertising Managers.
Associated Business Papers.
Direct Mail Advertising association.
Insurance Advertising conference.
Mail Advertising Service association.
Inland Daily Press association.
National Conference of Business Paper Editors.
International Association of Newspaper Advertising Executives.
Better Letters association.
National Association of Teachers of Marketing and Advertising.
Association of House Organ Editors.

Three of the groups opened their conventions yesterday, the Mail advertising and the Insurance advertising units at the Stevens hotel and the editors of the Associated Business Papers at the Drake.

Mason Delivers Address.

The relations between business and scholarship and the need for technically educated men in the various fields of business was urged by Dr. Max Mason, president of the University of Chicago, who addressed the business paper editors. J. H. Bragdon, editor of the Textile World, addressed the same meeting on the subject of problems of American business and industry.

The general theme which is to thread through the sessions of all the groups of the advertising alliance is that of business promotion through advertising. The varieties known as newspaper, magazine, direct mail and trade are especially numerous on the programs extending through the week.

A phase of "Advertising Week," that is counted on to interest the public generally, is an exhibition of advertising material at the exhibition rooms of the Stevens hotel, including advertising media, from mail order letters to complete advertising campaigns that include detail from newspaper display opening campaigns to the tie-ups with the retail merchants and customers.

Council Submits Statistics.

In anticipation of the sales and merchandising conference to be held at the Stevens hotel beginning tomorrow, some figures were given out yesterday by the Chicago Advertising council, which is acting as host to the army of visiting delegates.

This information set forth that 75 per cent of the merchandise sold in the United States goes over the counters belonging to 25 per cent of the dealers of the country.

"According to the merchants' service bureau only 100,000 of the 1,500,000 retailers in the country are doing a prosperous business. About 400,000 dealers are doing a fair business," the statement said. "The other million dealers of the country are for the most part operating at a loss or just covering bare expenses."

This problem will be discussed through the three days of the conference, and the application of advertising principles to the situation considered. Edward N. Skinner, general manager of Wilson Brothers, is scheduled to talk on "What the Manufacturer and Distributor Must Do to Help the Independent Retailers Stay in Business."

Leipzig Fair Delegation to Visit Chicago Today

A party of twelve delegates from the Leipzig trade fair, an organization more than 700 years old composed of German manufacturers and merchants, will arrive here today to study local industries and mercantile concerns. This will be the fourth group of delegates sent this year from the fair to study conditions in America.

Sausage breakfasts on the old Mickelberry Plantation became a sacred rite among those friends who were invited to gather around the table.

At these morning feasts the dainty little nuggets of sausage were the piece de resistance. And one partook freely—until completely satisfied.

For, under her witchery, Grandmother Mickelberry's little pork sausages not only whetted the appetite to especial keenness, but also inspired digestion.

A few selected friends enjoyed this fine food in those early plantation days. Today millions of pounds are distributed annually to homes, clubs, hotels, and the dining cars of the finest trains.

The same family recipe

It is to Grandmother Mickelberry that we owe the recipe for Mickelberry's famous little pork sausages.

The delicate, spicy flavor which so many relish today—which invokes good appetite and aids assimilation—faithfully follows the original recipe.

Serve any time

With waffles or pancakes and thick, golden syrup—with tangy applesauce or sliced apples—nestling in billowy mashed potatoes—and in a score of other ways—Mickelberry's adds new delights to the sausage season.

Mickelberry's little farm sausages are made and delivered fresh every day. Look for the famous green and yellow package at meat shops everywhere.

Tireless little Trojans
. . . what gives them such boundless energy?

It takes a mighty supply of energy to meet the needs of a first rate boy or girl. Energy for growth . . . energy to meet the burden of school work . . . energy for romping from morning 'till night!

That is why doctors tell us to make sure that our children's diet is rich in life-giving foods. And of all foods, we are told, none is better than good, pure butter.

Prof. E. V. McCollum says, for example: "I have come to the conclusion . . . that the efficiency of a people can be predicted with a fair degree of accuracy from a knowledge of the degree to which they consume dairy products."

The reason for butter's amazing power to promote growth and health in children lies not alone in energy as expressed in food calories. To an even greater extent it lies in butter's rich content of those life-giving substances known as vitamins.

Butter that meets the needs of growing children

Blue Valley is an ideal butter for growing children—is rich in vitamins and other body building elements—largely because it is made as only Blue Valley knows how.

Blue Valley learned years ago that to make a supremely fine butter required far more than a carefully selected and thoroughly pasteurized supply of fine cream. Good cream, though highly necessary, is only the beginning of good butter.

There must also be maintained a most sensitive and delicately balanced set of scientific methods, processes and formulae. It was the further promotion of this scientific work that originally prompted Blue Valley to found the now famous Blue Valley Research Laboratories. And when later Professor Otto F. Hunziker, a scientist of world fame in butter making, was secured as directing head, literally a new era was marked in the production of really fine butter.

* * * *

But try Blue Valley! Note its delightful aroma, its marvelous uniformity, its wondrous flavor—a flavor that has caused Blue Valley to be used in more homes than any other package butter in America. Blue Valley Creamery Company, 1137 West Jackson Blvd., Chicago. Telephone Monroe 7420.

PEKING TROOPS PUSH FOE BACK TO SHANSI BORDER

Chang Regains Control of Two Railways.

BY CHARLES DAILEY.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
[Copyright: 1927: By The Chicago Tribune.]

PEKING, Oct. 17.—Marshal Chang Tso-lin's headquarters today announced the complete recovery of the Suiyuan railway to the Shansi border, 145 miles west of Peking, and the reopening of the Hankow railway by the capture of Shiochiachwang, 172 miles south.

The Shansi armies, badly battered, lost in addition to heavy casualties, two full regiments of infantry and twelve field guns. These troops surrendered within 40 miles of Peking. Chang's army captured more than 10,000 of the enemy.

Leaves Wounded Behind.

In the retreat over the mountain passes Tupan Yen Hsi-shan of Shansi province was compelled to leave behind all the badly wounded.

It is now claimed that the Shansi governor was deceived by the Christian general, Feng Yu-hsiang, who upon the withdrawal of the Shansi troops from the southern frontier for attacks to the east and north, himself began a northward drive into Shansi.

MRS. BUDLONG LOSES HER LONG DIVORCE BATTLE

Newport, R. I., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Definite intimation that Mrs. Jessie Margaret Budlong had lost her long fight against the divorce proceedings brought by Milton J. Budlong of Newport and New York was given by Judge Herbert Carpenter of the Superior court at the conclusion of testimony today. While not announcing flatly that he would grant the divorce, he said that he was satisfied in his mind Mr. Budlong had proved his wife guilty of extreme cruelty, the grounds on which he had sued.

Judge Carpenter said that his decision would be prepared in the form of a rescript. To Mrs. Budlong he added:

"I will grant the custody of the children to Mr. Budlong and will leave it to him whether you see them at all. I have the greatest faith in Mr. Budlong."

If within his power, he said, he would revoke the $750 a month allowance which Mrs. Budlong has been receiving "as from this date." Mrs. Budlong said that she would take exceptions from any adverse decision. The final day was marked by a renewal of the clashes between Mrs. Budlong and Judge Carpenter.

Mason and Owen to Face Trial Today for Conspiracy

State Senator Lowell B. Mason and Maj. Percy Owen, former prohibition administrator, are scheduled to go on trial today before Judge Adam C. Cliffe on charges of conspiracy to extort and accept bribes, growing out of the sacramental wine scandal first exposed three years ago.

Breakfasts that 'stand by' you

Urged as Essential to Success by Great Business Institutions

THE business world has learned that almost 70% of the day's important work falls into the four short morning hours before luncheon.

Thus correct breakfast eating, as essential to good work, is being urged on employees in such famous institutions as General Electric Co., James McCreery's and many others.

To keep up with your job, you must be at your best mornings.

Thus Quaker Oats—providing an excellent food balance of protein, carbohydrates, vitamine "B" and laxative bulk, has become the dietetic urge of the world. Thousands, on expert advice, are making "Quaker" now their daily breakfast.

No other cereal grown compares in food balance. No other is quite so appetite enticing. Deliciously attractive food that "stands by" you in protecting your priceless morning hours.

Grocers have two kinds: Quick Quaker—cooks in 2½ to 5 minutes—and regular Quaker Oats. Get today for mornings at your best.

DOUBT IN TRIPLE SLAYING RISES TO PUZZLE POLICE

Holdup Theory Advanced; Pocketbook Missing.

who was the last witness known to have seen Winters and the two girls alive.

Palmquist was standing at 79th street and Cottage Grove avenue waiting for a street car when Winters in the sedan with the girls stopped at the corner for a signal light. All three were laughing and apparently enjoying themselves, he said. They turned west in 79th street. Twenty minutes later all three were dead.

Relatives Defend Winters.

The question of whether they could have been victims of a holdup man caused police to shrug their shoulders. But at the Winters home, where the youth lived with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Winters, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Winters, there was no indecision.

"Buster (Winter's nickname) never shot those girls," declared Mrs. Winter's firmly. "He was physically unable to have done it. His pocketbook containing all identification papers was not found on his body and I believe he was held up and shot by some one who also shot the girls."

Winters had lived with his uncle and aunt practically all his life. His father, James O. Winters, deserted his family when Winters was but a few months old. His mother married again and moved to Brook, Ind. She came here last night with three daughters.

Reports that he was a victim of tuberculosis and had but a few months to live were erroneous, according to his aunt. He had been ill with influenza and was sent to California for his health. He returned to Chicago last July.

Warned to Stay Away.

William Martin, 7336 University avenue, father of one of the slain girls, said that he had warned Winters to stay away from his daughter.

"I understood that Winters was ill," he said, "so I told him to keep away. He had not, to my knowledge, been out with Margaret for a year and a half."

Sunday night Winters left his home at 7 o'clock. He appeared at a garage at 6218 Cottage Grove avenue at 7:30 and rented a car. He was accompanied by a girl whom Edward O'Brien, garage attendant, identified as the Stadler girl.

It is believed that Winters at this time made a date with the Stadler girl and told her to bring her friend, Margaret, along. At 8 o'clock he met four boys at 73d street and Greenwood avenue. They accompanied him to 7240 Cottage Grove avenue, where they purchased two pints of moonshine. They drove around the neighborhood for several hours, drinking the liquor, testimony brought out.

At 11:25, according to the boys, Winters said he had an appointment with a telephone operator and left them at 73d street and Greenwood avenue. He apparently picked up the two girls. An hour later they were seen by Palmquist, who reported them in high spirits at 12:25.

Then came the twenty minute gap before the three deaths were discovered. What happened in those twenty minutes, likely never to be revealed, is the solution to the mystery.

In the meantime, funeral services for the three victims were being made last night. Miss Stadler will be buried in Mount Olivet cemetery Thursday following services at her home at 8:30 a. m. and at St. Lawrence church. Relatives of the dead youth and of Miss Martin will complete their funeral plans today.

KIMBALL
PIANOS
A 70 Years' Acclaim
WHAT would influence you more in the selection of a piano than the opinion of some cultured friend whose tastes in music are in close sympathy with yours, and whose home environment is much the same as your own?
Among the hundreds of thousands who own Kimball pianos, there are many whose preferences are a counterpart of yours, and whose circumstances are almost identically the same.
Other designs in grands from $975 to $7000
A variety of uprights and players
The Kimball piano is a treasured possession with music lovers in every type of home throughout the country. Every year for seventy years the Kimball name has been identified with unfailing merit in musical merchandise. From one generation to another, the great artists of the world have honored it with unstinted praise.
Come and hear the rich, singing tones that won this widespread acclaim. See the new styles in grands—period designs, classic-modern, reproducing grands, uprights and players. Why not hear the Kimball today?
The Kimball "One-Price" policy assures the same full, generous value to every purchaser. Partial payments if desired.

olff to Probe "Unknown Driver" Verdict.

Coroner Oscar Wolff declared last night that he will investigate a coroner's inquest that cleared Robert Rothschild, 16 years old, son of Justin Rothschild, wealthy printer, in connection with the death Saturday night of Mrs. Clara Hedin, 58 years old, 849 East Fortieth street.

The jury's verdict was that the woman was killed by an unknown auto driver. Robert, in a written statement to Hyde Park police following the accident, said his automobile struck her. The accident occurred at th street and Drexel boulevard. Presiding at the inquest were Chief Deputy Paul Rothenberg and Deputy J. Kveton from the coroner's office.

Three Deaths in Day.

Three auto deaths yesterday raised Cook county's 1927 motor toll to 740. Richard Hourihan, 30 years old, 8331 South Throop street, a city fireman, died from a fractured skull received Sunday when he fell from his truck as it struck a bump in the street in front of 6900 Eggleston avenue.

Andrew Elo, 39 years old, 9029 Drexel avenue, was killed in a collision between his automobile and a street car at 103d street and Vernon avenue.

Injuries received July 17, when his automobile crashed in an elevated post near Twelfth and State streets, proved fatal to Harry Fiedler, 22 years old, 14 West 14th street.

Boy Victim Identified.

A boy killed by an automobile Sunday at Harrison and Sibley streets was identified as Joseph Costa, 10 years old, 9 Dakin street.

Miss Mabel Fields, 15 years old, 44 West 19th street, Chicago Heights, escaped with bruises and scatches when her automobile was struck by a switch engine at the Michigan Central crossing in Chicago Heights. She is a daughter of Harry Fields, highway engineer of the suburb.

FEARS HE'S AMNESIA VICTIM.

Mrs. Cora Ramsley, 211 South Throop street, asked the police yesterday to search for her husband, Scott, 32, missing for several days. She fears he is an amnesia victim.

BISHOP MULDOON WILL GIVES SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS FOR PRIESTS

Rockford, Ill., Oct. 17.—[Special.]—Disposing of an estate of $30,000, all in personal property, the will of the late Bishop Peter J. Muldoon was filed in Probate court today.

A bequest of $7,500 is made to establish a scholarship at St. Mary's seminary at Baltimore for the education of young men for the priesthood of Rockford diocese.

St. Vincent's school for boys and St. Vincent's school for girls at Freeport were bequeathed $2,000 each. The Catholic Church Extension society of Chicago is given $1,000, and St. Thomas High school of this city will receive his library and his stock in the Columbus club of Rockford.

A sister, Catherine Muldoon [Mother M. Irene], is bequeathed $1,000; his brother, Dr. John J. Muldoon, Chicago, $2,000, and they are to have their choice of his pictures and paintings, the remainder to go to the bishop of the Rockford diocese.

The remainder of the estate is divided equally among Ellen Muldoon and Esther Muldoon O'Rourke, Providence, R. I., and Mary Muldoon of Chicago, except a bequest of $500 to his housekeeper, Rachael Shields.

HUGHES ORDERED TO BAR BOOTLEG MOVIES OF FIGHT

"Bootleg" movies of the Dempsey-Tunney fight in Soldiers' field came under the ban of the police department yesterday after Corporation Counsel Ettelson notified Chief Hughes to stop their exhibition, which, he said, violates a court injunction.

The injunction was granted to a firm holding an exclusive contract for filming and distributing the pictures. Previous to its issuance, however, the city censor board had issued permits for exhibition of the fight pictures.

Since then, Mr. Ettelson told the chief, the movies have been transferred from one theater to another without a written notice of the transfer being filed with the censors as required by ordinance. The corporation counsel recommended that the permits be canceled at once and the showing stopped.

CONTRACTOR HANGS SELF IN GARAGE.

FIND WOMAN AND STEPFATHER AX MURDER VICTIMS

Greenfield, Ind., Oct. 17.—[Special.]—Unnoticed by hundreds of passing Sunday motorists, the bodies of David Boyles, 58, and his step-daughter, Zenith Burress, 32, both of Indianapolis, were found near here in a ditch today. A small army ax, covered with blood, was found in the adjoining pacture.

Police and sheriffs of several nearby counties tonight are searching for Willard Ewing, escaped prisoner from the Indiana state farm, sentenced there for six months for bigamy because he married Miss Burress without obtaining a divorce from his first wife.

Saturday evening he appeared and begged his second wife to accompany him here, where, he said, he had arranged for a lawyer to annul their marriage. Miss Burress induced her stepfather to accompany her, despite her mother's protests. They left in the car Ewing was driving.

U.S. Orders $68,784 Refund to Commonwealth-Edison

Anthony Czarnecki, collector of customs at the port of Chicago, yesterday was ordered by the United States customs court to refund $68,784 to the Commonwealth Edison company as duty overcharge paid on an electric generator imported from Scotland. The company paid a total of $258,000 duty on the generator, which was valued at $1,000,000.

ARMY PROGRESS.

The army and its leaders are waking up. Recent reports of orders for the complete motorization of one entire regiment, recent news of new tanks, new guns, new rifles, and new tactical experiments with mechanized forces are evidences of a fresh progressive spirit.

It means, advocates of adequate preparedness will hope, the beginning of a new era in American military policy. Commendable as has been the practice of army schools to teach the lessons of past wars, such a system, as shown by the results, blinded, to a considerable extent, the military leaders of 1914-'17 and 1917-'18 to the progress in their own profession. It trained a type of mind which neglected tanks and gas and resisted trucks, machine guns, and modern artillery.

Now, however, ten years after the commencement of the war for the United States, come these signs of a renaissance. But is this movement for modern military defense to be encouraged until it attains a tangible goal, or is it to be met by public apathy and official obstruction? What, in particular, is congress going to do about it?

At the Aberdeen proving grounds the Army Ordnance association's annual demonstration took place. Why must seekers go to a proving ground to see the latest military equipment in action? Because there is none with the troops in actual service.

The ordnance department has built guns so far outclassing those of the world war period and those in the hands of the troops that there is no comparison between them. It has built and is building new types of tanks. Of the guns, the new ones have been declared standard, but only six of them have been built.

A private corporation would laugh at such a policy. A motor car manufacturer, after testing and perfecting a new design, places it in the hands of the public. The public reaction is the ultimate test. With ordnance material the troops are the public and the only means of fully testing a gun or a tank design is to manufacture the gun or the tank in sufficient quantity to place it in the hands of troops to be tried under actual and varied conditions.

Only by such tests can a design be perfected, and only by some measure of quantity production can a design be tested for its suitability to the quantity production necessary in time of war. No matter how skilled an ordnance engineer may be, he cannot create an article for quantity production by producing a half dozen articles by shop craft methods.

Were war declared next week the country could not turn out the new guns and the new tanks and get them into the hands of the troops in war time number short of six months or perhaps a year. Nor would there be any real assurance that they would function properly under service conditions. Not only would our first line troops be pitifully few in number, but they would be forced to use for at least six months arms some of which are patterned on designs thirty years old. It was fortunate, as concerning the immediate issue, that our allies in the world war were able to supply our troops with guns, with machine guns, gas masks, airplanes, grenades, automatic rifles, and tanks. But it was unfortunate in that it kept America from comprehending the terrible predicament of a country so abjectly unprepared for war as we were.

It is the country and its representatives in congress which must be made to understand the present need of the army for a preparedness in war material. Army men learned their lesson in the war. The new spirit we spoke of is their answer. But they cannot carry on without popular support and without the appropriation of sufficient funds by congress. It takes money to manufacture guns and tanks in the numbers needed. It takes money to experiment and test and perfect. It takes more money to put the perfected weapons into the hands of the troops. And behind the money must be a national will to see this country adequately prepared for defense.

Without money, without the support of the people, the new spirit which is pushing our military leaders on to new progress will dwindle away and die and our army will once more slump into the same rut it occupied in 1917.

AMERICANS AND THEIR HISTORY.

The shrewd election buffoonery which brought King George of England into Chicago city politics and is now used to cover the effort to get rid of an efficient educator as head of the city schools is raising a controversy of more than passing political interest. Whether the text books in school use contain perverted history is, we think, a question of importance and we are glad to have the question thoroughly aired and errors eliminated. We shall make some comment on the discussions of the war of independence in these histories, but meanwhile we suggest that if it be true that American history has been offered our youth by authors biased in favor of the British side of the controversy, it is certainly not true that we shall be better off if it is to be replaced by history written with a German or Irish bias.

What our future American citizens have a right to is the story of their country told by competent historians who are not partisans, or if partisans are partisans of America. Hyphenated history is a fraud and we are not impressed with the inclination of either Mr. Gorman or Mr. Bausman to present American history as it should appear to the youth of the land. German bias or Irish bias is no more excusable than British bias.

One of the natural, but unfortunate, results of the European war has been the revival of what was called hyphenated Americanism. The phrase was not supposed to include sentimental devotion to England. That form now is in the limelight. But if it is desirable to prevent its influence in American affairs, it should be offset by single minded devotion to America and not by a hostility to England arising from devotion to some other country. Americans ought to and will resent their country being made a battleground of foreign loyalties and hatreds.

A LAW FOR THE BUILDING TRADES.

Leaders of the unions in the building trades are feeling about for a substitute for the national board of jurisdictional awards which they repudiated at the recent convention of the American Federation of Labor in Los Angeles. As matters stand now, there is no quasi-judicial body to which disputes between unions can be appealed. Accordingly, there is danger of a renewal of the costly strikes and lockouts which resulted from disputes between unions as to which of them should perform particular services. New building methods and new building materials are continually being introduced and each of them offers an opportunity for a disagreement.

The repudiated national board was made up of representatives of the various unions and, in addition, of contractors, engineers and architects in whose impartiality the unions for a time, at least, trusted. The failure of that board is explained by Mr. Wren of THE TRIBUNE staff in a recent article. He says the board, of necessity, had to choose between rival claimants and each decision earned the enmity of some union. In the eight years of its existence, the board antagonized many unions and the unfavorable decisions appear to have been remembered while the favorable ones were forgotten. In addition, the unions had come to distrust the impartiality of some of the members of the board.

President Green of the American federation hopes that a substitute court of awards can be created within the ranks of labor. No doubt it can, but we doubt if a new board can have any greater permanency than the last one until some code of principles to be applied to inter-union disputes is set up and accepted by the unions. The last board was a court virtually without a law to apply. No litigant likes to lose a case but most men will accept defeat if the decision is based upon settled rules and principles. They may solace themselves with the thought that the principle which worked against them this time may work in their favor next. In the absence of law, a decision must be founded on little but expediency or favoritism, and it is certain to rankle. If the unions accept President Green's suggestion, they will be wise to give the new board, as its first duty, the task of drawing up a set of principles to govern jurisdictional awards and have these principles indorsed by every building trade before the court turns its attention to the relatively easy task of applying the principles to particular disputes.

FLAGELLANTES.

A correspondent has taken us to task for calling the floggers of Alabama "flagellantes." He says there is no such word. He is correct. We coined it. We thought it might convey the truth that these night riders are, in reality, the victims of an unfortunate depravity. They resemble in that respect the medieval flagellants who went about the country lashing each other with thorns. The simple folk who saw them marveled at their extraordinary piety, but modern investigation has left little doubt of the true source of their behavior.

The flagellantes only pretend they are enforcing the moral judgments of their communities as the vigilantes did in the frontier towns. The floggers' victims, often as not, have been useful members of society, guilty of no wrongdoing. An unexpurgated account of the floggings leaves little doubt of their orgiastic nature. It is astonishing that the flagellante cult has been allowed to grow, unhampered, in many sections of the country in the face of plain evidence of perversion. We can explain it only on the ground that, as a people, we are more willing to accept pious declarations at face value than any other people under the sun.

Editorial of the Day

[The Argus (Rock Island, Ill.)]

We believe it is a matter of record that in the first 278 days of 1927, Sundays included, building proceeded in Chicago at the rate of more than $1,000,000 a day. The permits from Jan. 1 to Oct. 1, inclusive, totaled $281,520,000. It should be added that all this is for building exclusively and does not include the tens of millions being spent for such items as street widening, road making, grade separation, park extension, and the construction of outer drives. It has nothing to do with the expenditures of the sanitary district, nor with the underground work of utility companies, nor with what the city is spending for the water system. Chicago is advancing to a great future. It is probably impossible to visualize that future accurately, but in spite of handicaps in the way of lawless bandit gangs, political exploitation, and many other unpleasant things that seem inevitably to be associated with great cities, Chicago is ever forging ahead. The city has adopted the policy of exhibiting undesirable citizens taken in custody by the police, and the people at designated times call and look over the assortment. In this manner, many mysteries are cleared up and the local situation is vastly improved. Some of these fine days Chicago will make up its mind to fasten uop nitself forever a character which will stamp it as America's best city from every point mind to fasten upon itself forever a character which and clean house in earnest. One does not have to cherish Utopian fancies to believe in the feasibility of such a movement. Chicago is progressing at such a pace that as new and greater responsibilities come, they will be borne by the only sort of officials who can really cope with them, men and women of the highest honor and ability. From a material point of view, too much money has been invested in Chicago to justify any form of government but the best—any civic policy but the best. Too much is at stake.

A FUTURE HIGHBROW.

He was a solemn little boy and his chin barely reached the counter in the library's circulation room. He stood there for a moment in silence and seemed to be taking it all in.

"Well, my little man," said one of the attendants, "what book shall it be today?"

"O, something about life," returned the little fellow philosophically.—Boston Transcript.

How to Keep Well By Dr. W. A. Evans

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to hygiene and prevention of disease will be answered in this column. Personal replies will be made to inquiries, under proper limitations, when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Dr. Evans will not make diagnosis or prescribe for individual disease.

HOW DR. CHENEY FIGHTS COMMON COLDS.

DR. V. S. CHENEY has had an unusually extensive experience with common colds. For a number of years he has been the medical director of Armour & Co. In this position he has had opportunity daily to watch the health of many thousand employés. The common cold is the most frequent disorder among these employés. It keeps each man in the group away from work 1.4 days out of each year and each woman away 2.1 days. It makes for inefficiency on many other days.

Dr. Cheney is satisfied that he has discovered how a man can keep himself from having a cold. Also, how a cold can be broken up when it is taken early, and how it can be cured when it is taken late. He thinks men "take cold" when they become a little acid, or, to state it a little differently, when they have a mild acidosis.

To prevent colds, prevent mild acidosis. To do this, take plenty of exercise and eat in moderation. He especially advises against heavy meals and alcoholic beverages.

In his experience the heavy "cold" days are Mondays and the days following holidays. The explanation of this fact is the heavy Sunday dinner and the holiday bouts of eating and drinking. The everyday diet should be low in proteins and other acid producing foods and high in such alkali producing foods as vegetables, fruits, and milks.

When a cold is coming on he recommends that the system be made alkaline as quickly as possible. To do this he gives sixty grain doses of bicarbonate of soda every two hours for three doses. A glass of warm water is given along with it. This makes the system alkaline; the urine and the nose secretions are shown to be alkaline by the litmus paper test. In addition, he gives calcidin, a mixture of calcium and iodine—one grain every half hour until six doses are taken, and he sprays the nose.

If the cold is well established before treatment is begun he goes at the job of curing it in the same way, but he is somewhat more deliberate about it. He gives 30 grains of bicarbonate of soda and 1 grain of calcidin every two hours for 6 doses, and then 20 grains of the soda and 1 grain of calcidin every three hours for the remainder of the day. He also uses a spray.

He does not think colds are infectious or contagious. He proved this to his own satisfaction by taking the watery discharge of the nose in a fresh cold and trying to infect with it. Rosenau tried in the same way to cause influenza during the great epidemic of 1918 and failed.

LICENSING SHOE CLERKS

Mrs. L. J. F. writes: About the most constructive idea that I have seen in a long time was the proposal to examine and license the clerks in shoe stores. Ninety people out of every hundred wear misfit shoes. Wearing such misfits causes crippled feet and sometimes crooked spine. I think in 20 years I have had only three pairs of shoes that fitted me, and my feet, once perfect, are now permanently crippled. If we cannot get shoes that fit we might as well go back to wooden shoes. Why should we allow shoe clerks to make us a nation of cripples?

REPLY.

Licensing clerks would partly solve the problem. The effect would be both direct and indirect.

ENEMAS HABIT FORMING.

E. F. J. writes: Are enemas habit forming?

REPLY.

Yes.

NO HARM FROM SCORCHING.

T. O. writes: My room is heated by the kitchen stovepipe. I have asbestos paper around the pipe to prevent odors from coming up. When it is scorched I get new. Is this scorching paper harming the air in my room?

REPLY.

I don't think so.

The scorching process is incomplete combustion. But the incompleteness of combustion bears more on the paper than on the product. Even though some carbon monoxide is formed by the scorching, there cannot be enough to do material harm.

TOO MUCH MUD.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—While visiting in Elmhurst recently my car became stuck in the mud and while trying to get it out a tow car happened along and offered to pull the car out for a fixed price and I told the man in charge to go ahead with the job.

After the car had been pulled out of the rut I discovered that the crankcase had been been completely broken and when I went to find the man in charge of the tow car he was gone, not even stopping to collect his charges.

Please inform me as to whether or not I could collect from the man in charge of the tow car or from his employer for the damage sustained. C. M.

You could not collect unless you could prove that they were in some way to blame.

NO CLAIM.

Bement, Ill., Oct. 7.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—Do I receive a dower interest in my wife's estate? The property was left to her and her heirs. Her parents retained life interest in the estate, but my wife's mother survived her about one year. J. E. R.

No, you would not have dower since under the Illinois statute this wording creates a life estate in the first taker and remainder to the heirs.

READ YOUR CONTRACT.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—If A buys a piano from B, pays part cash and balance in monthly payments. A makes two payments but is unable to make more and writes to B asking him to repossess his piano. 1. Can B collect from A's salary? 2. Is B entitled to repossess the piano? P. R.

1. It seems probable that he can. Depends on the wording of the contract.

CONGRESSWOMAN MARY NORTON says that young Teddy Roosevelt is a high class moron. Time was when the ladies in speaking harshly of gentlemen would merely say, "Well, anyhow, I don't think it was nice of him to say what he did, but, for heaven's sake, don't say I told you. Oh, boo hoo, I could just cry my eyes out!" But now! "High class moron!" Oh, ladies! ladies!

Oh, There Must Be More than That.

Dick: THE TRIB says Chicago's pop has gone to 3,741,910, a gain of 1,040,205 in seven years. My dear, them 1,040,205 is bootleggers. PUSSY P.

Whazzamat?

Sir: Irwin S. Cobb in his story, "No Dam' Yankee," November Cosmopolitan, p. 65, 1.89, writes: "Now, it was decreed by the little deputy fates who post up the ledgers for we lesser earthlings that there should be . . ." A very pretty phrase, "we lesser earthlings," but between you and I, Irwin, it ain't no dam' grammer, neither, it ain't no dam' grammer. P. D. GOG.

Oh, We've Got It All Right. Whoops, Dearie!!!

R. H. L.: I think on the cover of the Linebook you should have something GORGEOUS! A perfectly beautiful and fascinating something. Very clever and scintillating. This, I think, would make an adorable cover. TWO TON TESSIE.

AND, BESIDES, it is very rude of Mary to remember that young Teddy, who spoke so bitterly of Tammany corruption and Al Smith, was the very one who carried to President Harding the executive order transferring Teapot Dome to the interior department presided over by Senator Fall. Honestly, girls, when you get into politics you must remember there is nothing meaner than remembering things. And, remembering them so accurately, too. Oh, how horrible! So once again, oh, ladies, ladies!

A Little Tact, Howard, a Little Tact. That's All.

R. H. L.: Ain't women funny? The missus has been bound an' determined she was goin' to have a fur coat this winter in spite of me sayin' we didn't have the money an' she couldn't get it this year—but she went down an' tried a dozen or two on yesterday an' decided they made her look too fat. It goes to show that it's all in handling 'em right. HOWARD.

Interesting, but Intricate.

R. H. L.: "Low bridge ahead," warned the bus conductor, "keep your seats and face to the front." "Oh," chirped the sweet young thing, "it can't be did." THE NEEDLER.

IT'S A SECRET! But the eminent artist who has made the drawing for the front cover has completed his work. When Shelby and Ben McCanna and Hank and us saw it we simply folded up like accordions and screamed with laughter. Hank couldn't set type for three hours. Whenever he thought of the picture, which was every two seconds, he would double up and laugh so hard Charley Flynn had to drag him into the open air and throw water in his face. Don't, oh, don't remind us of it—oh, ha ha ha! ha ha ha!!!

But It's Our Book, So Please May We Horn In with Our Initials Some Place?

Dick: Yes, for the cover of the new Linebook I want Dinny. I want his picture in his costume as François Villon. I want it to be in colors and I want it smeared all over that front cover. And I want his name in his own handwriting under it. And in the book must be his poem "To Him," and everything that was written by the contributors about him, and his letter of thanks. And the picture of Dinny in his now rôle of D'Artagnan in "The Three Guardsmen" must be on the back cover. I have spoken. LUCRETIA BORGIA.

WE DECIDED SUNDAY night that nobody seemed to want to buy our radio, that as long as we had the darned thing we might as well use it, and, being it was Sunday night, that it would be a good thing to listen to a sermon. The preacher was telling about some great general who had the best army and the best men and the best arms and the best plans and the best position and everything, but who got licked out of his boots because he didn't have God. We got interested, but just then the preacher said that unless they have God in them all our "institooshuns" would fail. We quit right there. And we'd probably got a lot of good out of that sermon and been a nobler and a better man but for that "INSTITOOSHUNS." For that, to us, is worse than crime.

Oh, say, R. H. L., have you seen my girl? I lost her coming out of the movies last night. When last seen she wore a small black felt hat, black coat, pointed fox scarf, gun metal stockings, and black suede pumps—also carried a black velvet purse with a rhinestone buckle. FRANK-TIC.

P. S.: She is letting her hair grow. F. T.

CONCHI (more formerly Eusebio Concialdi), who has sung to you Line people so often on Line Nites, gives a concert next Sunday afternoon at the Studebaker. And the one and only Isaac Van Grove will play his accompaniment. Only one Line song, Madelon's "Road to Vaux," is on Conchi's program, but he is always very good about encores, and he will, no doubt, oblige with Margery F. W.'s "Alchemy" and Lundee's "Sell Me a Dream." You won't have to demand Mr. Van Grove's "She's a Winsome Wee Thing." That's programmed.

But He Doesn't Seem to Believe It Quite as Much as He Did.

RHL: "Nobody's Stenog." says we "can't" get along without women. She runs very true to form, for she forgets that there is a Webster's International dictionary, wherein (if she will refer to it) she will find no such word as "can't." The fact that she apparently does not know there is no such word very readily explains why she is "Nobody's Stenog." Personally, I like women, but believe that a little constructive criticism now and then is very helpful. JASPER B.

HOWARD CHANDLER CHRISTY has been commissioned to paint a picture of Mussolini. No, no, Mussolini, wait, wait, hold everything. When you've seen the cover of the new Linebook you'll have no artist paint your picture except the eminent artist who has done the picture on the Linebook. Oh, Mr. Mussolini, you'll simply die laughing.

This Is Going to Make Both Boys Very Angry.

Dick: Can it be that our new friend, Herbie Fat, and our old friend, Herblock, are one and the same person? Some of us suspect the presence of an Ethiopian in the quips. Jo Jo.

FROM THE TRIBUNE'S COLUMNS

65 YEARS AGO TODAY

OCTOBER 18, 1862.

LOUISVILLE.—It is reported here that there was a battle on Oct. 15 near Lancaster. It is said to have been between Bragg's rear guard under Kirby Smith and the Union advance of Gen. Thomas under Crittenden. The rebels are reported to have been completely routed. Another report says the battle was at Big Hill, eighteen miles beyond Richmond. The rebels are retreating toward Cumberland Gap.

ST. LOUIS.—It is said on high authority that Gen. John A. McClernand is expected in this city shortly to organize an important expedition. A report that he will supersede Gen. Curtis is contradicted. He and Curtis will cooperate in the new enterprise.

CHARLESTOWN, Va.—Lee is at Winchester with a large rebel force and Jackson is at Bunker Hill with another large force. Stuart's cavalry is in the Shenandoah. A large rebel force also is at Leestown, six miles away.

CHICAGO.—Edward A. Chatfield and Miss Almira J. Fairbank were married at the residence of the bride's father near Junction, Du Page county, on Oct. 13 by the Rev. James T. Hanna. Other weddings reported are: H. S. Vandervoort and Miss Hattie G. Porter, daughter of Hibbard Porter, on Oct. 15; Henry L. Broughton of Milwaukee and Miss Jennie S. Willard of Chicago, on Oct. 17; George B. Williams and Mrs. Mary Ann Bulpin, and Emerson Otis Stanley of Downers Grove and Miss Mary L. Allen of Junction, Du Page county, on Oct. 13.

CHICAGO. — The commissioners named in the act incorporating the Chicago and Alton Railroad company organized its first board of directors. James Robb was elected president and Joseph Price, secretary and treasurer.

25 YEARS AGO TODAY

OCTOBER 18, 1902.

BOSTON, Mass. — The Irish party will be able soon to dictate terms to the British government, according to John Redmond, the Nationalist leader, who arrived in this city. It will not be long, Mr. Redmond said, until the representatives of Ireland hold the balance of power in the house of commons.

CHICAGO. — A corporation was formed in New Jersey which financiers generally regard as the nucleus around which the great packing companies of the country will be gathered into the long foreshadowed meat trust.

NEW YORK.—Miss Ida C. Craddock, high priestess of "the Church of the Yoga" in Chicago and a missionary here, an authoress and teacher of her peculiar religion, who was to have been sentenced in federal court on conviction of having circulated improper matter through the mails, killed herself with gas.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill.—The Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs petitioned President Roosevelt to appoint Jane Addams of Hull house a member of the arbitration commission for the settlement of the miners' strike to represent the interests of the miners' families.

10 YEARS AGO TODAY

OCTOBER 18, 1917.

WASHINGTON.—The first list of Americans killed and wounded in combat with the enemy reached Washington in an official report of an encounter between a German submarine and an American destroyer. One American was killed and five wounded when the submarine torpedoed the destroyer. The dead man was Osmond Kelly Ingram, a gunner's mate, whose next of kin is his mother at Pratt City, Ala.

NEW YORK.—The Times this morning prophesies that the Germans will give in and make substantial concessions for peace about a year from the present time. The prophecy is from Washington and is based on information received from United States agents abroad.

WASHINGTON.—German agents in the United States, according to reports to the treasury department, have directed their energies toward defeating the Liberty loan. Their organized propaganda has borne fruit, it is asserted, from Minnesota to Texas.

PARIS.—Premier Painleve, in a speech at a luncheon given by French senators and deputies in honor of Medill McCormick, congressman at large from Illinois, paid high tribute to Gen. Pershing, and declared the entry of the United States into the war one of the greatest events in history.

WHAT THE CHILDREN ARE TAUGHT.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—In all this agitation about the school histories no one seems to have investigated the actual effect on the children, so I shall quote what my son said to me when he was studying the American revolution not so long ago. He came home one day and said, "Gee, mum, what did you have to marry an Englishman for? Most any one else would have been better if you couldn't have an American." From his study of these so called pro-British histories he had acquired the idea that it was a disgrace to have a father who, before his naturalization, was an Englishman.

In order to square myself and prove that he could really claim to be a real American I told him that his revolutionary ancestor was a brigadier general on Gen. Washington's staff (although he also was born in England), that his great-uncles had fought in the civil war, his grandmother was born where the Great Northern hotel now stands, his grandfather saved the books of his firm by placing them in a wheelbarrow and staying in the lake while the great Chicago fire swept by, etc.

During the late war we were all careful to explain to our children that it was not the mass of German people who were our enemies but a small mischief making group, and we all know that the mass of English people sympathized with the colonists, William Pitt getting up from a sick bed to plead for them, and it was necessary to hire troops to do the fighting as the great majority of Englishmen refused to do so. Surely in a nation like this where we have every race and nationality represented none should be discriminated against and no child should be made to feel that he is an outcast because his father is English. We want our children to be more tolerant and broadminded.

It seems strange that the parent-teacher organizations do not rise up in an endeavor to free the schools of this political tyranny. But naturally the teachers dare not criticize, for it's "off with their heads" if they do. The situation seems to be hopeless and the only solution is to move to the suburbs where the schools are more up to date and those running them really have the children's welfare at heart. D. A. R.

ON WESTERN AVENUE.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—Now that Western avenue has been widened it seems as though the average automobile owner uses this improvement for a speedway. I, like many others, am obliged to use Western avenue car service to and from work, and it is the same experience every day trying to get on and off of street cars. My contention has been that the law states that automobile drivers are to stop 10 feet behind street cars taking on or discharging passengers. If such be the case, I do not hesitate to state that nine out of ten drivers are violating the law and ought to be punished for doing so.

I have often thought it would help a great deal to appoint a body of men, without any salary attached to the jobs, and give them authority to arrest such violators. I for one would be glad to devote part of my time to bringing reckless drivers to their senses. H. HENNIG.

THE CASE AGAINST METERS.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—I note your correspondent J. Z. L.'s remarks regarding water meters and in particular his statement, "water meters which our government has ordered installed in every Chicago home and building." [illegible] has overlooked the fact that the [illegible] ordinance exempts all church, hospital, school, park, and government property. He has also failed to consider that the ordinance provides that the owner of the property and not the consumer shall pay the meter bill. Consequently the most numerous objectors to the [illegible] ordinance are the owners of buildings of two or three apartments, as they are forced to pay for their tenants' use or waste of water.

Has the war department the [illegible] right to dictate to the city of Chicago the rate at which or the manner in which water shall be sold? If Chicago desires to give free water to the households as it now gives free water to the property which I mention, is it not within Chicago's right to do so?

If there are any other real estate owners as pleased with meters as is J. Z. L. I am sure that Mayor Thompson will not disappoint them, but will permit them to pay for water on a meter basis if they so desire. However, judging from the numerous complaints of owners of metered property, I am certain there will be few if any applications for meters. TAXPAYER.

LINDBLOM'S STADIUM.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—In this morning's Tribune I read a statement by Mr. [illegible] that Lane Tech was to have a new school built in 1928. He said it has been under consideration since last year and that the plans have finally been completed. I wonder if along with this quick consideration he has given a thought in regard to Lindblom high school's proposed stadium. Lindblom boys have no place to practice athletics as other schools have, and I surely think it high time for the school board to give Lindblom a little consideration for a change. I have heard Lindblom students [illegible] because they are crowded and have a larger student body than any other [illegible] when other schools have been [illegible] every one has waited patiently for the stadium. [illegible]

CALENDAR REFORM.

Chicago, Oct. 13.—Your editorial on calendar reform covers a subject [illegible] which many people cannot easily be reconciled, mainly for sentimental reasons, because a part of the plan is to have all holidays fall on Mondays. But there should be no real objection to this [illegible] by sentimentalists, when it is a fact that under the Gregorian calendar all anniversaries are approximations, for the reason that the year does not contain an even number of days.

To illustrate: Say Washington was born Feb. 22 at 10 p. m. Just one year later will be Feb. 23 at 4 p. m. Equal discrepancies exist the following year and this is not fully corrected by leap year. Thus it will be seen that most anniversaries will be observed more nearly correctly under the proposed international reform calendar. A. W. [illegible]

An Eventful Message from Balaban & Katz

Ever since we owned our first theatre, twenty years ago—a 100-seat nickelodeon—every step that motion-picture progress has made—every great picture that has played a definite role in this epoch-making industry, has been shown first at a Balaban & Katz theatre, with a thoroughness and in an atmosphere which the whole theatrical world has tried to emulate.

And nowhere in the Universe has the marvelous growth, and artistic development, of the motion-picture industry been so beautifully exemplified as at these theatres.

The Balaban & Katz screens have fairly glowed and scintillated with the genius and beauty of the foremost picture productions which must still linger brightly in your memories.

But pictures past are pictures gone. Good as they were, they would scarcely come up to our standard today. The spirit of this industry is to keep moving and improve on everything that has gone before. The moving-picture world is the most restless, resistless, ambitious and enterprising of all the busy worlds. Its goal is tomorrow—next month and next year. Even today is numbered with the past.

The season of 1927-28 is brimful of dazzling promise. From the great studios of California and New York comes an endless procession of extraordinary picture productions headed towards the Balaban & Katz theatres—from United Artists, from Paramount Famous Lasky, from First National, from Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, from Universal, and Producers Distributing Corporation.

Every one of these outstanding and world-famous producers has completed, or has in the process of making, motion-pictures of rare beauty, and they will have their first run at these theatres.

Allow us to assure you that the Balaban & Katz theatres will maintain their supremacy in the world of theatres just as they have in the past.

It has always been our idea, and ideal, to operate a group of theatres so surpassing in beauty, so perfect in facilities and so superior in their form of presenting the foremost picture-productions, that they will be a constant source of unrivalled and pleased surprise.

The Balaban & Katz theatres have been, and are, the despair of all imitators.

SICILY HAPPY AS ITALY TRIES 153 MAFIA BANDITS

Sees End of Terror and Return of Tourists.

TERMINI IMERESE, Italy, Oct. 18.—(AP)—Appearing unaware that 153 alleged members of the dreaded mafia bandit gangs, which for a generation terrorized the Madonia mountain region, are incarcerated in their tiny jail, guarded by a squad of soldiers without, and Carabinieri within, the citizens of Termini Imerese spent Sunday gossiping on the street corners or in the few cafes of the little half mountain, half seaside resort.

Aside from the proprietor of the local natural hot baths and the owner of an adjacent theater, there is nobody trying to make real estate capital out of the affair which is being unrolled day by day in the stuffy stuccoed local court.

Tired of Violence.

The presiding judge walks about the streets unarmed and unaccompanied, chatting gayly with friends, with no fear apparently of acts of terrorism by what sympathizers may be left in Sicily for those who are on trial before him.

The general indifference to the large scale trial may be explained by the fact that Termini Imerese in its long history has become tired of violence, and it takes a great deal to move it. Captured by the Carthaginians after the sack of Himera, the town was ruled from 307 B. C. until the time of his death by the ferocious Syracusan tyrant, Agathocles. What aggravated the Agathocles case was that he was a home town boy, a native of Termini. He was so rough that the residents never enjoyed real peace and prosperity until the Roman conquest. They experienced the various ups and downs inherent to all Italian states until the bandit scourge of the last 35 odd years, which scared away the lucrative tourist trade to a considerable extent.

Hope to Get Tourists Back.

"O, it is great that the government has taken these measures to stamp out banditry," the local garage proprietor said. "For the last decade we have only had a few hardy American and English tourists, latterly a few Germans. But now we see a great winter season before us."

FALL ON STAIRS IS FATAL.

This action, the premier explained, was taken because "the authorities must not be distracted from normal duties, and it is necessary to economize especially at this time, and the population must not be wearied with too many holidays."

Anniversaries of the Fascist march on Rome and Armistice day both will be celebrated on Sundays in order not to take citizens from work.

Praises Calm of Italy.

Il Duce particularly emphasized and highly praised the absolute calm which has prevailed over Italy since the last cabinet council in August until today. Neither the Sacco-Vanzetti executions nor distress caused in some quarters by the revaluation of the lira, nor the murder of Italian Consul Nardini in Paris, nor the wounding by anti-Fascists of two Fascist leaders at Ravenna caused the slightest disturbance in Italy.

"Reports to the contrary spread abroad every now and then by the anti-Fascist press," Mussolini said, "were submerged in ridicule in the face of the testimony of thousands upon thousands of foreigners who, especially in the last months, have resided in Italy. When the Fascist leaders were attacked and when the Italian representatives abroad were murdered the nation gave another proof of maturity in repressing indignation and pain."

Push Civilian Air Lines.

Before closing today's session the cabinet council approved a plan for the development of Italian civilian air lines. The ministries of aeronautics and finance will collaborate in working out practical details of the aid which will be given, consisting chiefly of customs exemptions on materials imported for use in civil aviation, and subsidies on certain specified air lines of recognized national importance.

Don't Envy the Graceful, Well-Rounded Form Learn How to Have One

Women and men are amazed at the magic benefits of IRONIZED YEAST. Thin, weak bodies are brought up in weight and strength. Flesh is made round and firm. Hollows filled out. Skin made satiny smooth with the glow of girlhood. How is this done?

Ironized Yeast is two tonics in one—weight-building Yeast and strengthening Iron. The yeast is the same used in making malt and which makes malt so beneficial. It is specially cultured and concentrated to give the utmost in flesh-producing value. So it is natural that after taking IRONIZED YEAST in a single course treatment you will notice an amazing improvement in your health, appearance and spirits. The skin loses its sallow, pimply, blotchy look, pounds of good flesh are taken on.

So don't have a skinny, weak body that looks as though it had never been fed enough. Don't go around with an ugly skin. Go to your druggist today, and get a generous test treatment of IRONIZED YEAST—60 pleasant tasty tablets in a handy bottle. They do not cause gas or bloating and are safe for everybody—contain no harmful drugs.

Try It on "Money-Back" Offer

Go today to any drug store and get a full size treatment. If, after this generous trial, you are not delighted with effects, ask for your money back. It will be refunded immediately. If inconvenient to buy from druggist, send $1.00 direct to the IRONIZED YEAST CO., ATLANTA, GA., DESK 146C.

CAUTION! While the amazing health-building value of IRONIZED YEAST tablets has been clearly and positively demonstrated in cases of lack of energy, indigestion, constipation, skin eruptions, poor complexion, and a generally weakened physical and mental condition, IRONIZED YEAST should not be used by anyone who OBJECTS to having weight increased to normal.—©1927—I. Lamp-Shade Making
Is Taught by Experts
In Design and Needlework

THERE is no charge for this instruction when materials are bought in the section. Just now is one of the most interesting times of the year to make such selections. Fresh new groups have just come in both in materials and in frames. Charming lamp shades, distinctive, unusual, may be easily fashioned.

Concerning the Materials—

Silks in exquisite colors, to make highly effective linings, may be had at $2.50 yard.

Georgette crepe, exceptionally fine, in the plain color, is $2.75 yard.

As to the Decoration—

Appliques and braids in antiqued gold finish range in price from 25c, according to kind, up to $5 yard.

Silken flowers come from France. Each little flower entirely made by hand. At a wide range of prices.

CRIMINAL COURT.

William Brown, robbery, sentenced to 1 to 20 years in the penitentiary by Judge Worth E. Caylor.

The effectiveness of a judge questioning veniremen in a murder trial, rather than the method generally used of allowing the attorneys to do the questioning, was demonstrated yesterday in the courtroom of Judge ...n P. McGoorty, when a jury was obtained in a single day to try a case in which the death penalty is asked by the state.

The speed with which a jury was ...ted in Judge McGoorty's court was contrasted with the trial of Harry [Lefty] Lewis, labor agent, charged with the murder of Max Braverman, a ...k dealer, in the courtroom of Judge Stanley Klarkowski, directly across the corridor. Out of 30 veniremen, a jury was sworn in Judge McGoorty's court to decide the fate of Thomas L. Pemberton, alleged slayer of Policeman James Cooley, who was shot and killed last January.

In the Lewis trial not a single juror has been sworn in, although the trial has been in progress for more than two weeks. Yesterday fifty-four veniremen passed through the jury box. Conscientious scruples against the death penalty was the usual excuse. In all, 256 men have been excused in this case.

"It is the duty of every American citizen to serve on a jury," said Judge McGoorty before the start of the trial of the alleged police slayer. "You men are all under oath and that means you must answer the questions truthfully, and not with an intention to shirk your duty as citizens."

The judge questioned each man as to his feelings on the death penalty and on whether or not they had a fixed opinion. Few expressed any aversion to inflicting the extreme penalty in a proper case.

"A citizen is more likely to answer truthfully on these subjects when questioned by the judge than by the attorneys," said Judge McGoorty in explaining his system. "This method speeds up jury selection in capital cases."

Judge McGoorty will be ready to start taking testimony in the trial this morning, while at thfe rate jury selection is going on in Judge Klarkowski's court it is believed by those participating in the trial that it will be another month before a jury is chosen.

Boric Acid Good But Not Enough

We recommend Iris, America's Eye Bath, because we know it is such a vast improvement over the time honored eyewash of plain boric acid.

Iris contains camphor, menthol, witch-hazel, boric acid, and pure distilled spring water, all sterilized and put into sealed sterile flasks.

Iris does three definite things for you. It makes your eyes sparkle and look alive and vivacious. It cleanses the corners, the tear ducts and under the upper and lower eyelids. It relieves soreness and inflammation.

If you will try one bottle of Iris we know you will realize its virtues. All of our stores are instructed to refund your money if you are not thoroughly pleased. Both the 48c and the 98c size come complete with handy eyecup. Try Iris today.

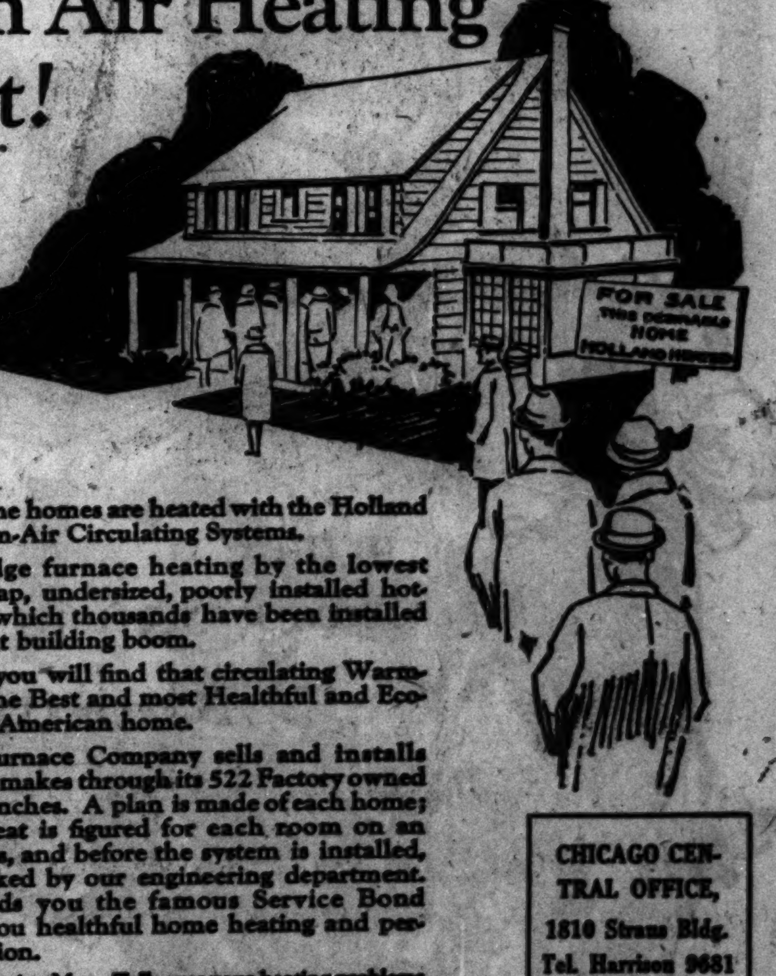
For Health and Comfort Warm Air Heating is Best!



Thousands of fine homes are heated with the Holland Vaporized Warm-Air Circulating Systems.

Many folks judge furnace heating by the lowest standard of cheap, undersized, poorly installed hot-air furnaces, of which thousands have been installed during the recent building boom.

Investigate and you will find that circulating Warm-Air Heating is the Best and most Healthful and Economical for the American home.

The Holland Furnace Company sells and installs every furnace it makes through its 522 Factory owned local Service Branches. A plan is made of each home; the necessary heat is figured for each room on an engineering basis, and before the system is installed, the plan is checked by our engineering department. The factory sends you the famous Service Bond which assures you healthful home heating and permanent satisfaction.

Call the Holland Heating Man. Talk over your heating problems with him without any obligation or cost. He will call any time, day or evening, that is convenient for you and will refer you to thousands of satisfied users, many in your neighborhood.

MEXICAN TROOPS ROUT REBELS IN BATTLE FOR TOWN

BY JOHN CORNYN.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

[Copyright: 1927: By The Chicago Tribune.]

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 17.—A report of the battle at Zacualpan, state of Mexico, states that the rebels, who attacked the town in considerable force, found the garrison stronger than they had anticipated. The rebels were repulsed with heavy casualties after a three hour battle, leaving thirty-two dead on the battlefield and carrying off numerous wounded. More than a score of prisoners were taken.

Among the dead on the battlefield were former Deputy Margarito Gomez, brother of Gen. Arnulfo Gomez, the leader of the revolution, who was among the deputies ousted from the chamber of deputies recently because of revolutionary activities, and Gen. Benjamin Mendoza, leader of the rebels in the state of Mexico. Señor Gomez was buried today in Toluca.

Rebel Leader Executed.

It is reported from Jalapa that Paulino Fontes, another leading anti-reelectionist, who was said a week ago to have fled the city and joined the rebels under Gen. Arnolfo Gomez, was captured this morning on the outskirts of Gen. Gomez's fleeing forces and shot.

It is reported that the desperate battle between the Gomez forces and cavalry under Gen. J. Gonzalo Escobar in the mountains of Vera Cruz, twenty miles southwest of Huatusco, continued today.

Special Train to Meet Morrow.

It was reported officially today that a special train will be sent to Laredo, Tex., to bring Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow to Mexico. The train will have the right of way and stop only at three important cities, Monterey, Saltillo and San Luis Potosi.

A special committee appointed by President Calles will receive Ambassador Morrow here in the name of the government and Mexican people.

Bandits Release Mining Man.

Nogales, Ariz., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Special advices to the Nogales Herald today from William P. Blocker, American consul at Mazatlan, Sinaloa, said Charles Thomas, mining man of Esperanza, Nayarit, who was kidnaped two weeks ago by the bandit chief, El Pillaco, has been released upon payment of $1,000 ransom. First reports said Mr. Thomas was an American citizen, but Mr. Blocker's telegram today said he had been naturalized in Mexico.

Troops Kill Rebel Leader.

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Special dispatches from Tampico report that federal troops, operating near Topila, killed Florentinio Ocaro, local rebel leader. Ocaro's followers were dispersed.

Union Asks Inquiry Into Many Window Breakings

The state's attorney's office was asked yesterday to investigate the breaking of numerous windows in the shops of members of the Bootblacks' Protective Union of Illinois. Nine windows were broken Sunday night, according to officials of the union, who complained to First Assistant State's Attorney George E. Gorman. William Fylactos, 502 East 43d street, told the prosecutor that he saw a former business agent of a union breaking his windows.

YELLOW TAXICAB DRIVERS FETED IN HARVEST PARTY

Your humble Yellow cab chauffeur last night doffed his uniform, put on his best suit, hooked the arm of his wife or sweetheart around his own, and stepped down to the grand ballroom in the Hotel Sherman, where he danced around and rubbed elbows with the chairman of the company's board and other officials of the organization.

For last night was the opening session of a three days' harvest party given annually by the company for its 6,000 drivers and 2,500 other employés, the affair being held for three evenings so as to give them all a chance to attend without parlysizing the company's service.

John Hertz, founder of the Yellow Cab company and chairman of its board of directors, and C. W. Gray, president of the company, who was once a cab driver himself, were in the receiving line, among the hosts.

Veteran Federal Employe Recalls Horse Car Days

James E. Keefe, whose twenty-two years of service as assistant custodian of the Federal building have made him almost a fixture there, will retire on a pension tomorrow, his 70th birthday. Before joining the federal service Keefe was 19 years a conductor on Chicago horse and cable cars. His route ran from Michigan avenue and Washington street to Western avenue and Harrison street. All beyond the terminal of the line at that time was prairie and farm land, Keefe recalled yesterday. He lives with his wife at 1035 South Grove avenue, Oak Park.

KANSAS U. DEAN SHOOTS SELF TO DEATH AT DESK

Lawrence, Kas., Oct. 17.—[Special.]—Leaving no clew to his motive, Perley F. Walker, dean of the engineering school of the University of Kansas, ended his life early today. The body of Dean Walker, still erect in a chair at his office desk, with a revolver gripped in his hand, was found by a night watchman.

Several letters were left by the dean, but none of them gave any particular reason for his act. He also left several keys, labeled carefully, and books with information concerning their return. His married life was happy, his finances in excellent shape and his health good. Last year he refused an offer of $7,000 a year from the University of Minnesota to remain here at a salary of $5,700 a year.

NOT JUST STEEL—BUT ART METAL

TO steel office equipment Art Metal adds new beauty. The smoothly running drawers; the more convenient fittings; the enduring, fire-resisting qualities that you usually associate with steel office equipment—in all these Art Metal has reached a mechanical excellence second to none.

But in the remaining quality you wish office furniture to have—beauty—Art Metal craftsmen have specialized since 1888.

Inheriting soundness and grace of design from the first men ever to make steel office equipment, the modern Art Metal worker has scrupulously adhered to the principle of paying especial care and attention to little details.

From the acid-treated steel that takes a perfect baked on enamel finish, to the solid bronze fittings perfectly machined, Art Metal appeals instantly to your eye as different and pleasing.

The fact that Art Metal desks, files and safes are priced reasonably, simply adds to the years of satisfaction you will find in owning them.

I. W. W. STRIKERS ORDERED TO GET OUT OF 2 TOWNS

Walsenburg, Colo., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Orders of citizens' committees to leave the towns of Walsenburg and Aguilar tonight faced members of the I. W. W. on the eve of a strike called in the Colorado coal fields.

Tranquil conditions prevailed in the district, but Sheriff Harry J. Capps of Aguilar swore in special deputies to prepare for any contingency. There was no apparent reaction to the citizens' committees' orders to the I. W. W., whose leaders sponsored the movement for tomorrow's strike.

Mayor Heads Committee.

Sheriff Capps said no attempt would be made to enforce the order of the committees, since he regarded it as illegal. Mayor Boccaccio of Aguilar, who headed the citizens' committee in that town, today headed a delegation that instructed the I. W. W. members to close their headquarters and leave.

Headquarters of the I. W. W. in Walsenburg were raided after the committee meeting in the courthouse. Records and files were burned. Mayor John J. Pritchard, who approved the orders demanding the I. W. W.'s to leave, expressed regret that property had been destroyed. Several members of the party got beyond control, he said, explaining that the original plan was merely to serve an eviction notice on the I. W. W.

Say Strike Will Go Through.

Leaders of the I. W. said the strike would go through as scheduled. Mine officials expressed the view that the majority of the miners would remain at work and that there would be no trouble.

All three members of the Colorado industrial commission are in the fields and they have intimated that legal action might be taken to stop the strike. The industrial commission contends the workers have not filed proper notice of the strike, as required by the Colorado law.

Bandits Terrorize Women and Rob North Side Hotel

Five women were compelled to stand with their arms raised for several minutes yesterday when two well dressed bandits entered the offices of the Flanders hotel, 4142 Broadway, and escaped with $2,500. Bertha Kutisch, a guest, came down the hallway and one of the bandits pointed his revolver at her and forced her into the office. There she was compelled to join Mrs. Harry Rhodes, Mrs. Dorothy Woodruff, Bessie Gray, and Mary Amant, who were lined up against the wall. The bandits in their haste dropped a $4,000 cashier's check.

SMOOT PREDICTS TAX REDUCTION OF $300,000,000

Would Repeal Levy on Admissions, Autos.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17.—[Special.]—A $300,000,000 tax reduction should be possible, provided congress holds down its appropriations for new projects, Senator Smoot [Rep., Utah], chairman of the senate finance committee, asserted today on his return from the west.

Senator Smoot would reduce the tax on corporation earnings from 13½ to 12 per cent, repeal the automobile and admission taxes, repeal the estate tax, and reduce surtax rates on individual incomes in the middle brackets.

The corporation tax reduction would involve a loss in revenue of about $120,000,000. The automobile taxes yielded last year about $66,400,000 and the taxes on admissions and dues together brought in $28,400,000. While revenue from the estate tax during the last fiscal year amounted to $100,000,000, the treasury estimates that in another year or two the total will not greatly exceed $45,000,000.

Aggregate Loss $300,000,000.

These items, together with a $40,000,000 loss from a revision of middle surtax brackets, would mean an aggregate loss in revenue of approximately $300,000,000.

Whether or not he will continue to favor this large reduction, Senator Smoot said, depends upon what congress does on such matters as Mississippi flood control, Boulder dam, the Columbia basin project and St. Lawrence waterway.

While Senator Smoot's program follows the general line of what is likely to be favored by the treasury, it is expected that Secretary Mellon will seek to hold the reduction closer to $200,000,000.

Mellon Program Omissions.

The Mellon program will probably include the corporation tax reduction to 12 per cent, the repeal of the estate tax, and a revision of middle surtax brackets, but will omit the repeal of the automobile, admission, and dues taxes.

Treasury statisticians now estimate that the surplus of the last fiscal year, resulting from ordinary operations of the government, was only $220,000,000, the balance of the $635,000,000 surplus having come from back collections, receipts from the railroads, sales of capital assets, and other items of a nonrecurring nature.

In dealing with the fiscal year 1929, the treasury is expected to forecast a surplus no greater than $225,000,000. The treasury's tax reduction program will be based on prospects for 1929, rather than on the surplus of the present year, which it is admitted may run to almost $500,000,000.

ASKS $400,000,000 CUT

West Baden, Ind., Oct. 17.—[Special.]—Doubly stressing the demand of American business that war time federal taxes which fall heavily on private corporations and enterprises be reduced, Lewis B. Pierson, president of the National Chamber of Commerce, today opened the annual conference of the association's executive councillors here.

Pierson took issue with President Coolidge's assertion that reductions requested are excessive. He detailed just how business expects to be relieved of tax pressures.

In his address to business leaders and economists from every district of the organization, Pierson outlined the year's program of activities for the national chamber. Federal tax reduction of $400,000,000 headed the organization's legislative program to be presented to congress.

Government development and maintenance of Mississippi river flood control at federal expense was the second point in the legislative program. Revision of postal rates, establishment of a permanent parcel post convention with Cuba, and rejection of theory of federal ownership or operation of a merchant marine were other paragraphs in the legislative program.

"No institution in the country," Pierson said, "has been a more consistent or more courageous advocate of President Coolidge's stand for economy in government expenditures than the National Chamber of Commerce. The effort of the chamber always has been toward economy through efficiency of government. Our whole history demonstrates this fact, ever since we advocated the budget system for national government."

The $400,000,000 tax reduction would be effected under the plan of the national chamber by reduction of the federal income tax against corporations from 13½ to 10 per cent, and by repeal of federal inheritance and estate taxes chiefly.

Surplus in Treasury.

"It develops," said Pierson, "that the government is taking from that portion of American business that is making profits something more than an eighth of their profits every year for the support of the federal government—this, too, in time of big surpluses in the national treasury."

The national chamber's position is that surpluses built from tax levies against business under war time schedules should not be applied to reduction of the national debt, as has been done, provision for amortization of the national debt already having been provided for by other methods.

Recognizing the responsibility of national leadership of business, councillors of the chamber recommended to directors a redefinition of principles of Americanism. In the formulation of all business and national policies councillors recommended the national chamber continue to keep in view and support the purposes set forth in the preamble to the federal constitution; specifically they said: "To form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquillity, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty for ourselves and posterity."

Should Pay Entire Cost.

The report of the committee on flood relief was submitted to the board of directors on Oct. 15, 1927, and was ordered by them to referendum vote of the organization members of the national chamber. Committee recommendations are:

"That the federal government should hereafter pay the entire cost of constructing and maintaining works necessary to control floods of the lower Mississippi river.

"That the federal government should assume the sole responsibility for locating, constructing, and maintaining such works.

"That there should be an adequate appropriation to insure efficient, continuous, and economic work, the funds to be made available as needed.

"That flood control of the Mississippi river is a work of such magnitude and urgency that it should be dealt with in legislation and administration upon its own merits, separate and distinct from any other undertaking."

WHETHER the cause of delay is a fire, a flooded subway, a snow storm, a blockaded track or just a plain traffic jam, you will always find a man in a Surface Lines supervisor's uniform on the job doing his best to restore service.

He is the officer at the front who carries out the orders of the operating officials at headquarters. At his command are the facilities of a motorized emergency service with stations in all parts of the city, and the resources of the entire organization.

He understands that he must maintain the constant flow of street car service, whatever the cost.

Service is his middle name.

A hundred of these men, trained for years in street car operation and in solving traffic problems, accomplish wonders every day in preventing delays.

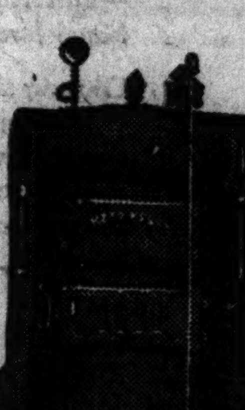
EASY-DRAFT
Round Boiler



A NOVELTY Boiler insures heating comfort

Your wife says to you—"I don't know what is the matter with Mary's kiddies. They always appear to have colds. Look at our kiddies, always playing around, never too heavily dressed, yet always comfortable and healthy." "There is nothing funny about that—you can almost freeze in their house any cold day." An efficient heating system is the only safeguard. The boiler is the heart of the heating system. Unless your boiler is efficient, and dependable at all times, you must expect discomfort and illness.

PROOF Of Efficient and Economical Heating

In our 80 years of manufacturing, we have produced over 2,500,000 heating units, that have been and are comforting about 20,000,000 people.

SEEK BIG PARTY FOR THOMPSON'S FLOOD CRUSADE

Mayor Will Be Heard in Capital Nov. 7.

Republican politics in Chicago and Illinois was concerned yesterday with getting as large a delegation as possible to accompany Mayor William Hale Thompson to Washington, where on Nov. 7 he will be given the first opportunity of being heard by the flood control committee of congress, of which Representative Frank R. Reid of Aurora is chairman.

Under the direction of Homer K. Galpin, county chairman, and Edward F. Moore, deputy commissioner of public works, the Republican ward organizations were seeking reservations aboard the Thompson special trains.

Small Falls in Line.

Downstate Gov. Small was reported as doing likewise. Last Saturday Mayor Thompson convinced Gov. Small that the subject of flood control was of great importance to the state. This state suffered considerably from floods last spring, the mayor said, in both the sections where the Mississippi river overflowed and the lands flooded by the Illinois river.

Delegations from other Mississippi valley states were being heard from during the day. Louisiana, Arkansas, and Mississippi were expecting to send many. James S. Milloy, secretary of the Greater North Dakota association, reported that Gov. Sorlie and many others of his state would join the pilgrimage.

Asks More Time in Suit.

Gov. Small, meanwhile, was having a bit more of trouble due to the interest matter that has been in the public eye almost ever since he was first inaugurated. State's Attorney Fullenwider of Sangamon county asked the Supreme court to give him twenty days more to reply to the suit seeking to compel him to institute quo warranto proceedings against the governor.

Former County Commissioner Daniel Ryan was reported as being the choice of the local Democracy for the office of board of review member which is to be filled next year. Many Democratic organizations for Al Smith for President and Anton J. Cermak, president of the county board, for governor, were reported as seeking charters.

BISHOP FINED ON AUTO CHARGE. Bishop Howard H. Temple of the First Apostolic Church of America was fined $2 yesterday when he was arraigned in an Evanston court on a charge of violating the parking law.

EXPERTS URGE CITY MANAGER SYSTEM HERE

Edwin O. Griffenhagen, efficiency engineer, formerly hired by the city of Chicago; J. L. Jacobs, efficiency engineer for Cook county, and Prof. Leonard D. White of the University of Chicago spoke last night before the Chicago Institute of Local Politics on what they think is wrong with our local governing bodies.

The talks were in favor of a city manager and for extension of civil service. Griffenhagen said the people of this city pay $100,000,000 a year to over 50,000 employés in our local government. Elected officials pay their personal and political debts with jobs, he declared, and this system could be abolished if the so-called short ballot idea were adopted.

Prof. White asserted that elimination of politicians from civil service would soon cause economies that would permit Chief Hughes to employ 3,000 more policemen, which he said are necessary.

TRACE NARCOTIC PRESCRIPTIONS TO MRS. LYDIG

New York, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Prescriptions purporting to show that Mrs. Rita de Acosta Lydig, divorced wife of the late W. E. D. Stokes, received 5,460 quarter grain narcotic tablets within a year, were introduced today at the examination before trial of Herman Johnson, once Mrs. Lydig's butler, in connection with her $500,000 libel suit against the New York Daily News. The hearing was heard on application of the newspaper.

Her suit is based on testimony printed by the newspaper as having been given in recent bankruptcy proceedings against her when it was said that Johnson had testified she used narcotics and had lived for six months in 1921 at the Westchester county estate of the late Rev. Percy Stickney Grant, while the minister also lived there. They occupied separate rooms, the butler testified today.

Mrs. Lydig and Dr. Grant announced their engagement during the year that the butler said she visited at the clergyman's house in 1921. The engagement was broken in 1924.

The prescriptions, made out to Mrs. Lydig, stated they were given for a chronic ailment.

Johnson testified he had accompanied Mrs. Lydig to Dr. Grant's estate and, while there, had served breakfast to Mrs. Lydig and Dr. Grant while both were in negligee.

$4,274,400 yearly for MOTOR CARS

UTICA Observer-Dispatch families buy 5251 automobiles each year. Their expenditure for tires and accessories is $2,849,600.

More than 18,000 readers of the Observer-Dispatch are automobile owners—consumers of tires, of oil, of gasoline, of all the other varied products of which motorists are the most ready buyers. They drive 84% of all the passenger cars in Utica.

The greater buying-power of Observer-Dispatch families is reflected in these figures—and in the substantial lead in automotive advertising which this newspaper maintains.

Has Had Six Cars

"I find my Erskine car Okay in every respect and I must say that it is one of the best cars I ever drove, and I have had six cars in my time."
J. W., New Brunswick, N. J.

Best Small Car

"I think it is one of the best small cars I have ever driven and would recommend it without reservation."
H. K. B., Philadelphia, Pa.

Most Economical

"I recommend this little car to anyone in the market for an automobile. I have had eight cars to date but find The Erskine the most economical car."
F. J. S., Englewood, N. J.

Likes Erskine Best

"This is our third Studebaker—one Big Six—one Standard Six—and The Erskine. Like The Erskine best of any. It performs as well as cars twice its price."
A. C., Strang, Okla.

180 Miles—7 Gallons

"My last car was a Studebaker Coach which gave good satisfaction. The two previous cars to that were B—— Sixes. I like the little Erskine better than any car I ever owned. My son drove it 180 miles on 7 gallons of gasoline. I have a greater sense of security in it than any car I have ever ridden in. It was the first one in this section and has attracted much favorable attention."
T. M. C., Lakemont, N. Y.

Peppy, Speedy

"This little Erskine handles nicer than any car I have ever driven. Handles nice in traffic. Peppy and speedy when it is needed. Also can be throttled down to one mile an hour. It is very comfortable to ride in and doesn't tire the driver."
P. C. M., Alva, Okla.

Wouldn't Trade

"This is the only real car I have ever owned. I have had several other cars and I don't think there is any $1800 car on the market I would trade my Erskine for."
F. C., Kingston, N. C.

Owned Ten Studebakers

"My Erskine looks good and runs fine. This makes ten Studebakers my father and I have had."
E. B. L., Barnesville, Ohio

Outclasses Others

"Just a word as I have been the owner of different cars. The Erskine has them all out-classed in every way."
A. H. D., Columbus, Ohio

Best for Physician

"The best car for my practice I have owned in 18 years and I have had some expensive ones."
Dr. A. V. F., Sapulpa, Okla.

—and for Nurse

"I am a nurse and have driven doctors' cars for 15 years. Have driven medium priced and expensive cars to Kansas City and returned tired to death, about 160 miles.

"This summer I drove a sick doctor to Colorado in my Erskine Six a little more than 200 miles a day for three days, and as far as the driving is concerned, I was not tired when we reached Colorado. We were quite comfortable with three in the car. At every stop we would find a crowd looking the car over and wanting to know all about it. It is a good looking, dandy little car."
Mrs. C. L. S., Topeka, Kans.

Well Pleased

"I am well pleased with the car. Like it better than any I have ever owned."

Your Kidneys

Are the Sentinels of Your Health. Don't Neglect Them!

LATE hours, rich foods and stimulating drinks are all hard on our kidneys. If their action becomes sluggish, they do not thoroughly cleanse the blood of poisonous wastes.

Such impurities are apt to make one dull, tired and achy, with often a nagging backache, drowsy headaches and dizziness. A common sign that the kidneys are not acting right is scanty or burning excretions.

A MAN'S CHAIR

Undoubtedly the greatest golf course in this country is that of the Pine Valley Golf Club. This preeminence was achieved by the devotion and painstaking care of a distinguished group of men.

To the furnishings of their clubhouse they brought the same traits, and from their specifications of a perfect chair for men we designed this Danersk Pine Valley Chair—with just the right pitch of back, depth of seat and luxurious spring construction. With these elements of comfort we combined an interesting traditional design. The result is a chair appropriate for living rooms, clubs and gentlemen's studies of today.

Danersk Furniture comprises not only careful reproductions of historic examples, but also new designs in which the spirit of the past is retained.

DELAY ALABAMA KLAN FLOGGING TRIALS TO JAN. 2

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 17.—(AP)—An unexpected postponement today delayed the trial of eleven men charged with participation in masked floggings in Jefferson county until Jan. 2, 1928.

In announcing postponement of the trials, Attorney General Charlie C. McCall of Alabama said the delay was caused by a desire to await the outcome of appeals now pending in the cases of Eugene Doss and L. A. Clayton, both of whom are under sentence of ten years in the state penitentiary for their part in the whipping of Jeff Calloway at Oneonta last July. The two men were at liberty on bond at the time of their indictment in connection with the Jefferson county masked violence cases.

Postponement came after the state apparently was ready to begin trial of Julius Lumpkin, on a charge of bribery in connection with testimony before the grand jury investigating the flogging of Arthur Hitt, a negro farmer, and John Bolton and Dan Mitchell.

W. J. Worthington, prominent Birmingham attorney, is among those accused. He was specifically charged by the grand jury with flogging and terrorizing Hitt into selling the farm on which he lived for a small sum. Nine other men are under indictment for bribery and kidnaping in connection with the lashing of the three men.

Meanwhile, Sheriff Tatum of Grenshaw county was holding 28 remaining warrants for persons indicted for complicity in 20 or more cases of masked violence by a special grand jury at Luverne Saturday.

Seventeen persons were arrested last night and gave bonds totaling $33,000 after their indictments and arrest.

The Demands of the Hour

Faith in aviation is spreading, but the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) believes it would be more contagious if the growing safety of routine air transport was known better.

Here are a few facts about regulated commercial flying here and abroad that are worthy of consideration.

American mail planes flew 3,108,720 miles without a casualty in the fourteen months from February 12, 1926, to April 22, 1927.

The Imperial Airways, Ltd., and its predecessors, have flown more than 5,000,000 miles in seven years and carried some 75,000 passengers.

Air freight from London to Paris is insured in England at 2 shillings per 100 pound sterling. Insurance on the same freight by surface transport costs 6 shillings and eight pence.

Pioneer days in aviation are past. No longer do men say, "It can't be done." They speculate upon how long it will be before we all will be flying.

From the beginning the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has kept pace with the pioneers of the air. Long ago it showed its faith in aviation by setting to work to develop fuel and oil to meet the special needs of the airplane.

Today it is ready. Its aviation products have been proved. In the first National Air Derby—New York to Spokane—the winners of the first three Class A prizes used Standard Oil Company (Indiana) aviation gasoline and lubricating oil.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has had to be a pioneer, always alive and alert to the changes of a progressive world. It has had to feel the pulse of an onrushing civilization—to sense its needs and develop products to meet them.

A flexible organization has been developed, capable of supplying changing demands—constantly extending, expanding and improving its service.

At one time kerosene was the major product of petroleum. The automobile came. Gasoline took the leading role. Today gasoline is furnished in various grades by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to millions of motorists.

With the development of aviation a new need has arisen and this Company has extended its service to meet this demand.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has a bigger job than the manufacture of a single standard article. This Company is a service organization—working with a natural resource—producing from it the products the nation needs—meeting the demands of the hour with efficiency and skill.

PROTEST IN VAIN IN HIGH COURT AT MINE INJUNCTION

Supreme Jurists Rule Without Comment.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17.—(AP)—With no explanation for its action, the Supreme court today declined the petition of the United Mine Workers of America for reviews of twelve cases in which the lower courts enjoined the union from carrying out certain activities among nonunion miners in West Virginia.

The effect of the refusal will be to give full force to the injunctions granted by the federal District court for southern West Virginia to the Red Jacket Consolidated, the Borderland, and other mining companies.

Differed on Propaganda.

The mine workers protested against that part of the injunctions which they asserted would prevent them from conducting organization work among the nonunion miners. The mining companies contended that the injunctions would only prevent the union organizers from attempting to persuade their nonunion employés from breaking their contracts and would not prohibit nonunion miners from joining the union provided they gave up their present employment.

The injunctions were sweeping, prohibiting the union from interfering by threats or violence with the nonunion miners, from destroying mining property or interfering with the interstate business of the mining companies, as being an unlawful conspiracy to prevent the interstate shipment of nonunion coal.

Indianapolis Strikers Lose.

Robert B. Armstrong, John M. Parker, and Edgar Day, held in contempt of court for violating a federal injunction in connection with the Indianapolis street railway strike in July, 1926, were today refused reviews by the Supreme court.

Orders Packers' Case Papers.

The Supreme court today ordered that the entire record in the appeal of Swift & Co. and other packers involved in their fight to set aside the "consent decree" under which they agreed to confine themselves to the meat packing industry be brought up from the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia in order that the higher court could pass upon the case on its merits instead of on the questions asked. The case was set for hearing Jan. 3.

Oil Refund Hearing Granted.

The Supreme court consented today to grant the government a review of a ruling of the Court of Claims in the suit of the Magnolia Petroleum company of Dallas, Tex., involving interest which the government must pay in tax refund cases, and which the government asserted would affect thousands of settlements involving millions of dollars.

The government insisted that under the revenue act of 1921, which was in force when the refund was allowed, the company was entitled to interest only from six months after the claim for refund was filed down to the date of allowance. The company insisted that it was entitled to interest provided by the revenue act of 1924 from the date the payments were made down to the time of the allowance of the refund. That view was taken by the Court of Claims.

Mellon Libel Suit Fails.

A $500,000 libel suit against Secretary Mellon, brought by Charles B. Brewer, who had acted as counsel for a congressional committee, will not be reviewed by the Supreme court, which held that Secretary Mellon's reply was a privileged communication.

War Claim Review Denied.

William L. Litzrodt of New York was refused a review by the Supreme court today in a controversy with the alien property custodian arising out of the settlement of a debt he owed during the world war to Conrad H. Donner, a German banker, and involving the changing rate of exchange.

Urges Hearing of Rich Case.

William M. Brucker, assistant attorney general of Michigan, today urged the Supreme court to advance for early hearing the appeal of Arthur Rich, sentenced to life imprisonment for criminal assault.

Hungary Tries 62 Reds for Plot Against Government

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Sixty-two Hungarian Communists, headed by Zoltan Szanto, associate of Bela Kun, who came from Moscow to establish Communist centers in Hungary, were placed on trial today, charged with conspiring to overthrow the Hungarian government.

A Soapless Shampoo

because it is the world's quickest and safest hair and scalp cleanser

SOMETHING really good for hair and scalp is now being presented to the public! Hundreds of Chicago's most exclusive beauty shops and tonsorial parlors have been using RAVOL and building business on its merits. Now, you can buy RAVOL at an insignificant price.

Entirely New in Principle

RAVOL is a scientific plant product; it cleanses better than soaps or shampoos—but not in the old way. It is not a liquid soap. It contains no alkali, acids or alcohol—things in themselves so injurious to the hair and scalp—RAVOL is delightful to use, dissolves oils, dirt and grit, rinses easily and quickly, leaves the scalp fresh and healthy! RAVOL is good for an oily scalp because it combines instantly with oils and liberates them. It is not affected by hard water. RAVOL is likewise good for a dry scalp because it does not cause skin irritation from *hydrolysis.

RAVOL, truly a wonder product—triple duty—an antiseptic cleanser . . . healing to the scalp . . . a tonic to the hair, is now for sale in 4-ounce bottles with full instructions on how to use. It's simple to apply; always harmless.

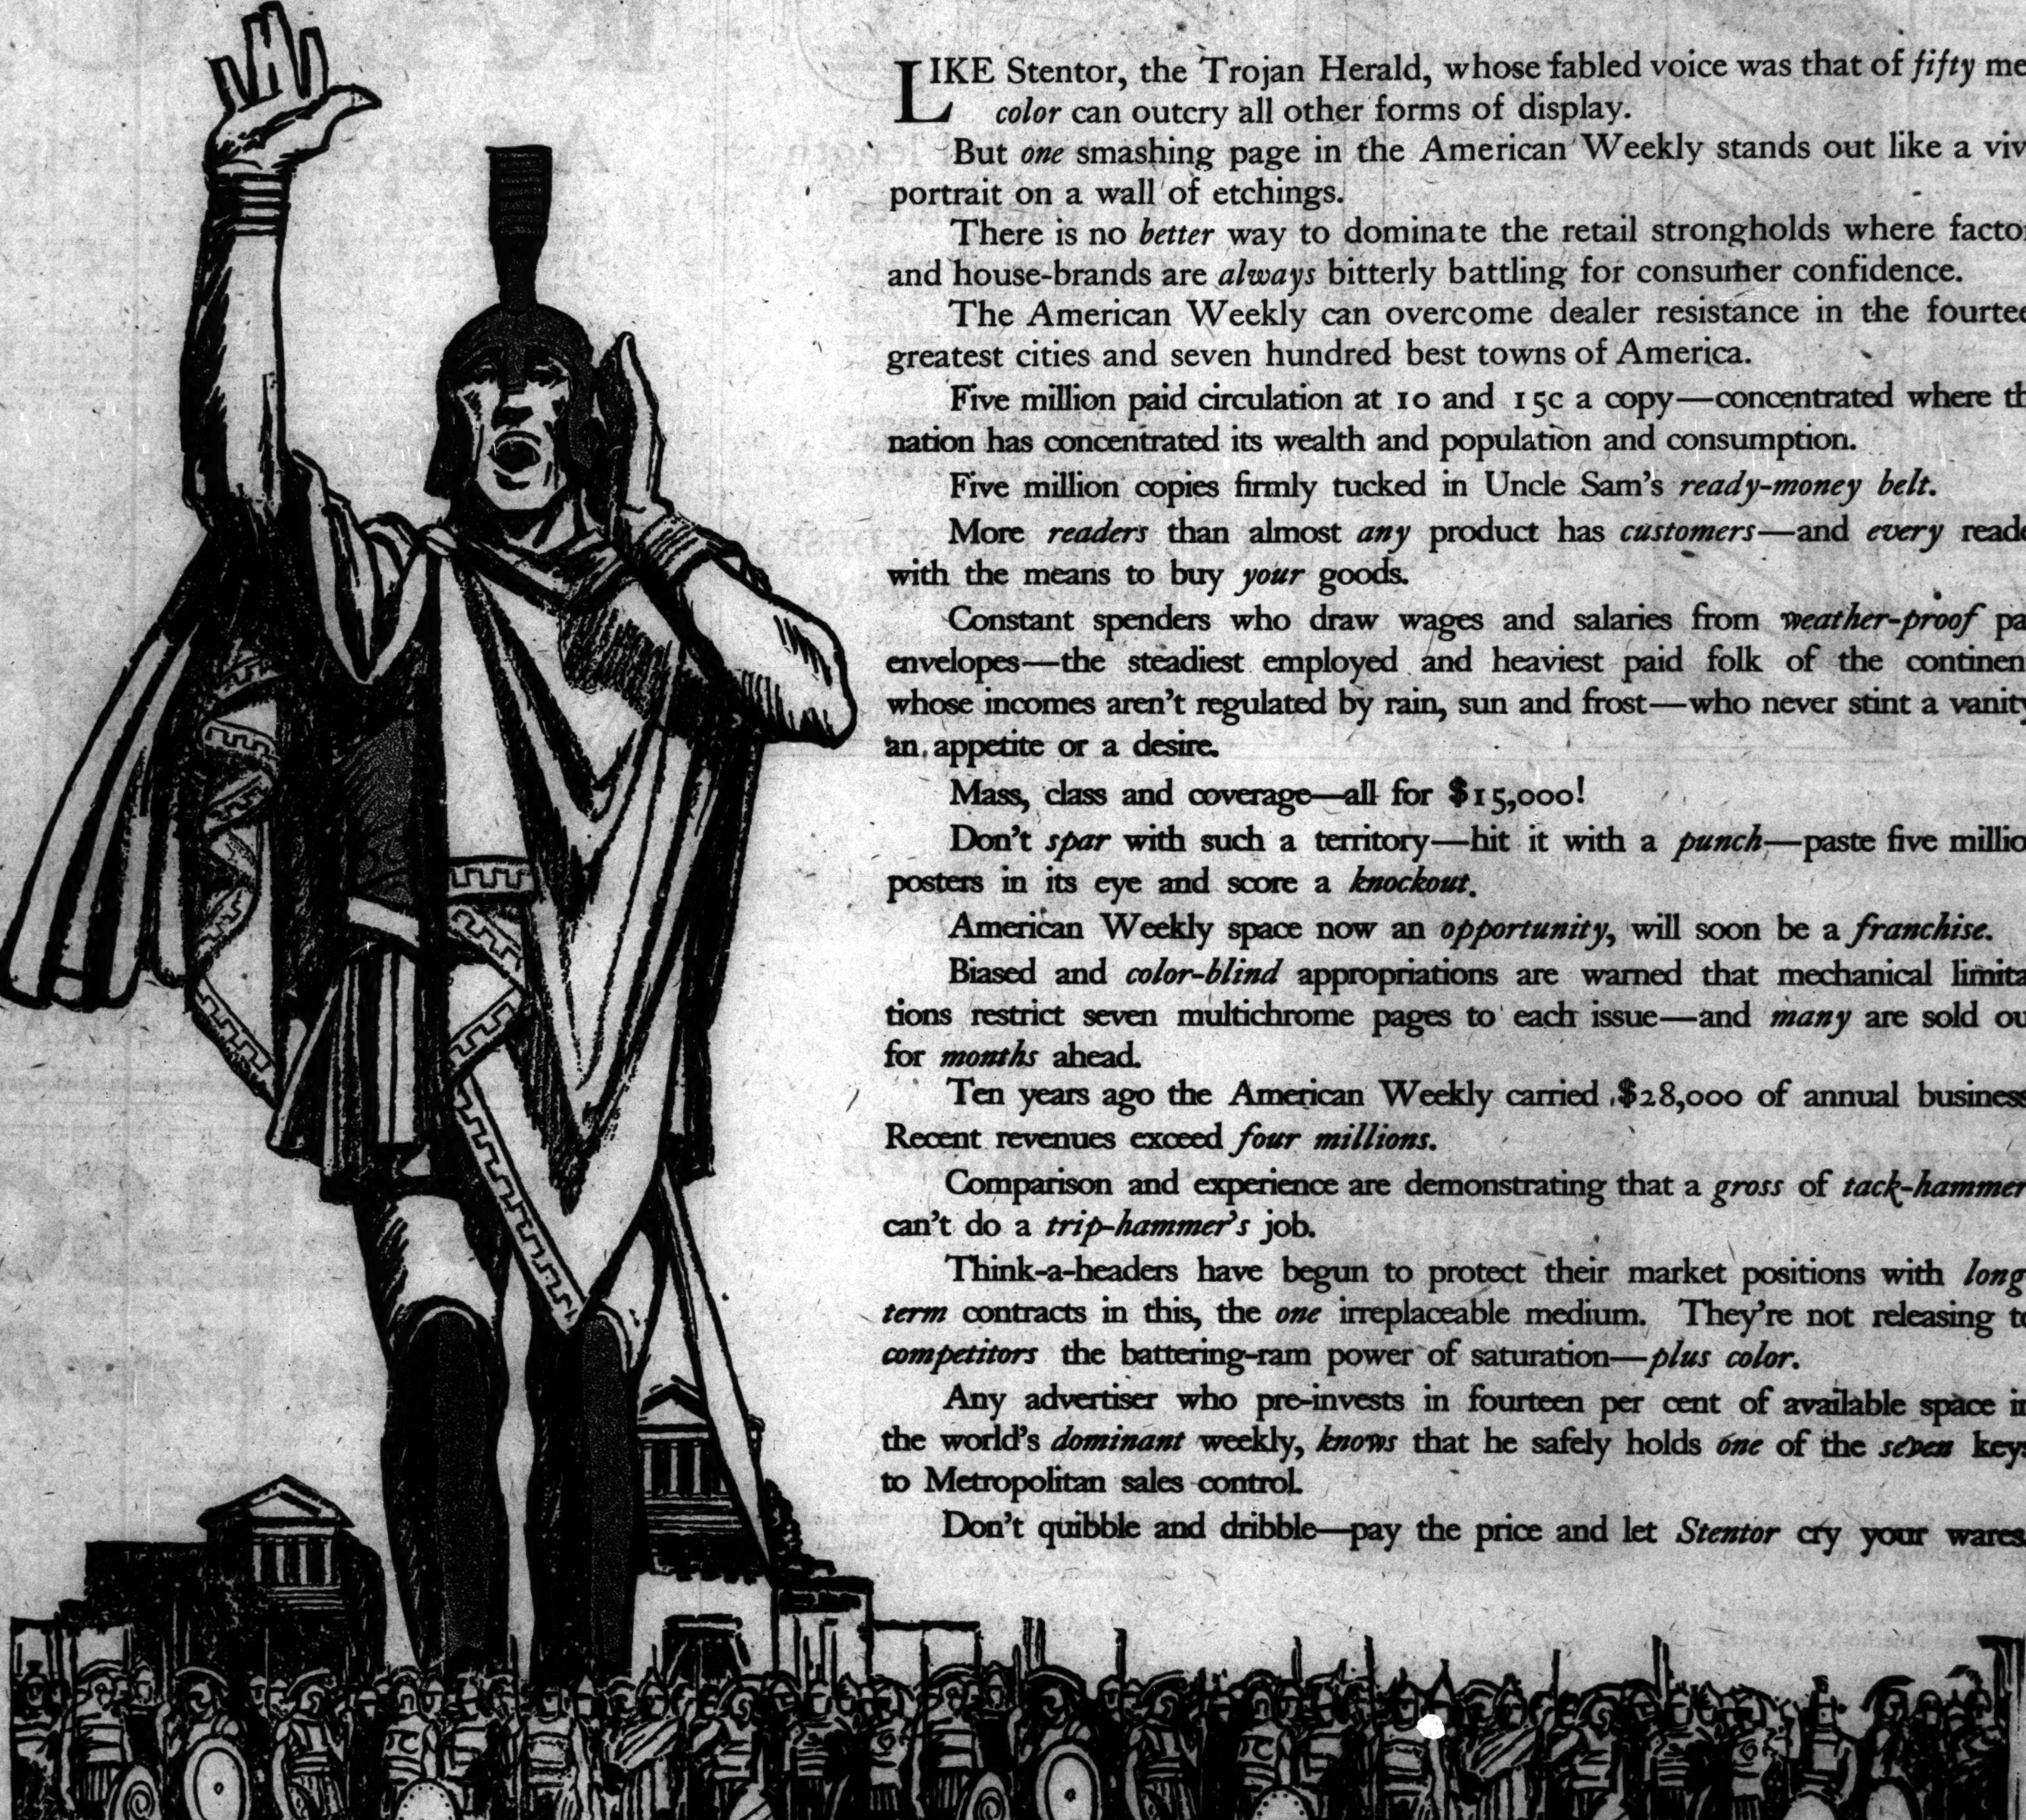
THE STENTORIAN CALL OF COLOR



LIKE Stentor, the Trojan Herald, whose fabled voice was that of fifty men, color can outcry all other forms of display.

But one smashing page in the American Weekly stands out like a vivid portrait on a wall of etchings.

There is no better way to dominate the retail strongholds where factory and house-brands are always bitterly battling for consumer confidence.

The American Weekly can overcome dealer resistance in the fourteen greatest cities and seven hundred best towns of America.

Five million paid circulation at 10 and 15c a copy—concentrated where the nation has concentrated its wealth and population and consumption.

Five million copies firmly tucked in Uncle Sam's ready-money belt.

More readers than almost any product has customers—and every reader with the means to buy your goods.

Constant spenders who draw wages and salaries from weather-proof pay envelopes—the steadiest employed and heaviest paid folk of the continent, whose incomes aren't regulated by rain, sun and frost—who never stint a vanity, an appetite or a desire.

Mass, class and coverage—all for $15,000!

Biased and color-blind appropriations are warned that mechanical limitations restrict seven multichrome pages to each issue—and many are sold out for months ahead.

Think-a-headers have begun to protect their market positions with long-term contracts in this, the one irreplaceable medium. They're not releasing to competitors the battering-ram power of saturation—plus color.

Any advertiser who pre-invests in fourteen per cent of available space in the world's dominant weekly, knows that he safely holds one of the seven keys to Metropolitan sales control.

JOHNSON STEPS OUT AS BOSS OF LEAGUE

ILLINI HOBNOB WITH PURPLE IN GRID HEADLINER

Big Games Dot Week End Calendar.

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

Illinois and Northwestern, two of the undefeated elevens of the Western conference, will meet at Evanston on Saturday in the most important football struggle to be played in the middle west. The battles between Michigan and Ohio State at Ann Arbor, Chicago and Pennsylvania on Stagg field, and Indiana and Notre Dame at Bloomington will command their share of attention.

Some of the undefeated eastern elevens probably will be relegated to the beaten class this week-end. Princeton and Cornell, two of the teams in the section which have breezed through their early games, will clash at Ithaca. The undefeated Army team will play Yale at New Haven and the unbeaten Dartmouth eleven will engage Harvard at Cambridge.

Illini Keyed for Purple.

Although Illinois was tied by Ames Saturday, the Orange and Blue has been pointed for the Purple struggle since the opening of the season. Coach Zuppke made no effort to key up his team last Saturday and the eleven which meets Northwestern will be a more formidable aggregation than faced Ames.

Illinois has won games in the past with inferior teams. Orange and Blue elevens have been known to play superfootball and have emerged from battles on the long ends of scores when least expected. Coach Hanley's team must be prepared to meet about every formation and trick known to football.

Northwestern is well on the road to a successful season. The clean cut victory over Ohio State has raised the Wildcats' stock many notches but their prestige would be wiped out by a defeat at the hands of Illinois.

Illinois and Northwestern met for the last time in 1923 when the Orange and Blue won, 29 to 0. That was Grange's first year at Illinois. The game was played at Wrigley field. Northwestern's last victory over Illinois was in 1904 and the score was 12 to 6. Since 1892 Illinois and Northwestern have met in twenty games and the Orange and Blue has won twelve.

Ohio Menaces Michigan.

Ohio State, which was put out of the running for the Big Ten title by Northwestern last Saturday, unquestionably will put up a terrific battle against the Wolverines. Ohio is going to make trouble for more than one of its remaining opponents, and Michigan may be one of these.

Minnesota, which was unable to defeat Indiana last Saturday and returned to Minneapolis with a tie score, will battle Iowa at Minneapolis. The Hawkeyes have been defeated by Ohio State, but are a much stronger team than many realize.

Purdue and Wisconsin, defeated elevens of the conference, will meet in Madison in what should be an interesting game. The Boilermakers were defeated by Chicago last Saturday and Wisconsin by Michigan.

Notre Dame and Indiana will clash at Bloomington in an important affair as far as football is concerned in the Hoosier state. Indiana usually plays its best football against Notre Dame. In 1920 Coach Rockne's eleven won by a 13 to 10 score. George Gipp, greatest player in Notre Dame's football history, was a member of the team, and the game was the hardest fought in the history of gridiron relations between the two schools.

Chess Champion's Snooze Features Match for Title

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 17.—Chess fans brought the house down tonight when their champion, Prof. Jose Capablanca, was in danger of losing his laurels through an unprecedented faux pas. The Cuban expert, holder of the world's title, dozed off into a profound slumber at a critical point in the game when his Russian opponent, Alexander Alekhine, lost all sense of time in a profound study of the nineteenth move.

Having performed what he considered practically a coup d'état, the champion sat, heavy lidded with fatigue as the contender struggled vainly to extricate his men from the engulfing array of pawns, backed up by the king, queen, bishops, knights and castles. Unable to fight off the inertia, the professor lapsed into a pleasant dream of bigger and better chess moves.

The onlookers, alarmed at the condition of their champion, loosed their throats and knocked their shoes against the woodwork in an effort to recall him to consciousness.

The referee called time out, and soon Capablanca blinked his eyes and threw himself back into the fight. Four more moves were played, but the spectators having tested their lungs and found them good, liked the novelty of noise at a chess match, and the cheering became louder and funnier. By this time the players were desperately fingering their men, too nervous to concentrate on the game. The referee, looking over the situation and apparently shocked beyond all hope of recovery by the actions of the gallery, declared the game a draw.

THE GUMPS—ONE BORN EVERY SECOND

MY GOOD MAN CAN YOU TELL ME WHERE I CAN HIRE A CAR TO TAKE ME OUT TO THE MAL-TEAL DUCK HUNTING CLUB?
YOU MUST HAVE GOT OFF AT THE WRONG STATION—THERE ISN'T A DUCK HUNTING CLUB WITHIN TEN MILES OF HERE—
I CAN'T UNDERSTAND WHEN MR. KNOX SOLD ME MY MEMBERSHIP FOR $300.—HE SAID THEY HAD A PALATIAL CLUBHOUSE A HALF MILE FROM THE STATION—
I'M SORRY STRANGER BUT I KNOW MR. KNOX—HE'S AS CROOKED AS THE ROAD TO MANDALAY—MY GREAT GRAND DADDY SHOT THE LAST DUCK THAT VISTED THIS NEIGHBORHOOD BEFORE OLD BLACK JOE LEFT THE KINDERGARTEN—THERE'S ANOTHER TRAIN EAST IN SEVEN HOURS—
WELL I MAY NOT GET ANY DUCKS BUT THAT WON'T KEEP ME FROM DUCK HUNTING AND THE DUCK I'M GOING TO HUNT IS MR. KNOX THE PROMOTER—I'VE GOT THE GUNS AND MUNITION AND IF THAT DUCK EVER FLIES IN FRONT OF MY BLIND I'LL FILL HIM AS FULL OF HOLES AS A SICK SPONGE—HE MAYBE A SMART THREE SHELL MAN BUT I'M GOING TO BE A TWO SHELL MAN AND LET HIM GUESS WHICH ONE OF THE DOUBLE BARRELS THE LITTLE SHELL IS HIDING IN—

Who's Who and What's What on Grid? Don't Ask Experts

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Oct. 17.—It is about time to admit that few people ever know exactly who does any particular thing in the big football games and that the people who watch by radio or merely read about it in the fat Sunday papers are deceived no worse than those who sit in the stands personally observing the action.

The newspaper pieces crediting this or that conspicuous feat to this or that player usually are positive enough in their identification, but that is only because the man writing the piece knows that custom requires him to name somebody. This is demanding much too much because football games have become open-air sleight-of-hand shows. The theatrical reporter isn't expected to tell where the magician at the Bijou Dream concealed the guinea pig until ready to pluck it out of the hat.

It's Most Perplexing.

Still, it would be regarded as an admission of incompetence for a sport writer to write that an unidentified Notre Dame player wearing the number assigned to Francis Xavier McGuire, but believed to be Axel Swanson, received a forward pass from a player wearing the number assigned to Ludwig Schultz, but believed to be Rosario Giannini, and ran thirty yards to the Navy's five yard line, where he was dragged down by a midshipman who could not be identified because [a] his number was smeared with mud, and [b] it probably wasn't his correct number, anyway.

Inasmuch as the sport writers have slightly better facilities for identifying the players than the spectators have, the people who watch the games in the Sunday papers enjoy that slight advantage over those who actually go out to the games. And, without wishing to complicate the perplexities of the radio broadcasters by discrediting them with their audience, I must say that most of them seem to have even less knowledge of what it is all about than the spectators.

Every One Becomes Confused.

These are hair splitting distinctions, however, because when two coaches are sending in replacements, six or eight or even eleven at a time, and the players are wearing one another's numbers with the idea of concealing their identities from their opponents, the fuddlement of press, public, and the radio is almost total.

In last Saturday's game between Navy and Notre Dame the substitutions were so numerous that there wasn't a soul in the stands or press coop who actually knew the correct lineup of either team at any given time after the kickoff. Being lost in the confusion myself and wishing to improve my technique in the work of covering a football game, I asked a great football reporter on the way home how he was able to keep track of the proceedings with the positive authority that always characterizes his work.

"Authority?" he exclaimed. "I never feel any confidence. I was wondering the same thing about your stuff. You seem always to know who did it and who missed the tackle."

Even Students Give Up.

"Well," I said, "I try to rely on the student announcers in the press coop but I often find that they give credit for a touchdown to a man who went out of the game ten minutes earlier."

"Yes," he said, "it's confusing. I kept track of the substitutions today until I had a total of 54. Then I gave up. There must have been thirty more."

The summaries of the Notre Dame-Navy game gave only 36 substitutions, showing that somebody threw up his hands and quit less than half way through. There are 35 recorded substitutions in the summary of the Chicago-Purdue game, 37 in the Army-Davis Elkins summary, 20 in the Lehigh-Swarthmore summary, and 19 in the account of the Pennsylvania-Penn State game.

The Notre Dame-Navy game was played on a dry field, and the numbers on the players' sweaters were legible all the way, not that that helped matters after the first fifty or so had trickled into the battle and out. But in games where the athletes are wallowing in mud, the football writers, responsive to the demand for accurate identifications if possible, but identification anyway, simply guess who's in the back field at a given time and put the ball in the arms of some one who would be likely to make ten yards around end. Some times the student announcers throw down their megaphones after the first few plays and abandon themselves to the natural delirium of student rooters, but even if they stick to their tasks they are likely to be as badly deceived as any one else by the shuffling of the numbers, the swift parade of the substitutes and the sameness of all players when the mud is on them.

There are few players who can be identified by their style or physical conformation. Red Grange was one. Al Miller of Harvard, a straight line, heads down sprinter, was another, but in writing or broadcasting or merely watching football by the time you have learned the characteristics of one of these individuals, the game is over and he has passed out of your view for a year at least.

I am not complaining about all this. The situation is confusing but not at all ominous, and if the public will have names under circumstances where the coaches themselves may not be sure who did something, it will be easy enough to confer up there in the press coops when some unidentified person has made ten yards off tackle and elect heroes by a vote of the majority.

Kaplan Fights McLarnin in Coliseum Ring Tonight

KID KAPLAN.

Louis "Kid" Kaplan of Meriden, Conn., recognized as the world's featherweight champion for nearly two years by the New York Boxing commission, and Jimmy McLarnin, one of the best lightweights developed on the Pacific coast in recent years, will meet in the main event of Promoter James C. Mullen's boxing show at the Coliseum tonight. They will go ten rounds to a decision at 136 pounds. The show will start at 8:15 and there will be 6,000 seats at $2.20 and $3.30 on sale when the doors open.

McLarnin started his boxing career as a flyweight. Among his victims in that division was Pancho Villa, the Filipino who died shortly after this fight. Jimmy then stepped into the bantamweight class and won two decisions over Champion Bud Taylor.

McLarnin continued to take on weight and advanced to the lightweight class. His victory over Jackie Fields, who is credited with a win over Sammy Mandell, the lightweight champion, is his outstanding achievement as a 135 pounder.

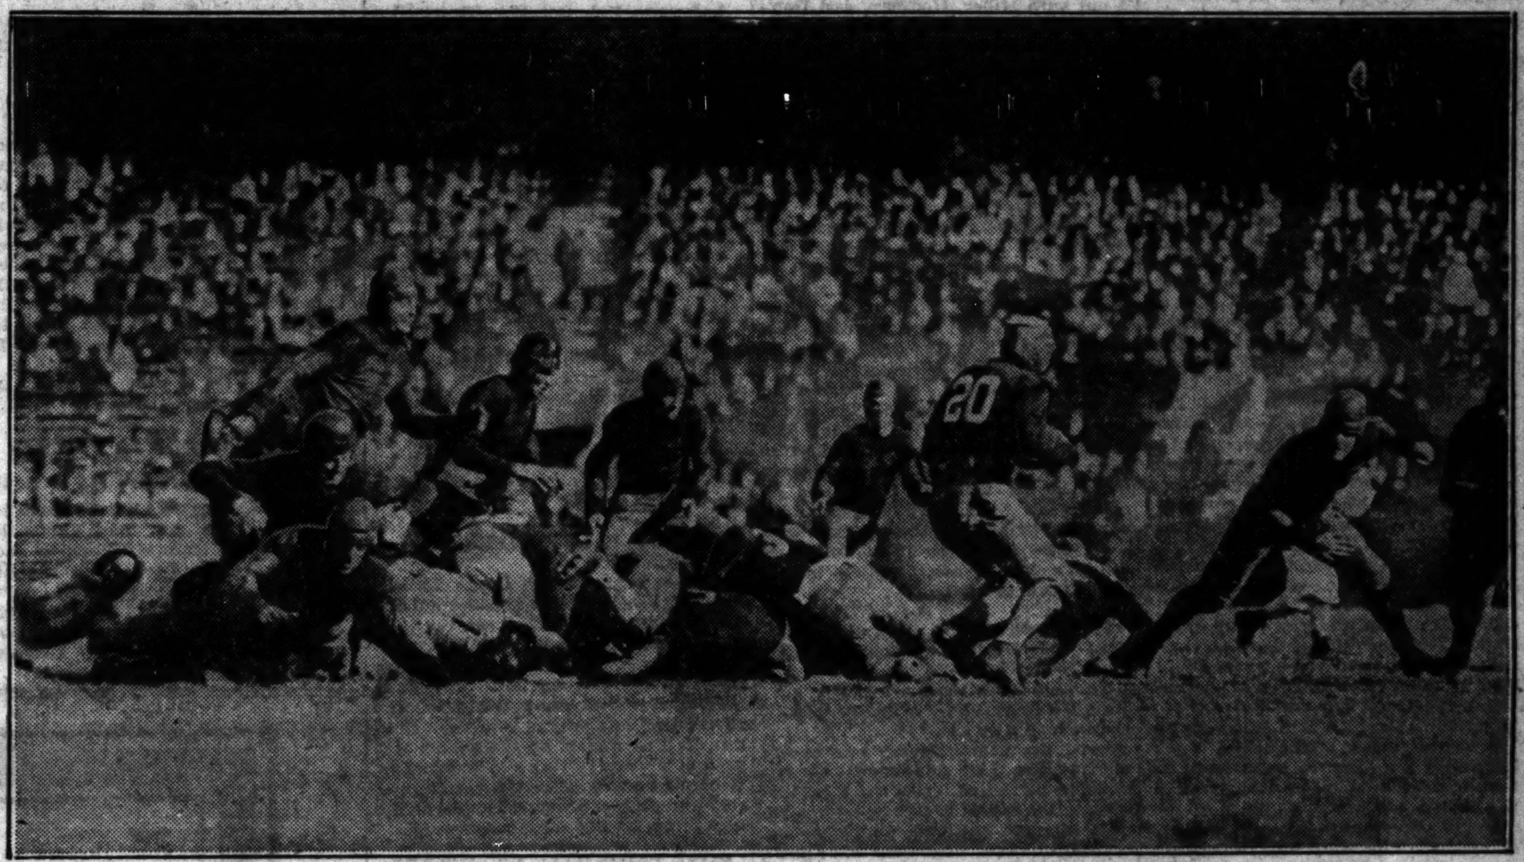
Kaplan was given the synthetic featherweight title when he won a fifteen round decision over Babe Herman in 1925. Previous to this fight Kaplan had won from Danny Kramer, who also claimed the title, in nine rounds. Among other fighters whom Kaplan has beaten are Johnny Farr, Billy Petrolle, Leo Kid Roy, Tommy Cello, Tommy Herman, and Bobby Garcia.

McLarnin is Irish and Kaplan is Jewish. Both are considered leaders in the brigade trying to get a match with Sammy Mandell, who has signed with Mullen to defend his title in Chicago on Nov. 14.

Archie Bell of Brooklyn, N. Y., who probably will be the opponent of Bud Taylor in a fight for the bantamweight crown later in the season, will take on Kid Lencho of San Antonio, Tex., in the ten round semi-windup. They will scale 119 pounds.

My Sullivan of St. Paul and Howard McLarin of Louisville, Ky., will be the principals in one of the ten round openers, and Roleaux Saguero, the Cuban, and Earl Blue of Fargo, N. D., will trade punches in the opening contest of ten rounds. This bout probably will end in a knockout, as both are terrific hitters.

CAN CHICAGO DUPLICATE THIS?



Chicago hopes to emulate this example offered by Penn State showing what can be done defensively against Penn's line. Penn State defeated the Ben Franklins last Saturday, 20 to 0, and the Maroons are next in line to duplicate the victory. Here Hake of Pennsylvania (No. 20) is stopped with a two yard gain. The Penn State line has piled the Penn forwards in one nice sized heap, completely stopping the offensive charge.

Bluhm Injured as Maroons Drill for Penn

HAROLD BLUHM.

Troubles piled up on Coach Stagg at the Midway yesterday when Harold Bluhm, sophomore quarterback, suffered a dislocated vertebra in his neck during practice yesterday afternoon. When Bluhm was hurt Dr. C. O. Molander, the team physician, set the vertebra. Bluhm was taken to the new hospital of the medical group at the Midway, where X-rays indicated that the vertebra slipped back into place satisfactorily.

Bluhm will have to rest for a few days. Dr. Molander said it was unlikely, but not impossible, that Bluhm would be able to play against Pennsylvania Saturday.

Bluhm's injury is a severe blow to the Maroons, who were preparing for their battle with Pennsylvania when the accident happened. Coming as it does on top of injuries to Vin Libby, half back, and Malcolm Proudfoot, regular tackle, it leaves a big gap in the Maroon ranks, which Stagg will be kept busy this week in filling. In addition to the new member of the casualty list, the whole Maroon squad suffered minor knicks and bruises at the hands of the Boilermakers, which are keeping Trainer Bentson busy with his tape, bandages, and electrical healing apparatus.

Prior to Bluhm's accident the Maroons had been working on defense against the Quaker plays as portrayed by the freshman. The yearlings opened by making a sixty yard march through the varsity, helped by an allowance of six downs per ten yards, but were unable to put the ball over for a touchdown after reaching the five yard line. The sophomore quarter was hurt when the varsity shifted from the defense to offense.

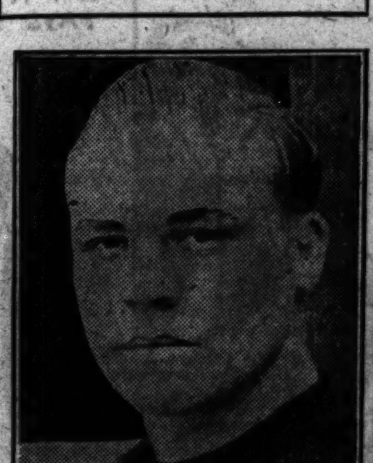
Georgia Golfer Scores His Sixth Hole in One

Columbus, Ga., Oct. 17.—(AP)—W. H. Dismuke Sr., veteran golfer of the Columbus Country club, has just made his sixth hole in one on the local course and his friends have begun comparing his record with those of the world's foremost linksmen.

'Annie Laurie' Battle Song of Reitsch, Illini Leader

BY HARLAND ROHM.

ILLINI CHIEF



BOB REITSCH.

Capt. Bob Reitsch carefully wiped the mud from his hands on "Bubbles" Mitterwallner's jersey and bent over the football on the Illini field. "The band played 'Annie Laurie,' fellows, the band played 'Annie Laurie.'" It is Reitsch's battle cry, and even he doesn't know where he got it.

Perhaps he says the "band" played it because his parents tried to make a pianist of him, not knowing his hands were made for snapping back a football rather than tickling ivory keys, but it didn't take at all.

Won Grid Laurels.

He's a handsome six foot blonde lad, with 188 pounds of bone and muscle. Brother of Hank Reitsch, who won his letter at center in 1920, Bob carried on the name to all-conference center last year and might have been all-western or all-American, except for Boeringer.

Reitsch denies allegations of his mates that he's a Swede, though he's blonde and comes from Rockford, and says his ancestry was German. He's a senior in the college of business.

Reitsch, always a center, should have had a band to play "Annie Laurie" this fall, for in his eighth year as a football center he made his first touchdown. Four years with Rockford High school and three years at Illinois he could be credited only with assists. Then in a practice game against the freshmen this fall he intercepted a pass and ran ten yards for a touchdown.

Proves Able Leader.

Two incidents in the Illini's battle with Ames last Saturday show Bob Reitsch as a captain and as a football player. Lindblom was making his historic series of smashes from his own 20 yard line to a touchdown and obviously had made the fourth successive first down. But Reitsch called for a measurement by the head linesmen. Ames had made the down by a yard, but it gave Reitsch's men thirty seconds or so to get themselves together and Ames gained less rapidly thereafter. And after that touchdown was made and Ames needed that point after touchdown for the winning point, it was Reitsch who smashed through the line to have the kick bound off his broad chest before it had traveled four feet.

BRITTON LOSES 10 ROUND BOUT TO MARTINEZ

New York, Oct. 17.—[U. P.]—Jack Britton, former welterweight champion, who began his boxing career 23 years ago, lost the referee's decision to Hilario Martinez, junior welterweight champion of Spain, who was born the year Jack started fighting, in a 10 round bout at the New Broadway arena tonight. Britton weighed 146½, Martinez 144 pounds.

Martinez was awarded seven rounds and had Britton in trouble several times. In the fifth, Martinez smashed Britton around the ring and the crowd called for the referee to stop the bout. The veteran staged a rally in the sixth and just before the bell ripped a right to the Spaniard's jaw, one of the hardest blows of the fight.

A Series of Stories for Prep Students

Do you know this prep star?

THE TRIBUNE sports pages tomorrow will contain the first of a series of personality sketches of Chicago high school football players. A picture of the player will be printed on the following day. The sketch will name the school and tell of the gridiron activities of the player. See if you can identify them before their pictures are published.

Jubilant N. U. Eleven Drills for Illinois

Earnest in their work despite the jubilation that their decisive triumph over Ohio State naturally aroused, the Purple grid warriors yesterday began another week of hard practice with the Illinois game their immediate objective.

They say there is no rest for the weary and this maxim held true out on the north shore training camp yesterday, for the 20 Purple athletes who played Saturday and still were a trifle tired, were sent through their paces just the same as the remainder of the squad.

Hanley Expects Hard Game.

With the downstate team pointing since the season opened for their meeting at Dyche stadium Saturday, Coach Dick Hanley has a suspicion that his men will have a big job on their hands and allowed no letdown in the work. There was no scrimmage, but about everything else in his training routine was gone over.

Several new plays were assigned and the ouelined schedule cals for some more tonight when scrimmage against what are believed to be the Illinois formations will be in vogue.

The Ohio State game again showed that the Northwestern defense wasn't on a par with its offense and considerable work is schduled for this week. The forward passing defense will be stressed for protection against the barrage of tosses the downstate eleven is expected to unloose.

Team in Good Condition.

The work of the ends on defense was more satisfactory to the coaches than it has been, but the wingmen didn't travel down fast enough on punts to suit the local coaches and last night they chased down the field after the soaring balls.

Northwestern is expected to have an edge on its downstate rival in the matter of physical welfare when the two teams clash.

Youth Dies in Prep Grid Game at Beardstown, Ill.

Beardstown, Ill., Oct. 17.—[Special.]—John Clark, 15, freshman in high school here, died from overexertion in a football game this afternoon. He was ready to receive a pass when he was tackled and thrown to the ground. Efforts to revive him were futile. Young Clark had a weak heart caused from a severe case of diphtheria two years ago, it was said.

BAN ROLLS DOWN DESK; GIVES KEY TO 3 DIRECTORS

Barnard Still in Lead for Job.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

E. S. BARNARD.

"This place has changed hands."

Had such a pre-Volsteadian sign been available yesterday it could have been put to good use over the door leading to the headquarters of the American league.

The announcement would have been the means of informing the world that Ban Johnson, the only president the league ever boasted, a man who had grown weary after thirty-four years in harness, had slammed down his desk, tossed aside his toga and walked out as a private citizen.

He left behind him an accounting of all the league's affairs since it became a major circuit in 1901; also the remnants of a $40,000 per annum contract that had eight more years to run. He took with him only the good wishes of three league directors. He didn't even take the trouble to inquire as to who might succeed him.

Navin, Shibe, Griffith Attend.

In answer to the summons sent out by the chief, Frank Navin, president of the Detroit club; Ben Shibe, president of the Athletics, and Clark Griffith, president of the Washington outfit, gathered in the league's executive rooms shortly before noon. Phil Ball, the fourth director, did not appear because of pressing business in the east, but he remained loyal to the end by wiring: "On anything you want I vote yes."

No ceremony marked the final severing of ties. The three directors walked in to find Johnson seated alongside George Barrett, who was on hand to see that things were conducted in legal fashion. Johnson gave them the league's bank book [representing a tidy sum], the notes and mortgages the league holds against certain properties, and the keys to the front and back doors. And that was the end of a fight that started when Johnson tried to discipline Carl Mays for deliberately jumping the Boston club to force his transfer to the Yankees.

Harridge to Direct Affairs.

When the directors walked out of their last meeting with Johnson they had nothing to say, at least nothing of importance. Navin, as vice president of the league, declared that he would serve as head of the league pending an election, but that affairs actually would be under the direction of William Harridge, for fifteen years secretary of the Johnson administration.

As to the identity of the man who will draw the job that now pays $40,000, an amount that may be reduced, the directors professed to know nothing. They claimed an election had not been held and that the matter might not be definitely disposed of until the annual meeting at New York in December.

Reliable sources, however, continue to insist that E. S. Barnard, now executive of the Cleveland club, has been named and that his selection will be announced at a league meeting to be held Nov. 2.

Johnson to Excelsior Springs.

For the immediate future Johnson has no plans except for a rest. Relieved of the job he long since had decided was not worth the trouble, he departed last night for Excelsior Springs, Mo. He will undergo treatments there for about a week and then return to Chicago, after which he plans on a trip to Honolulu. There has been some talk of a third league and it is well known that powerful financial interests have been seeking Johnson's assistance, but he is not likely to engage in such a venture.

Johnson's original decision to step out was given to the club owners last July.

LOGAN CHANNEL FAKE AROUSES MISS GLEITZE

LONDON, Oct. 17.—[U.P.]—Stung by general skepticism aroused over English channel swimming records, Miss Mercedes Gleitze, London stenographer who made the swim recently, telephoned American and British newspaper offices here today that she would attempt the difficult crossing again Wednesday.

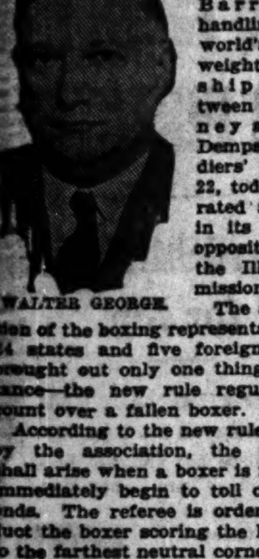
Inviting newspapers to send observers, Miss Gleitze explained that in view of Dr. Dorothy Logan's confession of a false claim to channel honors, she wished to demonstrate her own good faith.

Miss Gleitze has scraped and saved money for years to enable her to train for her channel attempts, and until Dr. Logan's confession Saturday she was overjoyed at her success.

RING CHIEFS O. K. CHICAGO COUNT; WANT NO MORE

Revise Count Over Fallen Boxer.

Toledo, O., Oct. 17.—(AP)—The National Boxing association, after indorsing the Illinois state athletic commission and its referee, Dave Barry, in the handling of the world's heavyweight championship battle between Gene Tunney and Jack Dempsey at Soldiers' field, Sept. 22, today incorporated a new rule in its code quite opposite to that of the Illinois commission.



WALTER GEORGE.

The all day session of the boxing representatives from 24 states and five foreign countries brought out only one thing of importance—the new rule regulating the count over a fallen boxer.

According to the new rule, approved by the association, the timekeeper shall arise when a boxer is floored and immediately begin to toll off the seconds. The referee is ordered to conduct the boxer scoring the knockdown to the farthest neutral corner, then return to the fallen boxer and pick up the count with the timekeeper.

When Count Stops.

Should the contestant scoring the knockdown leave the farthest neutral corner, the new rule provides that the timekeeper and referee shall halt the count until he returns to the designated corner.

In the Tunney-Dempsey battle the timekeeper started counting when Tunney hit the floor, while the referee was shooing Jack to the neutral corner. When Referee Barry returned to the fallen title holder he took up the count at "one," although the timekeeper's toll had reached four.

Walter M. George, secretary of the Illinois commission, declared that Leo P. Flynn, manager of Jack Dempsey, had failed to register as manager of Dempsey with the Illinois commission and for that reason he was not permitted to make a formal appeal. George said that Flynn had promised that Dempsey would present his side of the case, but had never done so.

After hearing the report of Secretary George, the association congratulated the Illinois organization and declared the Tunney-Dempsey tangle a dead issue.

Rule Suggested by George.

Although the new rule adopted by the national association does not follow the Illinois regulations to the letter, President Thomas Donohue stated that it was adopted at the suggestion of Mr. George.

Another rule regarding knockdowns also was incorporated into the N. B. A. code. It stipulated that when a boxer falls or is knocked out of the ring he shall be given 20 seconds to return. If he does not, or is unable to do so, the referee shall count him out.

It is expected that the proposed action to deprive Sammy Mandell, lightweight champion, of his title unless he fights an outstanding challenger within the lightweight limit will provide plenty of fireworks. Mandell is scheduled to defend his title in Chicago on Nov. 14 against an opponent that has not been selected.

Garcia Battles Ruth to Ten Round Draw

Fight Decisions

At New Bedford, Mass.—Martin Burke knocked out Jamaica Kid [3].

At Memphis, Tenn.—Pete Sarron beat Pal Moore [8].

Frankie Garcia, the Mexican featherweight, and Babe Ruth of Louisville went ten rounds to a draw in the windup of Promoter Mique Malloy's boxing show at White City last night. There was little to chose between them at the finish as Garcia had the advantage in the early rounds and Ruth evened the score in the last half of the mill.

A capacity house of 4,500 paid about $9,000 to see the show.

Although the fight between Ruth and Garcia was billed as the feature, the eight round semi-windup between Ernie Peters and Henry Cullen, local flyweights, was by far the best fight on the card. These little fellows went at it in hammer and tongs fashion from the first tap of the bell and Peters was given the decision.

Up to the last round the two fought an even battle. In the fourth round Peters had Cullen on the verge of a knockout, but was unable to even floor his gritty opponent. In the preceding rounds, Cullen had the advantage for he landed the scoring punches by excellent counters.

Honors were even in the fifth, sixth, and seventh rounds. About the middle of the eighth stanza Peters caught Cullen flush on the jaw with a left hook. The blow staggered Henry and Ernie shot a hard right cross to his jaw. Cullen was dazed. He reeled about the ring, but had the fighting instinct to hang on and punch back. The crowd yelled frantically for a knockout, but Henry weathered the round, but the lacing he took lost him the fight.

In the other fights Tommy Williams and Genero Pino went four rounds to a draw, Harry Dublinsky beat Eddie Law in four rounds, Morrie Gransberg was given the decision in six rounds over George Mussey, and Earl Mastro was given the verdict over Eddie Connors in the same number of rounds.

Michigan Backs Fight for Regular Positions on Team

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 17.—[Special.]—A fight to determine the back field that will face Ohio State in Michigan's stadium dedication game Saturday will occur this week, as a result of the showings made Saturday against Wisconsin, Coach Wieman said today.

The weakness in the center of Michigan's line seems to have been bolstered by the showing of Bovard, a new man, who proved strong in the second half of the game against the Badgers. Fielding H. Yost witnessed today's practice.

AT OHIO STATE.

Columbus, O., Oct. 17.—[Special.]—Outside of the usual bumps and bruises the Buckeyes who participated in the game with Northwestern Saturday were in the best of condition today. Coach Wilce set about to correct the faults, so apparent in the game with the Purple. The squad spent several hours in blocking and tackling practice and drilling on fundamentals. The lack of a punter again bothered the Buckeye coach and he had Marek, Grim, Bell, Eby, and Ohsner practicing in this department. Raskowski, although in uniform, received a day of rest to allow his infected arm to heal.

AT MINNESOTA.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 17.—[Special.]—The Gophers resumed work tonight for the homecoming tilt with Iowa Saturday. Coach Spears cleared the field of every one except the players, and announced no one would be permitted inside the gates this week. It was hinted that Spears would make changes in his lineup, but no one seemed to know what they were going to be. The use of Pharmer in the back field is one possibility. The Gophers came through the game in fine physical condition. After a long chalk talk the athletes went to work on new plays. Maeder's fine work at left tackle against Indiana is expected to win that berth for him.

AT IOWA.

Iowa City, Ia., Oct. 17.—[Special.]—Heartened by its overwhelming victory over Wabash, Iowa gridiron candidates today started preparation for the clash with Minnesota Saturday. They were given a new set of plays, which they will use exclusively against the Gophers. It is believed Iowa's strong line will hold the Gopher ball carriers, while Glassgow and Armil pierce the Minnesota line for long gains. Iowa will develop its aerial attack this week and work on defensive formations.

AT PURDUE.

Lafayette, Ind., Oct. 17.—[Special.]—Disappointed by its defeat at Chicago, the Purdue football squad buckled down to work here tonight for its game with Wisconsin at Madison next Saturday. More serious than the defeat was the loss of Leon Hutton, Purdue's star end, who suffered a dislocated shoulder in the Maroon contest. Hutton's injury places another name on the already long list of seriously injured Boilermakers, whose absence from the lineup has forced Coach Jimmy Phelan to reorganize his team several times this season. The reserves were sent through a scrimmage drill, while the regulars who took part in the Chicago game were let off with limbering up workouts.

AT WISCONSIN.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 17.—[Special.]—Wisconsin varsity men who played in the Michigan game Saturday were given a light passing workout this afternoon while Coach Glenn Thistlethwaite concentrated on his second and third string teams. The reserves were pitted against Coach Guy Lowman's "All Americans" in scrimmage which lasted more than an hour, and gave Hayes, Kyr, Wiegant, Mohardt and other reserves plenty of practice. Pierson, leading punter on the squad, was used at the end during the scrimmage. Rebholtz responded to the coaching of Guy Sundt by getting off some of the best punts he has made this season.

BUYS OHIO BALL FRANCHISE.

Dallas, Tex., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Directors of the Dallas Electric association, which owns the Dallas Texas league baseball club, today completed negotiations for the purchase of the Akron, O., franchise in the newly organized Central league, a class B loop of eight clubs, for $100,000.

Notre Dame Eleven Rests; Nurses Hurts

Notre Dame, Ind., Oct. 17.—[Special.]—Preparations began today on Cartier field for the reception of Joesting & Co. here two weeks hence. The Notre Dame coaching staff realizes that Pat Page's Indiana eleven will be equipped to give the Rockne men a hard battle at Bloomington, Saturday, but the leaders choose to point for Minnesota.

No serious injuries were reported and it seems that Elmer Wynne will be the only man who will be unable to get into Saturday's game with Indiana. John Chevigny was not as seriously hurt as was feared at first and should be back in the game by Wednesday.

AT INDIANA.

Bloomington, Ind., Oct. 17.—[Special.]—As a result of their work in the Minnesota game, Paul Harrell and Paul Balay, both of Indianapolis, today were awarded medals by Coach Pat Page of Indiana in a kicking and passing contest being conducted for varsity players. Harrell did the booting during the first half in the "moral victory" over the Gophers, and his performance excelled any the Gophers attempted. Balay was the kicker in the second half, and in addition to punting he sent two beautiful place kicks between the uprights. Harrell was injured in the second quarter and it is doubtful if he is able to enter the Notre Dame scrap Saturday.

Hoosier Semi-Pro Pitcher Breaks Arm Hurling Curve

La Porte, Ind., Oct. 17.—[Special.]—While pitching for the Valparaiso Moose baseball team in Winamac, Ind., yesterday, Harley Beck, local semi-pro moundsman, hooked a fast curve across the plate so hard that his right arm was fractured between the elbow and the shoulder, an x-ray revealed today.

Kane Talks Terms for Mandell-Terris Match

New York, Oct. 17.—[U.P.]—Negotiations for a lightweight title bout between Sammy Mandell, titleholder, and Sid Terris were entered into today between Eddie Kane, Mandell's manager, and Jess McMahon, matchmaker, for Madison Square Garden. The bout probaly will be held late in December or early in January.

GIBBONS SPRINTS TO VICTORY IN ARLINGTON RACE

Aged Sanola Farm Horse Takes Feature.

BY FRENCH LANE.

Gibbons, a great old sprinter in his day but somewhat out of fashion lately, found his racing legs on the lightning fast Arlington Park course yesterday and ran away with the feature race, which was a dash at five and a half furlongs. A crowd of 10,000, it being Ladies' day, cheered the one time western dash champion to his victory.

After Gibbons had shown a clean pair of heels to all those in the field of eight and had won by a length from Big Sweep, strange stories were told about the old horse, which in this race sported the green and white silks of the Sanola farm stable. He came to Chicago early in the season as the property of G. Frank Croissant. Later it was announced he had been sold to the Sanola farm people, who are Terry Druggan and Frankie Lake.

After this sale the old horse is reported to have been led away in the night and hidden at a north side riding academy for some time. Somebody discovered him there and led him back to the race track and into the barn of the Sanola farm stable.

Ran Eleventh in Last Race.

Gibbons went to the post coupled with Pigeon Wing II. and Anne Marrone II. in Saturday's speed handicap. Pigeon Wing II. was so much the best in that race that the stable chose to win with him, and Gibbons came home as the captain of the rear guard. He was eleventh in a field of twelve.

He was coupled with Anne Marrone II. in yesterday's race, and with Jockey Dannie Connelly on his back was away first when the barrier lifted, but let Big Sweep sail into the lead for an instant. Then Connelly shot him to the front, and it was all over but the shouting. Big Sweep clung to second place, while Voshell got up in time to grab third money.

Old Gibbons was in his best stride, running like he did a couple of years ago when he was smashing track records everywhere. They didn't have a chance to catch him. His price in the mutuels was $5.78.

Philpot Rides Three Winners.

Jockey H. Philpot had a field day with three winers, his most noteworthy victory coming in the secondary feature on Changing Moods, when he came from far behind and won at odds of nearly 13 to 1. He also rode Miss Chiniquy and Ferseth past the winning post.

With the weather ideal for racing and the track as good as any in the country, the Arlington Park management introduced a new feature during the afternoon. The horses were saddled on the track to the left of the judges' stand in full view of all those in the stand, clubhouse, and on the lawns. It was a temporary arrangement, brought about by the work being done on the paddock. It proved popular with the racegoers and most of the owners. It speeded up the program and the last race was decided before dark, which enabled the crowd to get back to the loop long before the dinner hour.

Betting Coup Fails.

There was a 2 year allowance race on the program and a gigantic betting coup went amiss when Miss Torch, a daughter of Torch Bearer, failed to get any part of the money after racing far in front during the early stages. The price on this fleet Kentucky miss was slowly battered down from an opening of 15 to 1 to less than 3 to 1 at post time. Jockey Connelly got her away flying, but she began to swerve in the stretch, and Dancing, at 9 to 1, came up and conquered her. Then she dropped back out of the money.

A-Sweet Stomach!

What a pity when youth and vitality are set at naught by a disordered stomach and bad breath! Don't have them at any age! Hearty eaters—hard smokers—high livers—find Stuart's a boon and blessing!

Eat what you wish. Drink what you like. Then chew a Stuart tablet. No soda, just a soothing combination of magnesia, calcium carbonate and the like. Result, a sweet stomach, serene digestion, no pains, no discomfort.

Wherever you find a drugstore, you'll find Stuart's. The handy metal box to carry in purse or pocket is a quarter. The large size for 60 cts., and the family size, $1.20. A sweet stomach for twenty-five cents.

In the WAKE of the NEWS

PURPLE VICTORY.

IN ITS brilliant victory over Ohio State last Saturday, Northwestern showed two adverse factors not likely to be repeated in the remainder of its conference schedule. Right at the start, the Purple was plainly nervous to the point of overanxiety which did not quite reach stage fright. This was the more surprising as The Wake never had seen a more sanely confident squad.

After the Wildcats amassed a 19 to 7 lead, the exact reverse was true. The team let down while Ohio State marched 61 yards to a touchdown without losing the ball. In considering this, however, one must allow for the frenzy and desperation which often seizes a losing team and rouses it temporarily to super-effort. That probably was the case with the Buckeyes.

Of the breaks in the game, the two most important to Northwestern, as we saw them, took place in the first half. Ohio State started like an avalanche and in four plays had the ball on the Purple 27 yard line, a forward pass accounting for most of the gain. Tiny Lewis stepped in the way of the next pass and carried it back to the middle of the field. Ohio did not then score until the second quarter.

The second break took place three minutes before the half ended. Northwestern had the ball on Ohio's 20 yard line with 14 yards to gain. If it lost the oval on downs, it was unlikely to get the ball again in that half. One pass was grounded. Then Gustafson tossed to Fisher who made a brilliant catch behind the Ohio line and scrambled to the 4 yard mark from where Lewis went over on the first plunge.

Those two breaks may have meant the ball game, for while Northwestern plainly was the better team, we many times have seen what looked like better teams come out on the short end of the count.

Purple Confidence.

In fanning after the game Saturday, we remarked to Coach Hanley "After the play of the second period, I thought you'd win although the score was 7 to 6 against you." "That's just what I told the boys between halves," responded Hanley, whereupon Tiny Lewis cut in with "It sounded mighty good to hear Coach say it, but every man on the team felt that way too. We were sure we had Ohio's number."

Football Retrospect.

Attempting to forecast 33 results Saturday, The Wake picked 18 winners, 9 losers, and 6 games resulted in ties. Season to date: 84 winners, 18 losers, 9 ties.

O, It's A Gift.

Dear Harve: You were not as successful as usual, Harvey, in picking 'em Saturday and you'll admit that yourself, but what puzzles me is how you could name Harvard and Yale to come back after Purdue had trampled on the Crimson and Georgia had walloped the Blue, for Holy Cross and Brown are not weaklings by any means. They Razzed Us Plenty.

Dear Wake: Aren't you a little ashamed, living in Evanston, to have picked Ohio State to beat Northwestern? Don't do that again. I'll admit it took courage to do so traveling to and from Columbus with the Wildcats and no doubt your sympathy with them, but what did our boys say to you on the train coming home? Purple Co-ed.

"If Hair Can Be Grown, We Can Grow It"

Announcing
A New Branch Office—
S. E. Corner 63rd and Cottage Grove
(807 East 63rd Street)

Owing to the great demand for the superior methods employed by the Hair and Scalp Institute in administering the Quartz Ultra-Violet Lamp for regrowing hair and to further accommodate our patrons, we are pleased to announce the opening of a new branch office at 807 East 63rd St. —the southeast corner of 63rd St. and Cottage Grove. Here the same wonderful new system—a marvel of the age—will be employed by trained specialists to destroy scalp disorders and to give you an abundant growth of lustrous hair. Begin these treatments today—do not wait.

There is only one way to insure the long life of your hair—that is to protect your scalp. The HAIR & SCALP INSTITUTE does more than this. It guarantees not only to destroy scalp disorders but actually to grow hair on any surface where hair formerly grew. The methods employed are the last word in modern, scientific discovery; equipment is the largest and finest to be found anywhere. Yet prices are reasonable; any one can afford them.

Introductory Course
To acquaint you with our methods and to convince you with our unusual results.
6 Treatments, All for $10

GUARANTEED COURSE
As Low as $1 Per Treatment
Full courses carry a written guarantee that if we should fail to entirely satisfy you we will cheerfully refund your money—and you are to be the sole judge of the results in your own case.

CONSULTATION FREE: Let us examine your scalp FREE and advise you frankly what science can do for you. Absolutely no obligation; everything confidential. Male attendants; for men only.

We recommend Ravol Soapless Shampoo (triple duty) because it is a superior preparation that positively cleans the Hair and Scalp safer and quicker than anything else.

PETRI AND HILL TEAM FOR 6-DAY BIKE RACE HERE

Otto Petri of Germany, who won the six day bicycle race here a year ago, will be teamed with Norman Hill of San José, Cal., in the weekly whirl of wheels which starts at the Coliseum Sunday night. Petri is the only German rider in the grind but is looked upon as one of the best six day riders in the game.

The six day riders will start moving on Chicago tomorrow. Practically all the American and foreign stars will leave New York tomorrow and will arrive here on Thursday. Some of the riders are coming west by auto.

Franco Georgetti will ride against Bobby Walthour in a five mile motor paced match race at the Coliseum Saturday night. This race will be the feature race of a card of professional and amateur events.

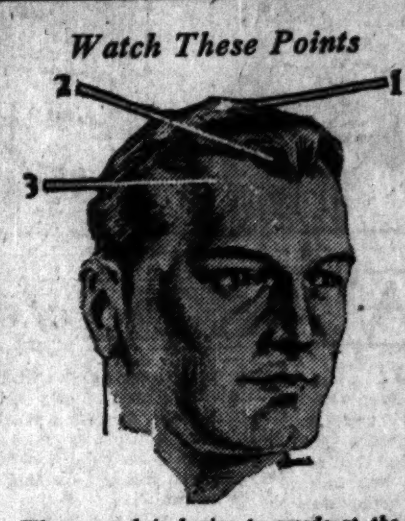
You too Can Have a Good Head of Hair

Start now to restore your hair to a healthy condition. The Thomas' scientifically combat all scalp disorders, including dandruff and falling hair, which lead to baldness. They positively regrow hair and return the scalp to a condition of normal functioning. If you possess thin, lifeless hair or are already bald, call at the nearest Thomas' office today for an examination without charge or obligation.



When your hair begins to recede at the temple (3), frontal (2), or get thin on the crown (1), nature is painlessly warning you that you have been neglecting your scalp and baldness is surely approaching. Heed this positive warning and save your hair by having The Thomas' correct the scalp disorder that is causing your loss of hair.

Ultra-Violet Quartz Lamp Treatments, 50c Each

Skilled Thomas' technicians administer ultra-violet quartz lamp treatments alone (without the balance of the Original Thomas' Treatment) for less than one-third the amount charged for the same treatments elsewhere. You may have a choice of any of the three best and most modern quartz lamps—The Alpine, Burdick, or Victor X-Ray.

Prevent Baldness or Eliminate it NOW

The Thomas' own original specialized method eliminates dandruff, stops falling hair, corrects all scalp disorders, and promotes a growth of new hair, generally visible on the scalp within a few weeks. With this distinctive fifteen year proven method of individualized treatment available you cannot afford to waste your time and money on experimental treatments or general "cure-all" remedies of doubtful value.

WOMEN find that The Thomas' treatment reveals the hidden loveliness in their hair by removing the cause of lusterless hair—dandruff—and correcting dry, brittle, or oily hair. The Thomas' have an office exclusively for women. Here a Thomas' specialist will examine your hair and scalp without charge or obligation. Call today and start your scalp on the road to health.

Santa Fe Purchases Promote Prosperity

WHILE the Santa Fe is itself a large employer of labor—its payroll in 1926 totalled $107,000,000, and its employes number more than 75,000—indirectly as a buyer of materials and supplies it helps to furnish employment to many more. Such purchases last year exceeded $64,000,000. In addition it bought over $12,000,000 of new cars and locomotives.

Its largest class of material was fuel, which totalled $24,360,000. This consisted of about 2,267,000 tons of coal, and 507,800,000 gallons of fuel oil. The use of coal or oil on any division is determined primarily by which is the cheaper fuel in that locality.

The second largest class of purchases was iron and steel products, for which the expenditure was approximately $19,750,000. This included an expenditure of $9,500,000 for 152,700 tons of rail, frogs, switches, and fastenings. $1,500,000 went for wheels, axles, and tires and $306,000 for flues and tubes for locomotives. Bridges, turntables, structural steel, forgings, and fabricated, unfabricated, and pressed steel took nearly $3,000,000. Steel and iron are basic necessities in railroading.

Purchases of forest products totalled $6,412,000, which included over 3,000,000 cross ties, and large quantities of lumber and timbers. The Santa Fe creosotes its ties and much of its timbers, otherwise greater quantities would be needed each year.

Folders, report blanks, notices, tickets, tariffs, and various items in the stationery line required $1,225,000, electrical materials $660,000, lubricating oil and grease, illuminating oils, waste, etc., $1,180,000, and air brake material $617,600.

These purchases were necessary to maintain the railroad properly and to give satisfactory service to the public. They were covered by 130,000 invoices and were made from 3,347 individuals and firms. Note the wide spread of this buying.

Thus the Santa Fe and all railroads are an important factor in maintaining the prosperity of our country through the employment arising from these large purchases of supplies, as well as the millions directly disbursed among their own employes for services.

When the railroads are doing well, they buy materials and supplies on a larger scale than when net revenues fall off. Money thus spent mainly pays for the labor of many persons, helping merchants, farmers, everybody—your own community included. You therefore are vitally interested.

Despite the fact that hog receipts yesterday at 35,000 were 10,000 above the average Monday run during the last five weeks and largest since Sept. 6, buyers were able to force the general average price only 5c lower at $11.20. Outsiders took less than a fourth of the day's fresh receipts, yet only 8,000 hogs remained at the close. The Armour and Swift houses were big buyers, taking a combined total of 10,000 head.

Prices ruled steady to 10c lower, standing 10@25c under last Friday, with better grades showing the full loss. Extreme top at $11.90 equaled Saturday, but compares with $12.15 Friday. Tendency in hog prices a year ago this week ruled higher, in face of a seasonal increase in supplies. Receipts during the last half of October, 1926, were 50 per cent greater than the first half of the month. Market as a whole was higher during the last half.

Combined receipts of all kinds of live stock were largest in some time. An influx of medium quality steers swelled cattle receipts to 32,000, largest since last November and 9,000 above the average Monday run during the last two months. There was also a seasonal increase in receipts a year ago at this time, weekly totals gaining from 68,111 week ending Oct. 16, 1926, to 93,952 week ending Oct. 30.

Prime weighty beeves were not plentiful and 1,450 lb averages reached $16.90, equal to the highest of the season. Yearlings averaging 1,025 lbs brought $15.85. Butcher stock declined 25c. Calves slumped 50c. Western range cattle numbered 14,000, largest of the year, bringing the season total to 99,900, against 165,000 a year ago. Best westerns brought $13.00.

Feeding Lambs at $14.15.

Burdened by a liberal run of rangers, fat lambs declined 10@15c, with extreme top slaughter lambs at $14.10, against $14.25 late last week. Country buyers ignored the break in fat stock, taking on feeding lambs at strong to 25c higher prices. Best 72 lb feeders topped the list at $14.15, highest in several months for the weight. Aged and yearling sheep held firm, 108 lb, yearling wethers bringing $10.50.

COTTON SAGS LOWER

Cotton prices declined yesterday and closed at losses of 12@45 points on futures in Chicago and 16@45 points in other markets. Spots lost 25 points at 21.25c in New York. They were 20.85c in New Orleans, 20.73c in Houston, and 20.85c in Galveston. Liverpool set the pace early with a good break and finally closed at net losses of only 3@4 points, with spot sales of 8,000 bales.

Spot houses bought October and December in a fair way early, and it was said they were taking hold in New York owing to inability to get the cotton in the south.

Consumption of American cotton in Japan in July was 116,000 bales and of other growths 140,000 bales, against 175,000 bales and 94,000 bales, respectively, in June. Production of coton goods in the United States has increased 9 per cent over last year. Prices follow:

Republic of Poland Stabilization Loan, 1927

Seven Per Cent External Sinking Fund Gold Bonds

AMERICAN ISSUE

Offering of the English and European portions of this Loan is being made by Lazard Brothers & Co., Ltd., in England; Societe de Banque Suisse and Credit Suisse in Switzerland; Lippmann, Rosenthal & Co., De Twentsche Bank and Hope and Company in Holland; Bank Handlowy w Warszawie in Poland; Stockholms Enskilda Bank and Skandinaviska Kreditaktiebolaget, Sweden and Banque de Paris & des Pays-Bas, France.

To be dated: October 15, 1927 — To mature: October 15, 1947

Interest payable October 15 and April 15. Principal and interest payable at the principal office of Bankers Trust Company or The Chase National Bank of the City of New York, Fiscal Agents for the Loan, in United States gold coin of the present standard of weight and fineness, without deduction for any taxes or imposts now or hereafter levied by or within the Republic of Poland; also payable at the option of the holder in London in Pounds Sterling at the rate of $4.8665 per Pound Sterling; in Zurich or Basle, in Swiss Francs at the rate of 5.183 Swiss Francs per dollar; or in Amsterdam, in Dutch Florins at the rate of 2.488 Florins per dollar; or in Stockholm, in Swedish Kronor at the rate of 3.731 Kronor per dollar. Redeemable in whole or in part at the option of the Republic only (except for Sinking Fund) on October 15, 1937, or any interest date thereafter, on thirty days' published notice at 103. Coupon Bonds registerable as to principal only in denominations of $1,000, $500 and $100, interchangeable except into $100 denominations.

The Republic agrees to retire the entire Loan in semi-annual installments commencing at the annual rate of 4% for each of the first four years and increasing such annual rate ½ of 1% for each succeeding four year period to a maximum rate of 9% per annum. Such retirement is to be effected by the tender of Bonds or by cash sinking fund payments applicable to the purchase of Bonds at or below the redemption price and accrued interest or, if not so obtainable, to the redemption on April 15, 1928 and semi-annually thereafter upon thirty days' published notice of Bonds called by lot at 103%.

The following is summarized from a letter of the Minister of Finance of the Republic of Poland dated October 13, 1927:

This issue forms part of an International Loan to be issued for the purpose of carrying into effect a Plan of Stabilization adopted by the Polish Government in co-operation with the Bank of Poland. Arrangements have been made for the issue of the entire Stabilization Loan as follows:

£2,000,000 principal amount in England
$2,000,000 principal amount in France
$4,000,000 principal amount in Holland
$1,000,000 principal amount in Poland
$2,000,000 principal amount in Sweden
$6,000,000 principal amount in Switzerland
$47,000,000 principal amount in the United States of America

Purpose of the Loan: The Stabilization Loan is designed to consolidate and perpetuate a condition of monetary stability and budgetary equilibrium which the Polish Government has already achieved by its own efforts. The Plan of Stabilization represents a comprehensive monetary, budgetary and administrative program for ensuring a stable gold currency which will constitute a solid foundation for the development of the Nation's resources and facilitate relations with external markets by enhancing the credit of Poland already established at home and abroad.

Present Economic and Financial Conditions: With an area of approximately 150,000 square miles and a population approaching 30,000,000, Poland ranks as the sixth nation of Europe as regards both territory and population.

Poland possesses immense natural resources, especially timber, coal and oil, and it is the second largest producer of zinc ore in the world. The iron and steel industry of Poland is highly developed and is located principally in the coal districts where it enjoys favorable operating conditions. The country is served by about 12,000 miles of railway line owned entirely by the Government and operated at a profit.

Budgetary equilibrium has already been attained, with a substantial excess of receipts over disbursements. During the fiscal year ended March 31, 1927 there was a budget surplus of about $17,500,000 (about Zl. 156,000,000). The first five months of the current fiscal year show a budget surplus of about $14,500,000 (about Zl. 130,000,000).

The debt of Poland both external and internal is small, the external debt, including this Loan, amounting to the equivalent of about $15 per capita and the internal debt to the equivalent of less than $2 per capita. The external debt, including this Loan, aggregates the equivalent of about $438,700,000, whereof the principal item is advances from the American, French, British, Italian and other Treasuries during the war and Armistice periods aggregating the equivalent of about $253,500,000. The non-political external debt of Poland consists of the equivalent of about $148,600,000, including this Stabilization Loan.

The Polish Government has concluded favorable arrangements with the American, British, Italian, Dutch, Norwegian, Swedish, Danish and Swiss Governments for the refunding of their respective Treasury advances and payments under such agreements are being regularly made.

Monetary Policy: The Zloty has been given a gold value of $0.1122 per Zloty pursuant to the decree of October 13, 1927, corresponding to the exchange rates which have prevailed without substantial variation for over a year. Zloty paper currency will be issued only by the Bank of Poland and in accordance with new reserve requirements providing for a minimum reserve, in gold or gold exchange, against both note and deposit liabilities, of 40%; at least 30% being in actual gold. Substantially the entire foreign exchange resulting from the present Loan will be put at the disposal of the Bank of Poland with the result that its reserve ratio will then become one of the highest of any Bank of Issue in the world.

Budgetary Policy: The budgetary equilibrium already attained will be established on a firm basis. A total of 300 million Zloty of additional revenue is to be provided for the 1927-28 Budget, and a substantial surplus for the year 1928-29.

American Adviser: An American citizen will be named as Adviser to the Government and the Bank of Poland with powers and authority designed to promote the success of the Plan. He will be elected to the Board of the Bank of Poland.

Proceeds of the Loan: The Zloty equivalent of the proceeds of the Loan will be credited to the Government by the Bank of Poland, the credit being available only for the purposes of the Plan, and only with the authorization or counter signature of the American Adviser. About 75% of the proceeds of the Loan will, directly or indirectly, be applied to stabilization purposes, thus securing a better basis for the present currency without increasing the amount of currency in circulation; the remaining 25% being available, in further aid of stabilization, to provide credit facilities to State enterprises and agricultural institutions, in accordance with a program to be worked out between the Government, the Bank of Poland and the American Adviser. These credits will be independently administered on behalf of the Government by the Bank of Poland.

Credits: Credits to the Bank of Poland have been arranged by the following Central and Reserve Banks:

Oesterreichische Nationalbank	Austria
Banque Nationale de Belgique	Belgium
Narodni Banka Ceskoslovenska	Czechoslovakia
Nationalbanken	Denmark
Bank of England	England
Finlands Bank	Finland
Banque de France	France
Reichsbank	Germany
Magyar Nemzeti Bank	Hungary
Banca d'Italia	Italy
Nederlandsche Bank	Netherlands
Sveriges Riksbank	Sweden
Banque Nationale Suisse	Switzerland
Federal Reserve Banks	United States

Security of the Loan: The Bonds constitute the direct obligations of the Republic which pledges its full faith and credit for due and prompt payment of principal, premium, interest and Sinking Fund. As specific security the Government will assign its gross customs revenues which will be paid into a special account of the Fiscal Agents of the Loan with the Bank of Poland. The Government is entitled to draw thereon, in each month, only after a sum equal to 1/6 of the current semi-annual service charge including Sinking Fund has first been transferred to the Fiscal Agents.

The Customs revenues for the past three fiscal years ending March 31, 1927 have averaged in excess of the equivalent of $40,000,000 per annum, being over 5 times maximum annual service requirements of the Loan. During the first five months of the fiscal year 1927-1928 customs receipts amounted to the equivalent of about $14,500,000, being over 170% of budget estimates.

Application is to be made by the Republic of Poland to list the dollar Bonds on the New York Stock Exchange.

Price 92 and accrued interest to yield over 7.86%

Over Three-Quarters of a Century of Service to Investors

No, Banks Are Not All Alike

SO FAR as names can describe them all banks give the same services. So do all artists paint pictures but the pictures are not all alike. Neither are the services of banks. They differ with the manner of doing and with the personalities of the bank officers.

Chicago Trust Company offers all kinds of bank and trust services but just now we wish to place emphasis on our Commercial Banking facilities—old-fashioned deposit and discount, receiving funds, collecting checks and drafts, and making loans. To transact commercial banking business satisfactorily the banker must have a wealth of information as to business and its trend, credit and its supply and the general situation and feeling. This information must be sifted and given application to each particular case.

If you would like to do business with men who will have an interest in your progress and profits, you are cordially invited to become acquainted with our officers. That is the first step.

A COMFORTABLE PLACE TO DO BUSINESS

BY AL CHASE.

Kurt Rosenthal, of Rosenthal, Mayer & Lewis, has bought the southwest corner of Winthrop avenue and Ainslie street, 80x147, from Adolph Coren, improved with a twenty-eight apartment building. The price was not disclosed. If conditions warrant it, Mr. Rosenthal says he will erect an eight story moderate priced hotel from plans by Olsen & Urbain at a cost of approximately $750,000.

The United Hardware company has bought the three story brick building at 527-29 Milwaukee avenue, with forty feet frontage, extending through West Ohio for a depth of 100 feet. Epstein & Feiwell and Schimberg & Harrison were attorneys.

Evanston Garage Sold.

The Yellow Cab garage at the northeast corner of Chicago avenue and Keeney street, Evanston, has been purchased by William L. Taylor, president of the Evanston Golf club, from Orlando Noble, William F. Thumm, and Charles M. Thumm for investment. The one story building, 149x170, built in 1921, is under a twenty year lease to the Yellow Cab company at a reported $11,000 a year rental. Prussing & Co. and Harry W. Hopp & Co. were brokers.

The California Building corporation has traded its three story structure at 2503 North California avenue, containing eighteen flats and six shops, for fifty feet of vacant on the east side of Cottage Grove, 300 feet north of 79th, belonging to Fannie Reichman. Harry H. Levy and Gallagher, Shulman, Abrams & Henry were attorneys.

Buys Lawrence-Avers Corner.

Morton J. Hymen has bought the northwest corner of Lawrence and Avers avenues, 134x135, improved with seven stores, flats, offices and garages, from Morris Goodman for a reported $175,000. Hymen & Stenhouse were brokers.

The twenty-six flats at the northwest corner of 19th and Komensky were sold by Joseph Handelsman and David Pinchevsky to Toby Rubin for an undisclosed price, subject to $100,000, the sellers taking in part trade the theater, store and apartment building at 2648-54 Lincoln avenue. Irving H. Flamm of Tarnopol & Flamm and Benjamin E. Cohn were attorneys.

$40,000,000 GAS PROPERTIES IN OKLAHOMA SOLD

New York, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Acquisition of virtually all the capital stock of the Oklahoma Natural Gas corporation by a new company to be known as the American Natural Gas corporation was announced here tonight. The transaction combines properties in the Oklahoma gas area comprising leaseholds on more than 200,000 acres and total values estimated at $40,000,000.

Purchase of control of other natural gas properties is contemplated, including approximately 100,000 acres owned by the Phillips Petroleum company in Texas. The entire holdings of the Phillips company in the Oklahoma Natural Gas corporation have been taken over by the new concern. Frank Phillips, president, said the transaction was for cash at a fair profit.

Through an arrangement with the new owners, Phillips Petroleum's program for construction of a pipe line to the panhandle district, with the preferential right to supply the gas for their system as it may be expanded, will be carried out.

WALL STREET NOTES

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Quotations on stocks on the curb market today fluctuated in an undecided manner. Artificial Silk issues were susceptible to selling pressure. Celanese common dropped more than 11 points, falling below 100 for the first time in several weeks, while the first preferred had an extreme loss of more than 6. Tubize Silk, 302, was 8 points under Saturday's close, but nearly half the loss was made up later. Industrial Rayon displayed independent strength, selling up to 11¼, a new 1927 peak.

Borden company common and preferred both reached new highs and Midland Steel common again reflected the strength of the preferred shares on the stock exchange, gaining more than 2 points to 75⅛. Chesbro Manufacturing, Mengel company, Swan-Finch company, and Parke Davis [when issued] were among the outstanding strong specialties.

The bond market was irregular. Polish bonds, particularly the 8s, were unusually active in anticipation of credit developments, selling as high as 101⅛, a new peak. Late offerings, however, depressed the price fractionally below Saturday's closing quotation. Aside from some buying among the French issues, dullness and irregularity characterized the foreign group.

Imperial Oil and Vacuum followed a softening trend, but a few other petroleum issues, including Penn Mex Fuel and Transcontinental, were given first class support.

FINANCIAL NOTES

Today's new bond offerings will include $8,646,000 Southern California Gas company gold 5s, priced at 90 and interest. The proceeds are to be used in connection with the recently announced merger of several utility properties on the Pacific coast. Offering is also to be made of $1,000,000 of the East Coast Utilities company's first mortgage collateral 5.50 per cent gold bonds, series "A," at 97 and interest to yield over 5.90 per cent.

Shareholders of the International Shoe company will meet Oct. 26 to act on a proposal by directors to split up the common stock at a ratio of four for one. They will also vote on the proposition to increase the authorized common stock from 1,400,000 to 4,000,000 shares.

The B. F. Goodrich company announced the appointment of T. B. Tompkinson as comptroller of the company. S. B. Robertson has been appointed to vice president and general manager of the subsidiary Pacific Goodrich Rubber company and J. W. Jordan has been appointed vice president and general manager of the Canadian Goodrich company, Ltd.

Southern California Gas company will acquire the properties of the Midway Gas company, Central Counties Gas company, River Bend Gas and Water company and the Hanford Gas and Power company, all of California. The estimated value of the properties to be acquired is about $16,000,000 and the value of the combined properties approximately $60,000,000.

Sales of the Sweets Company of America for the five months ended Sept. 30 were $669,196, compared with $611,333 in the same period of 1926, an increase of almost 10 per cent.

Net income of the Stanley Company of America for the first nine months of 1927 approximated $3,700,000.

NEW ISSUE

$1,000,000

East Coast Utilities Company

First Mortgage Collateral 5.50 Per Cent Gold Bonds
(Series "A")

Dated August 1st, 1927 Due August 1st, 1937

Coupon bonds in denominations of $1,000 and $500. Registerable as to principal only. Interest payable semi-annually (February 1st and August 1st) at the office of the Trustee or, at the option of the holder, at the principal office of Guaranty Trust Company of New York, in the City of New York. Interest payable without deduction for any Federal Income Tax not in excess of two per cent. Central Trust Company of Illinois, Trustee.

The following has been summarized from his letter to P. W. Chapman & Co., Inc., by Mr. W. F. Stevens, President of the Corporation:

Business: The East Coast Utilities Company, incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware, owns, controls and operates, without competition, through its subsidiaries, electric light and power properties in various communities located in Virginia, Maryland and North Carolina. It also owns and operates ice plants, distributing at wholesale only, in the cities of Richmond, Colonial Beach, Chincoteague and Irvington, Virginia, and Pocomoke City and Deals Island, Maryland. In addition, the company owns the water system in Urbanna, Virginia, the telephone property operated in connection with its electric light properties in what is known as the Gloucester Peninsula of Virginia, and also owns and operates a cold storage warehouse located in the City of Richmond. The East Coast Utilities Company owns 100 per cent of the entire authorized and outstanding common stock of each of its present subsidiaries. The total population served, exclusive of the City of Richmond, is conservatively estimated at in excess of 70,000.

Over 70 per cent of the gross earnings of the Company is derived from the sale of electric light and power

Security: These bonds, in addition to being a direct and primary obligation of the East Coast Utilities Company of Delaware, will be secured by the deposit of first mortgages on the fixed properties of the subsidiaries on the basis of 125 per cent of subsidiary first mortgages for each $1,000 par value of First Mortgage Collateral Bonds issued.

The properties mortgaged have been appraised by Messrs. Hagenah & Ericksen, Engineers, as of September 15th, 1927, as having a depreciated sound value in excess of $2,350,000.

Earnings: Consolidated Earnings of the properties, as reported by Messrs. F. W. La Frentz & Company, Certified Public Accountants, for the twelve months ended July 31st, 1927, were as follows:

Gross Earnings	$284,002.77
Operating Expenses, including Maintenance and Taxes (not including Federal Income Tax)	166,148.29
Balance	$117,854.48
Annual Interest Requirements on $1,000,000 First Mortgage Collateral 5.50 Per Cent Gold Bonds, Series "A" (this issue)	$ 55,000.00

Net earnings, as above stated, for the year ended July 31st, 1927, were over two times the maximum annual interest charges.

Management: The active management of the company and its constituent properties will remain in the hands of the present operators, who have a long and successful record in the operation of public utility properties.

These bonds are offered when, as and if issued and received by us, subject to the approval of counsel. Legal details in connection with these bonds have been passed upon by Messrs. Chapman and Cutler for the Bankers, and Messrs. Cutting, Moore & Sidley of Chicago and Mr. Frank P. Pulley, Jr., of Waverly, Virginia, for the Company.

How to Select a Real Estate Bond

AMPLE security and assured earning power constitute the basic qualities of safety in any good investment.

With the assurance of an ample margin of these factors, no investor has cause for worry regarding the protection of his funds.

First Mortgage Real Estate Bonds secured by new, modern buildings, in choice locations, afford an ideal type of investment in which to obtain these qualities of safety.

The selection of such issues can be made best by those whose experience warrants this responsibility.

An old responsible organization, which has always specialized in this particular field and which has a long successful record to back its judgment in the selection of issues for investors, assures you of the protection which you should rightfully receive.

Our booklet, "Rules for Safe Investment," will give you information regarding the protection afforded our customers and will be sent upon request. Ask for booklet C. T. 560

NEW INDUSTRIAL ERA BRINGS NEW FINANCING ALSO

BY HARPER LEECH.

I have spent the greater part of the working hours of the last two weeks at the lower end of Manhattan island, where the economic efforts of our "pecuniary civilization" are reduced to money and credit values on a scale, and with an exactitude, nowhere else approached.

As has always been the case, recent industrial and commercial changes are producing corresponding alterations in the structure and processes of finance—in the raising of capital and the trading in credit.

It takes no profound student to see that the unique stock market of recent months and the enormous volume of new capital and refunding issues are in part, at least, a consequence of the industrial revolution caused by the increased employment of power driven machinery, the replacement of muscle and skill by automatic devices, mass production and the increased diffusion of buying and investing power, resulting from greater productivity.

But it is an involved subject. The millions of new investors whose money is so largely responsible for the changed conditions in Wall street desire brevity and clarity, but the pursuit of those ideals involves the peril of superficiality. Routine financial news and the conventional terminology may not be so thrilling, but they're safe. It is also a fact that there are as many kinds of opinion and points of view in Wall street as anywhere else.

There is a fallacy in the contrast of industry and finance—they are two sides of the same thing—yet it is a fact that industrial statistics are usually more enlightening than financial figures. It is also true that financial and industrial leaders talk most guardedly, if at all, about subjects where their utterances are calculated to have an immediate market effect.

Nevertheless they are inclined to discuss matters frankly, where personal and corporate identities are protected.

It is hoped to present here from time to time in the next few weeks some of the salient facts and opinions relating to the new set up in finance.

Originally the corporation was primarily a capital raising rather than an industrial management device. The most important phase of the new Wall street is the new set of conditions surrounding the raising of capital, rather than the trading in finished credit goods upon the stock exchange. It is quite conceivable that the market may go much further up or considerably further down within the next two or three years, without any very fundamental change in investing activities.

The stock market appears to be a symptom of the new conditions under which so much money is seeking investment and thereby altering the relations of finance to industrial management and changing our methods of doing business generally.

FARM AND GARDEN

BY FRANK RIDGWAY

Spinach, the vegetable that crowded old fashioned mustard plants into the background and has for many years stood at the head of the greens family, now has a serious rival. In Minnesota cooks discovered recently that young tender sprouts of alfalfa make good greens.

Farmers have known for years that alfalfa was among the best pasture and hay crops grown in this country. Live stock relishes and thrives on alfalfa but who had ever thought of it as a human food?

Among the odd questions that come to agricultural colleges, the University of Minnesota cookery experts were asked recently if alfalfa would make good greens and if so how should the plants be cooked. Home economic experts got busy and tried it out. They experimented with alfalfa plants of different ages, beginning with the tender sprouts and cooking plants in various stages of maturity.

The alfalfa sprouts were cooked in the same way spinach is cooked, and it was found that the tender sprouts made a delicious green for the table. The stems of the older plants were rather woody, but the leaves were used to good advantage.

Alfalfa is now commonly grown in various parts of the United States. Tender sprouts for greens would be easily obtained in large quantities by commercial truckers. Intensive methods of production, which are required in the growing of spinach, would not be needed to produce alfalfa sprouts. The cost of marketing should be low.

All the bonds of Southern California Gas Company thus far issued have been certified as legal investments for California Savings Banks and application has been made to have these bonds so certified.

Issue approved by the Railroad Commission of California

A letter from A. B. Macbeth, Executive Vice-President of the Company, is summarized by him as follows:

BUSINESS: Southern California Gas Company, organized in 1910 under the laws of the State of California, will acquire in connection with the present financing the properties of Midway Gas Company (including Valley Natural Gas Company), Central Counties Gas Company, River Bend Gas and Water Company and Hanford Gas and Power Company. The combining companies supply manufactured and natural gas direct to domestic consumers, industrial organizations and public utility companies, and serve directly more than 90 cities, towns and communities including the cities of Los Angeles (in part), Burbank, Beverly Hills, Compton, San Bernardino, Redlands, Riverside and Glendale. The combining companies serve all of their territory without competition, except a portion of the city of Los Angeles. The estimated total population of all the cities, towns and communities in which the combining companies operate is about 2,290,000. There are more than 199,000 consumer meters installed.

PROPERTIES: The system consists of five oil gas manufacturing plants having a combined capacity of 34,360,000 cubic feet daily. It has eleven gas holder stations with a combined storage capacity of 27,930,000 cubic feet, and 3,333 miles of transmission and distribution mains.

Natural gas distributed by the combining companies is obtained from independent producers operating in fourteen fields in three widely separated sections in Southern California for which purpose the combining companies own and operate an additional 453 miles of transmission mains, 95 miles of field collecting lines, 12 compressor stations and other properties.

CAPITALIZATION: Upon completion of present financing, the capitalization of the Company will be as follows:

		Outstanding in hands of public
First Mortgage and Refunding 5s due 1957 (this issue)		$ 8,646,000
Underlying bonds†		14,334,000
Preferred stock 6% Cumulative—Par $25		4,336,850*
Common Stock—320,000 shares at $25 par value	$8,000,000
Paid in premium on common stock	8,000,000	16,000,000

†Additional bonds may not be issued under underlying mortgages except for the purpose of pledge under one of such mortgages or under the mortgage indenture securing the present issue.
* Includes (as of Oct. 1, 1927) $417,535 subscribed by customers and employees on partial payment plan.

SECURITY: The First Mortgage and Refunding Gold Bonds now offered will be secured in the opinion of counsel upon completion of this financing by a direct first mortgage lien on the properties being acquired from Midway Gas Company, Central Counties Gas Company, River Bend Gas and Water Company, and Hanford Gas and Power Company, and by a direct mortgage on the remainder of the fixed properties of Southern California Gas Company subject only to the liens of the mortgage indentures securing the underlying bonds above mentioned. An additional $6,747,000 principal amount of underlying bonds are being issued and will be pledged as further security under the mortgage indenture securing the present issue. Refunding of underlying bonds is provided for by the mortgage indenture securing the present issue. The mortgage indenture will permit the issuance of additional bonds in series on the basis of 75% of the net amount of additional property and for refunding purposes.

In a report made by Stone & Webster, Inc., it is estimated that the cost to reproduce the combined properties new less depreciation, which method of determining value follows recent decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States, is approximately $60,000,000, of which about $16,000,000 represents the properties being acquired and subjected to the direct First Mortgage lien securing the bonds now offered.

EARNINGS: The income of the combining companies has been as follows:

	12 Months Ended June 30, 1927	1926	1925
Operating Revenues	$15,636,061	$14,597,850	$15,117,531
Operating Expenses and all Taxes (excluding Federal income taxes)	9,809,674	9,928,958	10,361,490
Net from Operations	$ 5,826,387	$ 4,668,892	$ 4,756,041
Other Income	63,172	77,753	98,273
Balance Available for Bond Interest, Depreciation, Federal income taxes, etc.	$ 5,889,559	$ 4,746,645	$ 4,854,314

Upon completion of present financing, the annual bond interest of the Company will be $1,274,540. This balance available in each of the past two calendar years was more than 3.7 times such bond interest and in the twelve months ended June 30, 1927, was 4.6 times such interest.

We offer these bonds if, as and when issued and received by us subject to approval of our counsel and to prior sale. It is expected that delivery will be made in the form of temporary bonds or interim receipts.

Price 99 and accrued interest

The legal proceedings relating to the issue of these bonds and the form of the mortgage indenture are being passed upon by Messrs. Rushmore, Bisbee & Stern, New York, who have associated with themselves as California counsel Messrs. Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher, Los Angeles, for the Bankers; and by Messrs. O'Melveny, Millikin & Tuller, Los Angeles, for the Company.

We do not guarantee the statements and figures presented herein, but they are taken from sources which we believe to be reliable.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Oct. 17.—[Special.]—Directed mainly against the industrial issues, which have been the favorite trading vehicles for some time, a rather urgent selling movement swept the main body of stocks on the exchange to lower price levels today.

Large offerings of United States Steel, General Motors, Hudson Motors, General Electric and other leaders were thrown on the market and substantial declines took place in stocks of this class. There was little agreement as to the reason for the heavy selling. In some quarters the opinion was expressed that the trading element was looking for a propitious moment to liquidate large holdings.

Money Turns Easier.

An easier tone in money failed to stem the tide much to the disappointment of those committed to the rise. Saturday's clearing house statement showed a gain in reserves of $87,772,580, converting the previous week's deficit into a surplus of $77,347,000 in excess of legal requirements. This improved position was reflected in a drop in call money to 4 per cent after renewals had been arranged at 4½ per cent.

General Motors' acute weakness was ascribed to a bearish analysis of the automotive situation by one of the best known statistical services. It fell back to 135 for a net loss of 3⅝ points. United States Steel was weak, apparently in sympathy with General Motors. It sagged to 143½ and closed at 143⅝, off 3¼ points.

American Sugar Off.

These two stocks did not by any means hold a monopoly on the selling. American Sugar fell from a high of 85½ to a low of 80¾ at the close, showing a loss of 4⅝. Allied Chemical dipped from 155⅝ to 152, off 3½ points on the day. General Electric fell from 135 to 131, then recovered fractionally, showing a net decline of 3⅝.

Atchison broke from 190⅞ to 188¾ and showed a loss of 1⅝ after a closing rally. New York Central showed a net loss of 2⅝, closing within a fraction of the bottom. Houston Oil dipped from 170⅞ to 166, off 3⅝ points at the close.

U. S. Concern Acquires Three Canadian Plants

TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 17.—[Special.]—Another outstanding example of American penetration in Canadian industry is the merger announced today of three greatest Canadian sheet metal concerns to pass under the control of Enamelware Association of America. The merged companies are McClary Manufacturing company, London; Davis Manufacturing company, Montreal, and Sheet Metal Products, Toronto. All three are historic Canadian companies.

50 MILLION DEALS IN UTILITIES MADE KNOWN BY INSULL

BY O. A. MATHER.

Samuel Insull is planning to extend still further the great chain of public utility enterprises under his control. Two deals made known yesterday will involve a total outlay of around $50,000,000.

Of most interest is the plan of the Peoples Gas Light and Coke company, which supplies Chicago with gas, to take over the Chicago By-Products Coke company. Back in 1920, Mr. Insull was drafted to take charge of the Peoples Gas company. It was almost bankrupt, its plants were antiquated and it was without credit to build new plants and extensions. Its stock was selling below $30 a share in the market and paid no dividends.

Enlists Mellon Interests.

In this desperate situation, Mr. Insull enlisted the financial aid of the Mellon interests. He arranged for the Koppers Gas and Coke company, a Mellon concern in Pittsburgh, to form the Chicago By-Products company to build new gas plants for Chicago. The company was capitalized with $13,000,000 of 5 per cent first mortgage bonds and 87,187 shares of no par stock, valued at $4,500,000.

Mr. Insull agreed that the Peoples Gas company would buy the output of the new company and new plants were built costing around $20,000,000 and producing around 30,000,000 cubic feet of gas a day. The new company's bond issue also was guaranteed by the Peoples Gas company, although that did not mean much at the time.

The Koppers company gave the Peoples Gas company an option to purchase the Chicago By-Products company, and it is this option that now is about to be exercised.

New Stock, Bonds Likely.

It is understood the deal will be financed by issuing additional stock and bonds. The new stock will be offered to stockholders at par, which will give valuable rights to stockholders, as the present market price is around $156 a share. The stock pays 8 per cent annually.

In the second deal, Insull, Son & Co., Inc., announced the purchase of a substantial common stock interest in the Commonwealth Light and Power company, which controls the Inland Power and Light corporation. In New York, it was said, the Insulls had bought the Inland company for $30,000,000, including funded debt, from A. E. Fitkin. It has properties in Michigan, Kansas, Arkansas and Missouri serving 320 communities.

School Teacher Builds Fortune of $30,000,000

New York, Oct. 17.—(AP)—A former clergyman and school teacher who in 15 years built up a fortune of $30,000,000 today announced his retirement from the field of public utility operation to devote his time to trading on the New York stock exchange.

With the sale today of his Inland Power and Light corporation to Samuel Insull & Sons, Inc., of Chicago, A. E. Fitkin announced withdrawal from his final utility property. He had built up a chain of public service companies scattered through Florida, Arkansas, Illinois, and other states but had within the last year largely dispersed these holdings. Fitkin recently paid $240,000, then a record price, for a seat on the New York stock exchange.

Ford Competition Seen as Menace to Gen. Motors

New York, Oct. 17.—[Special.]—The declining in the common stock of the General Motors corporation on the New York stock exchange today followed circulation by a Wall street statistical service of an analysis describing the possible effect on the general automotive industry of the Ford Motor company's plans for the introduction of its new model car. The paragraph which brokerage houses said accounted for a good part of the selling follows: "He [Ford] could, if he wished, clip more than $100,000,000 from the current market value of the stock owned by General Motors corporation's stockholders by forcing competition on an unequal basis."

Central Bank of German State and Provincial Banks.

R. R. M.—Central Bank of German State and Provincial Banks, Inc., was organized in 1923 by various state, provincial and other banks owned and controlled by public bodies.

One of its purposes is to simplify the raising of money for its members by issuing its own bonds and loaning the proceeds to them.

It is issuing $10,000,000 mortgage secured 6 per cent bonds, series B, due 1951 and payable, interest and principal, in United States gold coin.

These bonds are a direct obligation of the bank.

They are secured by pledge of mortgages secured on commercial and industrial property in Germany at not in excess of 30 per cent of the fair selling value of the property.

They are, furthermore, guaranteed, principal, interest and sinking fund, by the twelve state, provincial and other banks which participate in the loan.

The states, provinces, districts and municipalities which own these banks have authority to raise taxes within their respective areas, if necessary, for the purpose of meeting their obligations.

The population of the districts thus responsible for payment of these bonds exceeds 24,000,000, or about 38 per cent of the population of Germany.

AUBURN AUTOMOBILE LOSES 2½ AS CHICAGO STOCKS SELL LOWER

Chicago stocks were weak yesterday with about three exceptions. Auburn Automobile sold off 2½ to 110½ and Sears-Roebuck lost 2 points to 74⅝. Montgomery Ward declined 1⅞ to 80½ and Stewart Warner closed a point lower to 70½. Swift International eased a minor fraction.

Wrigley started strong but with a decline affecting most of the list together with the understanding that the new stock is to be issued share for share for stock in the present corporation, the issue closed unchanged at 64½. Gains of a point to 1½ were registered by Marvel, Bendix, and Butler Bros.

On small sales, Great Lakes Dredge was down 5 points, Hibbard, Spencer & Bartlett declined 3 points and Midland Steel Products was off a point. Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee preferred gained 2½ and Omnibus was up 1⅛.

Territorial Supremacy for a century and a quarter

In 1803 the great funnel-shaped Mississippi Valley was bought from France at a cost of $15,000,000.

Assets almost seven times greater than the original purchase price of the great Mississippi Valley are behind this institution—plus the cumulative experience of ninety-six years in active banking. One of the reasons for THE CANAL BANK'S growth and supremacy in the South is that it is a fully equipped bank of national and world-wide contacts.

For every banking need you will be served competently and completely.

Capital and Surplus Over $8,000,000.00

"Through Ninety-five Years," an interesting booklet on the South's industrial development, will gladly be mailed executives on request.

SHORT COVERING ADVANCES CORN; WHEAT DECLINES

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

An increase of 4,545,000 bu in the domestic visible supply with selling of wheat against purchases of corn to close spreads resulted in a lower range of values for the former grain, with the finish at net losses of ⅞@1⅛c, December, 86⅜ to 86⅝c, and March 90 March, $1.32⅞ to 1.33 at the last.

Corn, after touching 84⅞c for December early, rallied 1⅞@2c on aggressive short covering and commision house buying and closed ⅝@1c higher with December, 86Z to 86⅝c, and March, 90 to 90½c. Oats were ⅛@⅝c higher, and rye ⅝c higher to ⅛c lower.

Firmness in Liverpool led to a little buying of wheat here at the opening, but the upturn was short lived as houses with northwestern connections took the selling side and with pressure from professionals, who were selling wheat against purchases of corn, filled up buyers. Prices declined 1⅜@1⅝c from the early top and the finish was within a fraction of the bottom.

Commission houses were good buyers of corn futures on an early break and absorbed the surplus in the pit. When shorts started to cover they found offerings light and the finish was about the top. December at the low point showed 35⅝c under the high of last August, which many operators regarded as sufficient for the time being, and sentiment as a whole was less bearish than for a number of weeks. Weather conditions over the belt were generally favorable, and in the last week or so there has been considerable corn cut.

Oats were unsettled, but averaged higher in sympathy with corn. Visible supply decreased 947,000 bu. and is 24,-927,000 bu, or about half of the total at this time last year. Scattered buying was in evidence in rye.

WORLD'S·GRAIN MARKET·NEWS

Wheat traders were mostly bearish at the close, and predicted that the market was ready for a break. Winnipeg cash interests were credited with selling wheat futures in Chicago, and local operators, who were long wheat and short corn, sold out their wheat and bought in their corn, which was a factor in the day's trading. The disposition on the part of traders is to sell wheat on every bulge on the belief that the movement in the United States and Canada will be too heavy for the maintenance of prices.

Corn is said to be acting in a natural way. The 35c break from the recent high has scared out all the tired longs, and created a good sized short interest. The latter was active in covering yesterday, and a good deal of new buying came into the market on the theory that there had been break enough and there was little prospect of getting more than a few cents profit on the short side.

Weakness in October wheat in Winnipeg yesterday with 2,404 cars received against 2,684 cars a week ago, and 2,053 cars a year ago, with favorable weather conditions for threshing and marketing brought the No. 3 northern to a delivery basis, 8c under No. 2. No. 4 northern was 20c under.

LARD TRADE LIGHT

A limited interest was taken in the lard trade, with fair pressure at times, followed by good support. Prices moved within a narrow range and closed at 2½c decline in November and 5c advance in January and May. Liverpool was unchanged for spot and 6d higher for futures.

Short ribs closed 12½c lower for October and 15c higher for November. Bellies were 2½c higher for October, the only delivery traded in. Cash trade was fair in lard and meats. Exports of lard from the seaboard last week were 10,933,000 lbs and Bacon 4,661,000 lbs, compared with 8,885,000 lbs lard and 12,490,000 lbs bacon last year. Prices follow:

What bonds should you buy?

We see almost daily the hardship and worry which result from buying the wrong types of good bonds. Business men, with opportunities lost because they cannot readily raise money on their bonds. Widows, with inadequate safety because they hold "business men's bonds." Estates swallowed up by inheritance taxes because of wrong investments.

Your choice of good bonds should depend on two things:

1. YOURSELF

How old are you? What is the source and size of your income and your annual surplus for investment? Are you married? How many dependents? What are your tax and other liabilities? Do you own your home? Do you travel? Where is your legal residence? What are your prospects and plans? Have you made your will? Created a trust fund?

Why are you saving? To buy something? To assure a comfortable income in old age? To provide for your family? To protect a business? To meet some contingency?

Personal questions—yes. But, before suggesting the bonds you ought to buy, the investment specialist, no less than the medical specialist, must have facts for diagnosis.

2. YOUR PRESENT INVESTMENTS

It is quite possible that some of your present holdings are not the best for you.

All the securities you now own should fit into a personal investment program, based not only upon the fluctuations of industry and a constant income average but also upon your own plans and contingencies and other personal factors.

Your present holdings are a personal matter, too. But the sincere investment specialist cannot intelligently advise you on new purchases unless he knows what you already own.

Our Offer

We offer you the help of our investment department in selecting the right bonds from the best bonds the financial world affords.

Our offer is easy to accept. It entails no obligation.

Simply send for an Equitable Investment Memorandum. Turn to your page. Put down the facts it calls for and return it to us. The information will be held entirely confidential and, with it as a basis, we will prepare a personal investment program designed to meet your specific needs and plans.

Both principal and interest on the bonds will be payable in gold at New Orleans, Louisiana, or at New York City, N. Y., or at Chicago, Illinois, at the option of the holder. Said bonds will be coupon bonds, registerable as to principal only.

Said bonds will be sold to the bidder offering to accept said bonds bearing the lowest rate of interest in a multiple of one-quarter of one percent, not exceeding five per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, and to pay therefor, not less than par and accrued interest to date of delivery. In the event two or more bidders offer to accept said bonds at the same lowest rate of interest, then said bonds will be sold to the one of these bidders offering to pay the highest premium. A tax at the rate of one and three quarter mills on the dollar on the assessed valuation of all property within the City of New Orleans has been levied for the fiscal years 1927-1928 to 1967-1968, inclusive, to provide for the payment of the principal and interest of said bonds.

Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check upon an incorporated bank or trust company, made payable to the Orleans Parish School Board of Orleans Parish, Louisiana, in the amount of two per cent of the par value of the bonds bid for which check is to be held by the School Board as evidence of the good faith of the purchaser of said bonds.

All bids must be unconditional and no bid of less than par and accrued interest will be considered. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids. Bonds will be printed by the Orleans Parish School Board at its own expense. Delivery of said bonds will be made to the successful bidder on or about December 1, 1927, and the School Board will furnish the successful bidder, free of charge, with the opinion of Messrs. Thomson, Wood and Hoffman, of New York City, approving the validity of said bonds.

Public Utilities Consolidated Corporation
(ARIZONA)
An Operating and Holding Company
7% Cumulative Preferred Shares
Free From Present Normal Federal Income Tax

Dividends Paid Monthly — Fully Paid and Non-Assessable

Preferred Shares $100 Par Value. Callable at 105

Preferred Shares have a preference over all other shares both as to assets and earnings. In the event of any voluntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of this Corporation's affairs, the Preferred Stock shall be entitled to $105 per share and in the case of involuntary liquidation to a preference of $100 per share. In case of liquidation, whether voluntary or involuntary, all cumulative dividends are preferred and all these preferences accrue before any distribution shall be made to the holders of shares of any other class of stock. If at any time any portion of the dividends on the Preferred Stock shall be in arrears for a period of twelve months, Preferred Stockholders shall then be entitled to vote share and share alike with the holders of the Common Stock, and in the case of election of directors under such conditions, the Preferred Stockholders, either alone or together with the Class A Common Stockholders, in case they shall at that time be entitled to vote, shall collectively and independent from the vote of the Class B Common Stock, be entitled to elect a majority of the Board of Directors of the Corporation. These voting rights of the Preferred Stockholders shall cease when all arrears in dividends on all of the Preferred Shares shall have been paid. This stock is callable in whole or in part at the option of the Corporation upon any dividend date upon thirty days' written notice to the record holders thereof at $105 per share plus all accrued dividends. The Corporation agrees to refund Vermont, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Minnesota, Kansas and California taxes not to exceed 4 mills, Maryland taxes not to exceed 4½ mills, Kentucky and District of Columbia taxes not to exceed 5 mills, Michigan exemption tax not to exceed 5 mills, and Massachusetts income tax not to exceed 6% to resident holders upon timely and proper application.

Transfer Agent: Peoples Trust and Savings Bank, Minneapolis, Minn.
Registrar: First Minneapolis Trust Company, Minneapolis, Minn.

BUSINESS

The Public Utilities Consolidated Corporation (Arizona), recently organized, is acquiring public utility properties to be owned and operated by it in the states of Arizona, Idaho and Montana, and is acquiring the entire equity holdings in the Public Utilities Consolidated Corporation (Delaware) which owns or will acquire operating subsidiaries in the states of Vermont, Kansas, Arizona, California and Idaho and serving retail in Mexico and wholesale in Canada. These combined owned and subsidiaries' constituent properties serve electricity, gas, water and ice to a population of approximately 78,800. Customers served are over 14,000 in number, of which 8,900 are electric.

PROPERTIES

The Corporation will own water properties serving Claypool, Lower Miami, Arizona, and Wallace and Burke, Idaho, electric properties serving Kingman, Oatman and Chloride, Arizona, and Wallace, Mullan and Burke, Idaho, and Polson, Ronan, and Pablo, Montana, and through its subsidiaries will control the properties selling electricity in seven communities in and about Richford, Vermont, and Abercorn, Canada; two communities in and about Goodland, Kansas, with electricity; Nogales, Arizona, and Nogales, Sonora, Mexico, with electricity, gas and ice; and water to Boulder Creek and Brookdale, California, and these last two communities and two others with electricity. This service is made from an installed capacity of over 12,300 horse power of electric equipment, of which nearly 8,000 horse power is hydro-electric. There are additional water power sites which when developed will add approximately 3,000 horse power of total generated capacity. There are electric transmission and distribution lines of approximately 400 miles, also some 38 miles of gas mains with plants of a daily capacity of over 900,000 cubic feet supplying over 2,480 customers, and water mains of approximately 40 miles serving over 2,675 customers and 70% of this service is through gravity systems, the balance of 30% being pumped.

VALUATION

The various properties that will be controlled by the Public Utilities Consolidated Corporation (Arizona), based on reports of competent engineers and public service commissions' findings, have been recently valued in excess of $5,300,000 after making necessary allowance for depreciation. There are outstanding underlying Bonds of the Delaware Corporation's subsidiary companies of $1,742,000 and $400,000 One Year Notes of the Delaware Corporation, and there will be outstanding upon completion of this financing $1,250,000 First Mortgage Bonds and $300,000 Three Year Notes of this Arizona Corporation. After taking into consideration the above senior financing, there is still a value available of over $200 per share for each share of 7% Cumulative Preferred Stock. The purchase of the properties at the prices paid therefor and the issuance of this Preferred Stock, and of all other securities of this Corporation, have been authorized by the ARIZONA CORPORATION COMMISSION.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE

The entire proceeds from the sale of these shares of Preferred Stock will be used in the acquisition of the properties now being acquired and in the acquisition of 200,000 shares of Class B, 4,500 shares of Class A and 3,250 shares of 7% Preferred Stock of the Public Utilities Consolidated Corporation of Delaware.

MANAGEMENT

The control and management of the Corporation are directed by the W. B. Foshay Company, which has an unbroken successful record in the operation, management and financing of properties of Public Utilities, and whose officers are men with more than a quarter of a century of experience in the public utility field.

EARNINGS

The consolidated net earnings on the basis of present operations will provide $120,612.61 available for Preferred Stock Dividends before Retirement Reserves and Federal Taxes. This is equal to 3.13 times dividend requirements of $38,500.

All legal proceedings have been approved by our attorneys, Messrs. Lancaster, Simpson, Junell & Dorsey, Minneapolis, Minn. Valuations are based either on appraisals or public service commissions' orders and in all instances independent engineers and commissions' appraisals have been supplemented by appraisals of our own Appraisal Department. All books and accounts have been audited by L. K. Ragian & Co., Public Accountants, Minneapolis, Minn., as well as by our own Auditing Department.

Price Par $100 Per Share

Additional Issue

35,000 Shares

The Pennsylvania-Ohio Power & Light Company

$6 Cumulative Preferred Stock

Issuance of this Preferred Stock has been authorized by the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio

Mr. H. A. Clarke, Vice-President of the Company, advises as follows

Business — The Company owns or leases properties supplying electricity for power and light to the district in and about Youngstown, Ohio, and to the Penn-Ohio Edison Company's system in Pennsylvania and Ohio. The Company also controls certain transportation properties.

The cities and towns in the greater part of this territory form practically one continuous community. This concentration of population, coupled with the intense industrial activity, forms a market which holds unusual possibilities for further expansion in the demand for electric power.

Purpose of Issue — The proceeds from the sale of this issue of Preferred Stock will reimburse the Company for expenditures for additions and improvements to its properties, and provide funds for other additions and improvements already contracted for.

Earnings — Earnings of The Pennsylvania-Ohio Power & Light Co. and Subsidiaries for the twelve months ended August 31, 1927, were over 2½ times the annual dividend requirements, as shown in the letter, on the total amount of Preferred Stock to be outstanding, including this issue. After depreciation and all prior charges earnings were over 2.1 times such annual dividend requirements. The percentage of gross earnings from electric light and power and miscellaneous business is more than 92%, while the proportion from electric railway operations is less than 8%, most of the latter being from interurban lines.

Restrictions — No Preferred Stock can be issued having priority with respect to dividends or upon liquidation or dissolution, over this issue. Additional Preferred Stock can be issued only when net earnings available for dividends on the Preferred Stock for twelve months have been at least two times the annual dividend requirements on the Preferred Stock outstanding, including that to be issued.

This Preferred Stock is offered when, as and if issued and received by us and subject to approval of proceedings by counsel at $99 per share and accrued dividend, to yield about 6.05%

The Portrait Invisible

BY JOSEPH GOLLOMB

SYNOPSIS.

Corcoran, owner of a New York gambling house, and two crooks, Slim and Butch, suspect a frequent visitor, known as The Goldfish. They accuse him of being a stool pigeon, because he is often in the courtroom of Judge Robert Craigin, who is severe with criminals. The Goldfish denies the charges, turns the tables by revealing he "has the goods" on them, and dismisses them with an ultimatum—they are to be always at his command.

On the following Monday Judge Craigin does not appear for the opening of a famous trial. His younger brother, Bruce, known as the prodigy judge, bitterly resents a detective's suggestion that there may be a woman in the case, even when it is hinted she may be avenging a husband or brother for a harsh sentence, since the elder Craigin has never tempered justice with mercy.

Francis Galt, whom Bruce knew in college as The Goldfish, a student of psycho-analysis, with a strange power over men and tricks of mind reading, begins work on the case. Police find the murdered body of Robert Craigin in a suburban cottage, the tenant of which is said to be a young woman named Kate Randall. The Goldfish announces he is going to live in the house in order to study the character of the suspected, missing woman, by observing her books and other details of her home. Bruce urges that the investigation be pushed, even though he has begun to fear it will involve his brother in scandal, and offers a reward of $20,000 for the arrest and conviction of the murderer.

INSTALLMENT XXI.

THE UNEXPECTED BLOW.

Slim was the first to speak. He spoke softly, slowly, with a reserve that enhanced the sincerity of what he said.

"Corky, I don't like that man!"

Corcoran stared immovably before him.

"I don't like him, I tell you!" Slim insisted. "I dislike him so much that I want to try something on him."

Corcoran seemed oblivious; but when Slim bent forward and opened his valise, Corcoran's eyes slanted towards him. In the varying gloom of the car Slim searched by means of touch.

He brought out something that trailed until Slim freed it of the bag. Corcoran caught a glimpse of it by the light of the next street lamp. It was little more than about a foot of strong awning rope, at each end of it a wooden handle like a package carrier.

Slim put down his valise and retaining the object began to draw it caressingly through his fingers. His voice as he began to speak again took on a feline purr.

"You know, Corky, we can't really go on this way, can we? He's already fed Butch to the wolves. Your turn and mine may come next. So we'd better beat him to it."

From Corcoran came no response.

"I know what you'll say; that we can't do anything to him without hurting ourselves," Slim softly pursued. "But can't we?"

He cupped his hands affectionately about the object he held.

"I agree with you, Corky, that the Goldfish is not afraid of a gun. Something's eating him badly. He hasn't the nerve to do a 'hari kari.' So pointing a gat at him won't bring us anything all right. But there are more ways than one of skinning a cat, aren't there? Now we want to know where Goldie keeps those nasty reports of his about us. We want to know where we can get them, don't we? And a gun won't make him talk. But maybe this will!"

The whole thing happened with the rapidity of a galvanic shock.

Corcoran glanced down at the simple object revealed; and his silence asked a question. Slim knew he was attentive now; and as he prepared to answer the breath came with soft sibilance through his parted lips as though he were forecasting some secret lust.

"When we get to Mr. Goldfish, Corky, I must manage to steal up behind him. Lend me Butch's blackjack now, old dear." Corcoran did not move; but Slim knew he was waiting to be convinced. "Goldie won't expect to get knocked over by me. It is you and Rocks there——" He nodded at the burly chauffeur. "It is you two he will be watching. O, don't worry, I won't break his skull. I'll just make him take a nap till you've tied up his hands and feet. Then——" He drew in his breath with a soft hiss. "Then I'll do a little tying myself—with this!"

He clutched the two wooden handles and slowly twisted them as though he were tightening his hold on something between them. His breath came a little faster now.

"You can understand, Corky, that a man may be willing to die, but he may not be able to stick it out very long if he is only being hurt. Badly hurt. I don't mean wounded, but squeezed; squeezed painfully—quite painfully . . . Now take this little contraption here for instance. There're one or two parts of the body I know, about which—if his hands and legs are tied—I can twist this bit of rope and then turn the handles. That would hurt, Corky! Hurt a lot. And while Goldie may not be afraid to be bumped off, he's only flesh and blood, after all, isn't he?"

He had had his say; and waited Corcoran's response.

"You'd better let me try it, Corky," he urged. "If only for your daughter's sake!"

A low growl came from deep down Corcoran's throat. He uttered no word thereby, but Slim understood it and in the dark his lip curled back with a silent snarl of resentment. Corcoran had said as plainly as with words, "Keep your filthy lips off that subject!"

The car was swishing along the Grand Concourse now; and still Slim waited for his answer.

Then he felt Corcoran move; and Butch's flexible leadheaded blackjack was thrust into Slim's hand. He slipped it into his outside coat pocket, and saw to it that the pocket flap did not interfere with easy access to it.

Into the other pocket he slipped the bit of rope with the handles.

For the rest of the slippery trip no word was exchanged until the car slowed down at the end of Wood road before the only glimmer of light visible. Corcoran then spoke to the driver.

"Come in and stand by. Slim will use the jack on him. But be careful with his skull!"

They descended from the machine and saw the Goldfish framed in the doorway with the light behind him. He stepped back to admit them but kept his eyes squarely on the tree.

The chauffeur glanced at Corcoran who scowled. Slim took off his hat, whipped the rain off and unbuttoned his mackintosh, careful, however, not to let his pockets bulge.

"Why, Goldie!" he protested ingratiatingly. "You wouldn't have a man wait out in that terrible storm, would you?"

The Goldfish, looking more gaunt than ever in his sodden clothing, did not repeat his order, but his look was enough. Corcoran, however, disregarded it.

"He stays!" he said.

The Goldfish smiled unpleasantly. "Then I'll give him a certain report to read to help him pass the time."

A muscle quivered in Corcoran's cheeks; he swallowed once or twice; then with a turn of his head he nodded to Rocks to leave. The man caught a glance from Slim and leaving the room trod heavily down the little flagged walk from the door to the car.

Immediately, however, he retraced his steps stealthily in the mud of the grass patch and squeezed up against the wall next to the door. Here he stood waiting, the rain pouring off him as from a watersprout, but able with a bound to be in the midst of things.

Slim and Corcoran had plainly been there before. But Slim began to edge off about the room as though he were still admirous of its pictures. His course would eventually bring him behind the Goldfish.

Corcoran's great chest was laboring with ill-controlled passion. "So you handed Butch over, you rat!" The words came from beween his teeth. "And you dare drag us out here!"

The Goldfish kept part of his gaze on Corcoran who with his threatening manner had come up close. The Goldfish, himself, was standing by the fireplace. His elbow was resting on the mantel, his foot on the rack which held the fire tongs.

Corcoran's impressive anger should have engaged all of any man's attention. And Slim had no means of knowing that it did not fully divert the Goldfish. Slim was skillfully, stealthily drawing near his man. His eyes apparently on prints and pictures were actually measuring distances.

"I need your help in the Craigin matter," the Goldfish said, unmoved by Corcoran.

"I know nothing about it!" Corcoran snapped.

The elbow on the mantel moved slightly as though it was leaving its relaxed position.

"You know all——!"

The whole thing happened with the rapidity of a galvanic shock. Slim had come within four feet of the Goldfish, in back of him. His right hand had dropped into his overcoat pocket. But the Goldfish unexpectedly whirled about. And the hand that had been resting on the mantel caught up a pair of long, brass fire tongs. Almost without looking behind him the Goldfish swung the tongs in a swift arc. With momentum behind them the blunt ends of the fire tongs caught Slim on the side of the jaw and behind his right ear.

He dropped as limply as a dishrag.

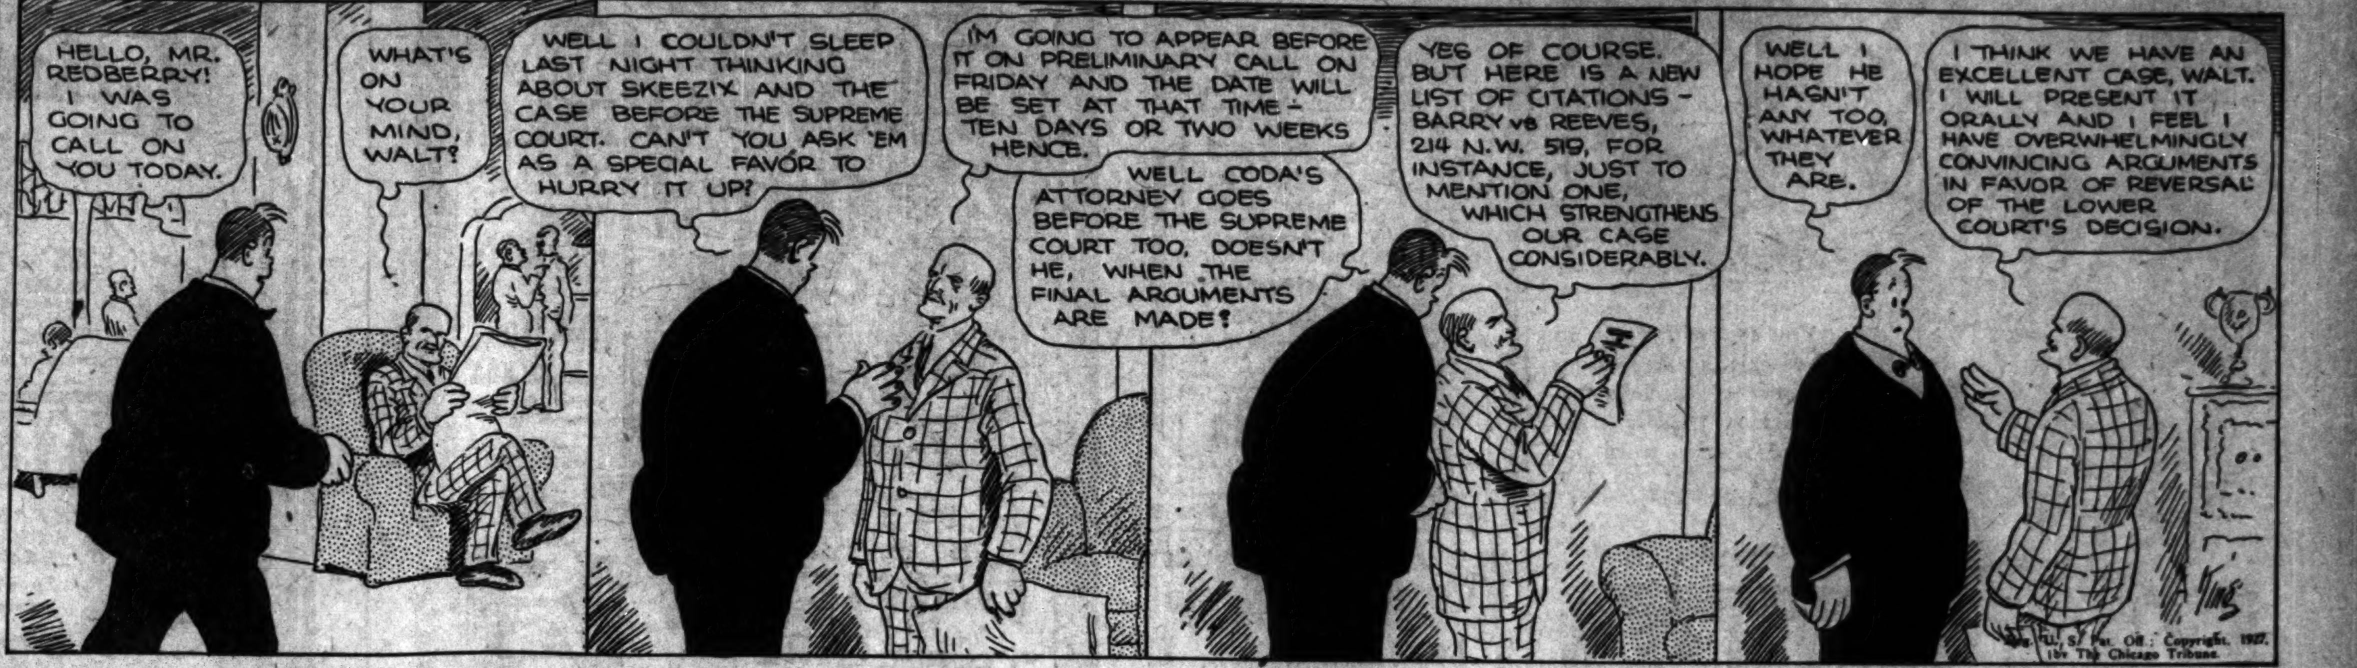
GASOLINE ALLEY—WALT WILL BE A LAWYER HIMSELF PRETTY SOON



HELLO, MR. REDBERRY! I WAS GOING TO CALL ON YOU TODAY.
WHAT'S ON YOUR MIND, WALT?
WELL I COULDN'T SLEEP LAST NIGHT THINKING ABOUT SKEEZIX AND THE CASE BEFORE THE SUPREME COURT. CAN'T YOU ASK 'EM AS A SPECIAL FAVOR TO HURRY IT UP?
I'M GOING TO APPEAR BEFORE IT ON PRELIMINARY CALL ON FRIDAY AND THE DATE WILL BE SET AT THAT TIME—TEN DAYS OR TWO WEEKS HENCE.
WELL CODA'S ATTORNEY GOES BEFORE THE SUPREME COURT TOO, DOESN'T HE, WHEN THE FINAL ARGUMENTS ARE MADE?
YES OF COURSE. BUT HERE IS A NEW LIST OF CITATIONS—BARRY vs REEVES, 214 N.W. 519, FOR INSTANCE, JUST TO MENTION ONE, WHICH STRENGTHENS OUR CASE CONSIDERABLY.
WELL I HOPE HE HASN'T ANY TOO, WHATEVER THEY ARE.
I THINK WE HAVE AN EXCELLENT CASE, WALT. I WILL PRESENT IT ORALLY AND I FEEL I HAVE OVERWHELMINGLY CONVINCING ARGUMENTS IN FAVOR OF REVERSAL OF THE LOWER COURT'S DECISION.

BY MAE TINEE.

Good Morning!

That craving to see a smart, smooth, sophisticated comedy drama with a clever plot, may I suggest, can be satisfied by a visit to the Chicago theater where "A Gentleman of Paris" starring one Adolphe Menjou is being offered for your consideration.

The picture is well dressed. It is splendidly cast and directed. It is beautifully acted. It is elegantly photographed—[if you ever run out of adjectives, Miss Tinée, what will you do?]—and presents the sauve A. Menjou in a sympathetic rôle.

Mr. Menjou first attracted favorable attention in "A Woman of Paris." It is fitting that as a gentleman of Paris he should win some more laurels.

The plot? Never mind about the plot. But it concerns a marquis and his valet who are on the happiest of terms till the valet discovers that that beloved philanderer, his master, has been having an affair with said valet's wife. Not knowing, you understand that the estimable Joseph had a wife.

"I suppose it is a great temptation to you to cut my throat?" queries the master as he is being shaved.

"There are more ways than one of cutting a throat," replies Joseph, and proves it.

There are some new and charming people in the cast, among whom is the leading lady, an interesting looking girl whose poise suggests stage training. Also, the director is a stranger. A welcome one.

"A RENO DIVORCE."
Produced by Warner Brothers.
Directed by Ralph Graves.
Presented at the Orpheum Theater.

THE CAST.

Carla	May MacAvoy
David	Ralph Graves
Eric	Robert Ober
Iris	Hedda Hopper
Chauffeur	William Demarest
Father	Anders Randolf

Ralph Graves, like House Peters, does a vanishing act every so often, and for a long time is neither seen nor heard of. Then he comes back and the screens seem full of him.

In the case of "A Reno Divorce" he wrote the story, did the directing, besides acting the male lead. Busy body, yes?

His kindest friend couldn't honestly hand the yarn much. The direction is just—just—fair. But his acting is good. He's as natural as he is easy to look at and is a splendid vis-a-vis for adorable, honest-eyed little May MacAvoy.

The plot of "A Reno Divorce" is far more intricate than it is interesting, but the scenes between Mr. Graves and Miss MacAvoy are eye-warming and the two have competent support—as you may assure yourselves by a glance at the cast.

See you tomorrow!

FOR VOTES

MRS. MALCOLM McBRIDE.
[Bachrach Photo.]

Mrs. Malcolm McBride of Cleveland, a pioneer suffrage worker and active in civic affairs in the Ohio city, will be a speaker, with Mrs. Sumer T. McKnight of Minneapolis, at the autumn luncheon of the Lake Shore League of Women Voters, to be held today at the Lake Shore Athletic club. Mrs. Winfield Scott Linn will preside, in the absence of the president, Miss Mabel Linn, who is tarrying in England, where she has had a house for the season.

Style Show Replaces St. Luke's Annual Ball

A fashion show, in which young society women will act as models, is to be given in the ballroom of the Stevens hotel on Oct. 27, under the auspices of the women's board of St. Luke's hospital.

Gowns, hats, shoes, and jewelry from the leading stores will be on display at the show. During the afternoon exhibition, which begins at 3 o'clock, tea will be served. The price of each ticket will be $3.50. Dinner will be served in the evening, followed by the show. Tickets for the dinner are $15 a couple and may be obtained from Mrs. Edward Fifield, 208 South La Salle street.

Hitherto the woman's board has annually given the St. Luke's charity ball. The style show will take the place of this event.

Ruth McCormick Gives $25,000 to Hospital Drive

Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick contributed $25,000 yesterday for the new Lying-In hospital to be erected on the Midway. Contributions received by workers in the drive totaled $45,105 for the day.

James Keeley, assistant to the president of the Pullman company, contributed $5,000 to provide a bed in the new hospital to be named in memory of his wife, Gertrude Small Keeley, "to be used in so far as is possible for wives of men engaged in the production or sale of newspapers." The other contributions of $1,000 or more received during the day were:

$3,000—Mr. and Mrs. Francis H. Hardy.

$2,000—M. H. Cowen.

$1,000—Robert F. Carr, Henry Lytton, Eames MacVeagh, H. W. Kastor & Son, Morris Woolf, and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Witkowsky.

Mary Pickford has donated a piece of jewelry, Blanche Sweet an evening gown, and Ann Pennington a silk shawl for a sale of clothing to be held tomorrow by the society women and actresses who are working for the hospital. The sale will be held at 209 South Wabash avenue, in the building occupied last spring by "The Stork" restaurant. Mrs. Joseph M. Harris is in charge.

Geraldine Farrar Heard on Concert Stage Again

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 17.—[Special.]—Miss Geraldine Farrar tonight made her first concert appearance since her retirement for health reasons two years ago.

BEG YOUR PARDON!

James Huxtable, Evanston's former mayoralty candidate, denies that Hayden Williams, Evanston Sunday school teacher now under arrest for the theft of an automobile, is any relation to him, as stated in THE TRIBUNE Oct. 16. Williams claimed when arrested that Huxtable was his uncle. The latter states that his oldest brother married the prisoner's great grand mother's sister, which perhaps accounts for the alleged relationship.

An item referred to W. T. Twombly as an official of the Stewart-Warner corporation. He is not connected with the organization.

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

The Tribune will pay $5 for each question accepted for the Inquiring Reporter to ask. Send name and address with your question to "The Inquiring Reporter," Chicago Tribune. For today's question Ethel Moody, 5640 Kimbark avenue, was awarded $5.

The Question.

Where asked.

The Answers.

Miss Hortense Smith, 1406 East 67th place, stenographer.—I really prefer long skirts and I only wear them short because I don't want to look too much out of style. To me, girls look bold and shameless when they wear extremely short skirts, and it gives the impression that they only do it to attract attention.

John Collier, Peoria, Ill., clerk.—That's a difficult question. I believe the present style is as becoming and as appropriate as anything could be. My sister says she likes them "just a little bit above the knee, but not too short, otherwise it would look funny."

Miss Pearl Tuch, 6742 Cornell avenue, clerk.—I like them the length of my skirt, which is, I guess, scarcely covering the knees. In New Orleans where I visited on my vacation a few weeks ago, many women were wearing them many inches above the knee.

Hary Little, 836 Bradley place, chauffeur.—That's easy. Some would look wonderful in the shortest outfit they could wear; others, well, they might look quite distinguished in those old fashioned trains they used to wear. Not long ago a motorist was looking at a fine walking attraction, and he ran his car into mine. Short skirts can cause accidents.

Mrs. Mae Regan, 908 West 37th place, stenographer.—About two inches below the knee is a good average. Shorter skirts than that are better suited for stage than for street. Short skirts in public conveyances cause embarrassment; on the street they come in for comment.

THEATER

"THE ROAD TO ROME":

Comedy, in three acts, by Robert Emmet Sherwood; made known in Chicago (by Brady & Wiman) October 17, 1927, in the Adelphi Theater, with this cast:

Amytis	Grace George
Fabius, her husband	J. M. Kerrigan
Fabia, his mother	E. C. Carrington
Varius, a slave	Charles Quigley
Meta, another	Adèle Ronson
Scipio	Philip Foster
Cato	Warren Crosby
Drusus	Edmund Dalby
Sertorius	G. A. Stryker
Tibullus	N. S. Hales
Hannibal	McKay Morris
Mago, his brother	Edward H. Wever
Hasdrubal	Francis Compton
Thotmes, a scrivener	Mr. Stryker
Maherbal	Alfred Hamilton
Carthalo	Mr. Hales
Bala, a servant	David Miller
A sergeant	Clyde Franklin
A corporal	Martin Noble
A guardsman	Matthew Smith
A second	Robert Buckner
A third	Bennett O'Loghlin
A fourth	Mr. Crosby
A fifth	J. Hall

THAT Mr. Sherwood's play has to do with the seduction of Hannibal by a married lady whose conjugal rights have mostly been lefts; that he is, as a consequence of his explicable frailty, persuaded to her viewpoint regarding war—the viewpoint being "What's the use?"; and that, as a co-consequence, Hannibal leaves Rome to be destroyed by others are matters known pretty well to such Chicago theater-goers as read in THE TRIBUNE about what's going on in the several and various fields of human activity, including the theater. Besides, the play was long since put into print, with pages and pages and pages of foreword by Mr. Sherwood, who seemed to think that he needed the space to tell all about Hannibal and what he meant to Carthage, to protest that he hadn't copied Shaw in the latter's attitude toward history in drama, and to let us know that he immensely admired "What Price Glory!" . . .

Yes: and the fun of it is that "The Road to Rome" stands up handsomely without a word of exposition or explanation by the author or even by a play-reporter. It is a dandy piece of kidding, although at times more than a bit self-conscious in its fun-making; and it represents, as it is acted by Miss George and her companions in the Adelphi, an adult, self-respecting, and civilized reason for spending an evening in this particular theater while she is in Chicago.

When Amytis (who isn't history, but a spokesman for Mr. Sherwood, editor of Life, in his character of a man who believes that war is all blah and such) is alone in his tent by night with Hannibal, we have, of course, the basic situation of Judith and Holofernes, of Monna Vanna and Prinzivalle, and of numerous other vis-à-vis enemies from history, literature, and the theater—including the wife who went to the rooms of the wicked employer in "Paid in Full." True, the motivation of the lady in "The Road to Rome" is not that attributed to the other heroines who have sought out sexly warriors in their tent at midnight; but there she is, and there he is. What each has to say to the other is mostly amusing. She doesn't tell Hannibal what a washout her husband is; she probably figures that, if ever Hannibal see Fabius, he will understand. When she persuades him to do a bit of thinking about his job, Hannibal reacts by giving out a variant of the big speech Shaw provides for Cæsar. So, as the second act wears on, she gets to him and gets him: he is kissing her as the curtain falls; and he greets her with a kiss when he meets her after breakfast. He explains things to the Carthaginians and the Romans quite neatly, saying that he thinks it better to permit Rome to destroy herself—a bit of retrospective clairvoyance that recalls to me the little tale of the antiquarian who bought a Roman coin bearing the date 217 B. C. . . .

Yes: 'tis a merry play.

The rôle of Amytis asks for and gets from her the quality which Miss George possesses in greater abundance than any other actress now in the English-speaking theater—the sense of comic mischief employed by an aware woman for the enmeshment and overthrow of a male. She is sparkling, alert, and well-defined throughout, and at her best as a haute-comédienne. It isn't necessary to go into the disadvantages or the advantages of having seen Miss Cowl in the rôle in the long New-York run. . . . Mr. Morris, who hasn't been hereabout since he was with Stuart Walker in the Portmanteau venture in what is now the Playhouse, is bully as Hannibal. Mr. Kerrigan will, doubtless, put more color into Fabius: the fellow belonged in the war-time Cabinet of Mr. Wilson. And the many others named above serve, and serve well.

Pay of School Bureau Heads to Be Released

Salaries of Seven Held Up for Two Months.

The salaries of seven bureau heads and assistants in the educational department of the school board, which have been withheld during August and September, will be paid this week, Frank Righeimer, attorney for the board, announced last night.

Members of the educational committee of the City club had charged that these salaries were being withheld as an act of revenge against the officials for their support of the policies of Supt. William McAndrew, now under suspension.

Mr. Righeimer was irked that the matter had become known, and declared that if it was given publicity the pay of these officials would be stopped. He said they had been taken off the pay roll when, during a recent shakeup of school jobs involving the teacher-clerks, it was believed their positions were not educational but clerical.

"Pending a decision of the teacher-clerk situation," Mr. Righeimer said, "it was decided to withhold these salaries, but recently some of these people have come around complaining that they were hungry and starving. We decided then to give them their back pay under the old schedule until a decision is reached as to just what their functions are. William J. Bogan, assistant superintendent, will bring in a recommendation to the school board tomorrow asking that they be paid."

The seven officials involved are Harry T. Baker, formerly secretary to Supt. McAndrew, but recently removed to the Mount Greenwood school, whose annual salary is $5,760; Frank Sullivan, director of administration, with a salary of $6,000; Edward E. Keener, director of the bureau of instructional research, $5,400; William Liska, assistant director of visual education, $5,400; Kathryn Connery, in charge of assembling curriculum surveys, $3,600; Elsa Mueller, in charge of promotional credits for the board of examiners, $3,300, and Naomi Anderson, assistant director of visual education, $2,500.

Keener and Baker are the two of this group said to have been closest to Supt. McAndrew. It was through Keener's department that McAndrew conducted the achievement tests and last March the superintendent proposed to the board that the bureau be increased in scope and personnel. This proposal aroused Victor Olander, labor leader, and after a debate between Olander and McAndrew during a school board meeting the matter was shelved.

J. Alden Carpenters on Way Home After Summer Wanderings

BY NANCY R——.

The maids and trunks, forerunners of the fashionable chatelaine returning to a Chicago residence from a summer in other parts, arrived yesterday at the John Alden Carpenter ménage at 942 Lake Shore drive, and I understand that Mrs. Carpenter will be here tomorrow or Thursday.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter are so active in things social, artistic, musical and generally interesting that they are much missed when they are not on hand. Of late they've spent many more months in the east and abroad than they have in Chicago, and even this visit is to be all too brief, for they'll sail for Europe again in a few weeks, the high light of their winter voyaging being the presentations of Mr. Carpenter's ballet, "Skyscraper," in Leipsic and Munich.

Early as it is, more and more winter plannings keep bobbing up over the rim of the social horizon. The most recent is that which Mr. and Mrs. Russell Matthias are contemplating. They have had an invitation from Dr. Sylvanus G. Morley, noted archaeologist and explorer, to join him in Yucatan some time in January, and perhaps lend a hand in the temple excavating work he is doing there, and I'm told that they are now planning to include the visit in their winter itinerary.

Mrs. Matthias is one of the women interested in the private view of the exhibition of paintings in the Chester H. Johnson galleries on Thursday, the proceeds of which will go to the Chicago Public School Art society. Tea is to be served during the afternoon, the group of women who will pour including Mrs. William J. Chalmers, Mrs. J. V. Farwell, Mrs. C. B. Goodspeed, Miss Alice Roullier, Mrs. C. H. Chadwick, Mrs. Parmalee McFadden, Mrs. William J. Jarrett, Mrs. Charles Clark, Miss Sarah Brewster, Miss Rue Winterbotham, Miss Mary Meeker, and Miss Janet Fairbank.

In spite of the fact that Mrs. E. I. Cudahy is devoting so many of her hours just now to the success of the St. Luke's fashion show to be held at the Stevens on the twenty-seventh of this month, she is not too busy to play the part of hostess to a popular ex-Chicagoite in town for a visit. Mrs. Milton Wilson of Santa Barbara is spending this week with Mrs. Cudahy, after a few days as the guest of the Cyrus Adamses.

From Mrs. Kersey Coates Reed, also a hard working member of the St. Luke's woman's board, comes word that the first two dinner hostesses for the evening festivities at the fashion show are Mrs. George Ranney and Mrs. John P. Wilson. And Mrs. Reed adds that Robert Lee Eskridge, who returned recently from a summer in the South Seas, has contributed one of his charming black and white drawings to be used as a cover for the fashion show program.

Day's News in Society

Thackeray's "The Rose and the Ring" will be the first play presented this winter by the Junior league's children's theater. Rehearsals are to begin tomorrow morning, and the play will be opened on Saturday morning, Nov. 19, at the Harris theater. Other plans for the winter's activities were discussed yesterday at a small luncheon at the Casino. There were present, Mrs. John L. Cochran, Mrs. John R. Winterbotham Jr., Miss Dorothy Schmidt, Miss Portia Bartlett, Mrs. Shreve C. Badger, Mrs. Walter Paepcke, Miss Harriet Borland, and Miss Sarane Otis. The league is to start a playwright's course this winter to encourage the members to enter the prize contest for a play written by a league member about her respective locality. Mrs. Paepcke is in charge of the scenery for the play, and Mrs. Badger the costumes. There are to be 17 speaking parts in the piece.

Mrs. Joseph H. King gave a large luncheon at the Saddle and Cycle club yesterday for Mrs. Robert E. Ross, who recently returned from a six months' sojourn in Europe, and for Countess Giovanni Cardelli.

Miss Portia Bartlett gave a small party at the Drake last evening for Miss Elizabeth Curtis of Clinton, Ia., Miss Peggy Patterson of Montclair, N. J., Miss Grizel Rankin of Buffalo, Miss Alison Hemingway of Brooklyn, Miss Phyllis Radford of Oshkosh, and Miss Margaret Waring of Tiverton, R. I., six of the bridesmaids who are to be in Miss Geraldine Kimberley's wedding party on Saturday in Neenah, Wis.

Miss Eleanor Burkley, daughter of Harry V. Burkley of Omaha, Neb., has set Nov. 22 for the date of her marriage to Daniel F. McCarthy of Evansville, Ind., son of Mrs. Daniel E. McCarthy of the Lake Shore Drive hotel. The service is to be read in the morning at St. John's Catholic church in Omaha.

ENGAGEMENT

Mrs. Terrence O'Connor of 4650 North Kilbourn avenue announces the engagement of her daughter, Mary Ellen O'Connor, to Dr. Frederick T. Derische. No date has been set for the wedding.

Insomnia Can Be Traced to Some Kink of Physical System

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

A correspondent writes for the benefit of other sufferers from insomnia and says that for two months she was a victim. It it was uncomfortable lying awake night after night wondering how she ever was going to catch up on the strength her sleepless vigils were depriving her of. Not until her eyes got puffy and a friend remarked that she wasn't looking like her old self did she hie herself off to a physician.

Instead of the sympathy she thought her right, the physician gave her an exhibition of a sane man's impatience with a constipation sufferer. He did prescribe for the condition, however, and put her on a diet of fruits and vegetables chiefly, and told her a few things about the establishment of habits of regular bowl movements. The insomnia hasn't returned.

If there is anything that will play havoc with a woman's looks in a short time it is sleepless nights from any cause. From one that, at best, can only be termed the most careless kind of neglect no sympathy need be extended, as "Correspondent" herself agrees.

"But few people," she writes, "realize that it is to some slight physical disorder the wakeful nights are due."

Disturbances of the circulation, such as cold feet, which are in turn a symtom of anemia, constipation, indigestion, or other disease, are a most common cause of insomnia. Poor circulation is a common thing to the brain worker, for the obvious reason of lack of exercise and cold feet instead of overwork of the brain keeps many a victim awake.

Dr. William S. Walsh says insomnia from indigestion is by far the most frequent. Probably fifty per cent of insomniacs are dyspeptics, knowingly or unknowingly, he claims.

Eye disorders are also known to be a frequent cause of sleeplessness and faulty teeth claim other victims.

In order to keep the body working harmoniously and the face and eyes looking fresh and young, regular sleep must be obtained. And if there is anything worrying one to death one may believe some bodily disturbance is to blame. If cold feet, exercise to improve circulation is all that is required. If constipation, diet, exercise and improved habits are needed. If indigestion a change of diet may be all that is needed so that you get your eight hours of peace and quiet.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

B. J. L.: YOU EAT TOO MANY rolls. They are a form of bread, and bread is the article of food which is responsible for more adipose than any other. One slice of bread with each meal is sufficient, or one roll. Where a basket of rolls or bread is placed on the table there is the temptation to keep on eating them until the other food arrives, but it is a bad habit for those inclined to flesh. If you wish reducing instructions send a stamped addressed envelope.

G. L. B.: FEVER BLISTERS, ACcompanied by heartburn, indicate a disturbance in the digestive tract. You must be more careful in the selection of your food. Local treatment for the blisters is spirits of camphor. Correct your diet, and be sure to get plenty of exercise and rest.

WEDDINGS

Vernon Cassard of 69 East Division street announces the marriage of his daughter, Florence, to H. S. Payson Rowe of Boston, Mass. The ceremony took place at St. James' Episcopal church on Saturday last. Mr. Rowe was graduated from Harvard in the class of 1922, where he was a member of Institute 1770, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Pi Eta, and Varsity clubs.

A lecture on George Peter Alexander Healy, noted American portrait painter who died in Chicago in 1894, will be given at the Chicago Historical society this evening by Mme. Marie de Mare Stein, his granddaughter.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17.—[Special.]—The assistant secretary of the treasury and Mrs. Schoeneman were among the little company of guests who accompanied President and Mrs. Coolidge on their week-end cruise down the river on the Mayflower.

The secretary of the navy, Curtis D. Wilbur, gave a dinner this evening in compliment to Admiral Sir Walter Cowan, Bt., K. C. B., D. S. O., and M. V. O., in command of the two British cruisers, the Calcutta and the Cairo, which arrived at the navy yard this morning for a week's stay.

Mr. and Mrs. David E. K. Bruce returned today to Washington and joined the latter's father, Secretary Mellon, after a few days' visit in New York.

Mrs. Samuel Williams Earle of Chicago, recording secretary general of the D. A. R., was hostess at dinner tonight at the Mayflower in the presidential suite in compliment to the president general of the D. A. R., Mrs. Alfred T. Brousseau.

PATTERNS BY CLOTILDE

[Registered U. S. Patent Office.]

WOMAN'S DRESS.

An unusual model is shown for the larger woman in semi-sports style. The back is straight and crossed by three narrow belts that fasten at either side of the front panel with front trimming, giving a snug fit through the hip line. The deep V at the front, completed with vestee, adds lengths to the figure. And pressed plaits either side of the front panel flare at the hemline. Crêpe satin, flat silk crêpe, velvet, crêpe Roma, Angora jersey, and silk twill are suitable fabrics from which to choose.

The pattern, 3159, comes in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, and 48 inches bust measure. Size 36 requires 3¾ yards of 40 inches material with ⅝ yard of 40 inch contrasting.

Service Club Charity Fund Augmented by Luncheon Proceeds

The tricks and intricacies of the waiter's trade were fathomed yesterday by the group of Service club members who took over the Chippendale fountain room in the Palmer house for luncheon and tea. Getting the right amount of cream out of the little jigger, balancing the aluminum trays, and remembering the respective orders, were some of the problems faced in return for several hundred dollars to add to the organization's charity fund. The women in charge were gratified to find that more than $75 in tips had been slipped into the pockets of their green waitress smocks.

At lunch time, several of the husbands and brothers of the workers appeared on the scene. These included the husband of Mrs. H. Pickett Withers, president of the club, and her brothers, John T. Pirie Jr., and Robert Pirie, and James A. Cathcart, and Robert S. Hotz, whose respective wives were working. Mrs. John Pirie had a group of friends at luncheon, and others who dropped in during the day included Mr. and Mrs. Alexander H. Revell Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Paul Walker, Henry L. Hollis, Miss Jane Scriven, Miss Agnes Foreman, Mrs. George S. Gaylord, Miss Louise Carr, Miss Mary Barnes, Miss Frances Richardson, Miss Jean Milstead, Mrs. Billings McArthur (Jane Naugle), Mrs. Bernard Mullin, Miss Helen Bournique, and Mrs. Charles Pope. One group who arrived late for tea included Mrs. Robert Wood, Mrs. John Harmon and her daughter, Miss Ethel Harmon, Mrs. William J. Prindiville, and Mrs. John Tapper.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

Two Sisters.

Some months ago I had occasion, for the first time, to talk on pretty friendly terms with two sisters, who lived within a stone's throw of my home, although I had known them from sight for quite a length of time previously.

Although both were passable, I took a liking to, and became extremely fond of, the younger sister. Weeks went by, until I finally made up my mind to go out with her. Feeling quite sure that the younger one's name was Henrietta, although I later found out, to my embarrassment, that that was the name of the older one, I phoned for and talked to Henrietta and made a date with her for the following Saturday night.

I called at their home, and the two sisters were the only ones present at the time. The three of us had talked for nearly an hour, when, at the opportune time, I asked the younger sister, in the presence of the older one whom I had really but unintentionally made the date with, where she would suggest that we go "tonight."

It was certainly my most embarrassing moment, so I had to take care of them both that evening. However, I have not had the heart to call either of them up, as I now find I am in the situation of being between the devil and the deep blue sea. A. H.

"It Will Satisfy the Most Critical!"

Beauty hints from one who specializes in beauty are well worth heeding; and pretty Miss Betty Winkler, beauty specialist of New York City, is glad to tell other girls and women what she thinks of Black and White Face Powder.

"This delightful face powder," says Miss Winkler, "has certain desirable qualities which I have been unable to find in others generally. It has that soft, velvety feeling and lasting adherence which women of charm invariably demand. A trial will satisfy the most critical that Black and White Face Powder is the ideal face powder for them."

This dainty, flower-fragrant face powder is made of the finest materials and bolted many times through silk to give it a soft, even texture. It comes in just the right tints to enhance the natural coloring of your skin.

Black and White Beauty Creations are of a quality acceptable to those who seek the best, at prices within the reach of all—25c and 50c.

YOU AND YOUR CHILDREN

By Mrs. Gladys Huntington Bevans

"Is That True, Mother?"

"But that's not true, mother, is it? Why did she say it, if it's not true?"

Teachers and parents should work hand in glove—

School and home should coöperate—

Father and mother—

Nurse and parents—

Should support each other and uphold each other in the teaching and upbringing of children in every possible way.

This should be so that the greatest good of the children is served and the process made happier and easier for every one concerned.

But sometimes you run against a snag, and when you do it is hard to know whether to go around it or pull it up.

The snag is untruth. We are all human—so a teacher, one of two parents, a respected relative, a trusted nurse may make a statement to your child that is not the truth. Your child is practically sure to come to you with it and say, "But that's not true, is it, mother? Why did she say it, if it's not true?"

Well, there you are. It's the parting of the ways for you. What are you going to do about it? Are you going to serve truth, or the prestige of those in authority? You've got to make your decision. You're going to expect your child to serve truth all through his life. That is surely one of your highest ideals for him. If you beat around the bush, if you evade the question, if you don't serve truth yourself, how can you expect him to serve it? You can't.

So when, for example, your son or daughter comes to you and says, "But a little child who takes something he shouldn't won't be put in prison, will he, mother?" you've got to answer, "No."

When he goes further and says, "But why did she say so, mother?" you'll have a chance there to make the best of a bad bargain. You can say that perhaps she was really thoughtless, or that she just made a mistake, or that she was trying to help the the child and wasn't wise about it, or that she doesn't realize how important it is that people should always speak the truth.

It will work out all right. Make what excuses you honestly can for the persons responsible. But be courageous—give your children the truth.

A FRIEND IN NEED

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

A Struggle to Keep Going.

"I have just been released from a sanitarium and I am not able to buy my family the clothing it needs. The children are delicate and will have to have warm clothing for the cold weather. Have your readers any discarded things to fit girls 9, 4 and 7 years? J. P."

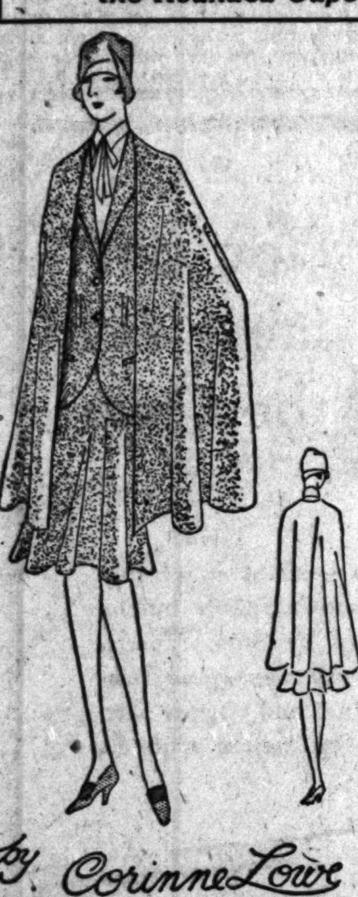
This poor father is trying to provide for his small brood, but it's not an easy thing to do when he's not well and his small daughters are not strong, either. Won't you give him the things your girls are outgrowing?

Bright Sayings of the Children

The Tribune will pay $5 for each childish saying printed. The story told must never have been printed in any magazine or paper. It is not possible to acknowledge or return unavailable contributions. Write on one side of the paper. Address bright sayings to Aunty Bee, The Tribune, Chicago.

Five year old Jane, enjoying her first visit in the country, was standing by the wagon impatiently awaiting a promised ride around the farm with grandpa. Suddenly the horse gave several loud whinneys, and Jane rushed into the house calling, "Get my coat quick, mother; grandpa's horse is honking for us to hurry up." C. M. E.

Patou Sponsors the Rounded Cape



by Corinne Lowe

NEW YORK. — [Special Correspondence.]—Again the cape of good style is being rounded by our best fashion navigators. O, very much rounded, indeed, as M. Patou does it for us here in a tweed ensemble which is really one of the most stunning of sports models to be seen. In fact, for the direct ancestor of this round and circular cape one must go straight to the garment which the philosophic German always wore to make him look more philosophic.

The tweed used for this ensemble is an oxford mixture and there is not a touch of trimming to distract from the tailored severity of both cape and the tailleur beneath. The skirt, as well as the cape, are frankly circular. As for the jacket, you may see that fine tucks are taken at the sides. This latter is an item well worth remarking, for looking about at the fashionable tailleurs of this year it will be discovered that many of the most distinguished jackets have a neat little nip at the waistline.

As for the flared cape, this identifies itself with many ensembles for the year that take for their leading text, loose, wrappy lines of the coat. Numerous jackets of the autumn flare from the shoulder. So also do many of the three-quarter coats which so often complete today's sports ensemble. Indeed, the cape itself is often utilized to contribute such graceful redundancy of folds. We find smart capelets attached to some of the new separate coats and in this connection it is interesting to see that the cape, just like the bolero, often consults the asymmetric book of style. That is to say, it may be confined largely to one shoulder.

"Love Is Heaven and Hell," Says a Correspodent

BY DORIS BLAKE.

"Twenty-one" a few days ago asked: "What is love? And how are you going to know it when you meet it?"

A couple of correspondents offer enlightenment:

"Love," says Catherine B., "is a spark that, once lighted, can be mistaken for nothing else. It is the attraction the sun has for the earth. It is a sensation that reacts like that derived from listening to a wonderful piece of music perfectly rendered. It is like a radio, keyed up to attract similar wave lengths at will. It cannot get by without being sensed. It is as rare as it is beautiful, and the reality is heaven."

Jean says:

"Love is the most wonderful thing on earth—and hell at the same time. Being in love—ah, what sweetness, what joy, what bliss! What terror, too! Jealousy and doubt enter. They shouldn't, I know. But they do, and what heartaches they cause!

"Let your love leave you for a while. One sad farewell—then weeks of trustful waiting and longing. How endearing are the letters you receive. How they fill your heart and soul anew with love! And when he returns, how you realize more than ever what he means to you! Then, the fond remembrances of whispered promises and those delightful talks while you are cuddled in your one and only's arms. The tender glances and fond embraces—heaven.

"But wait—something goes wrong. You fail to get a promised letter. You have petty quarrels, or he goes back on you for forty-eight hours or so. What torture, doubt, and terror loom up on your heart! First you feel an acute attack of melancholia. Then you feel like drowning your sorrows with gayety, pretending you don't care when all the time your heart is breaking. You feel as though you might be happy if the world would come to an end, all the time hoping, though, you will meet and all will be right again. So it turns out, and the sun shines once more; the world is beautiful to live in.

DORIS BLAKE ANSWERS

Sees Him Too Often.

"Dear Miss Blake: I love a fellow to whom my parents object, as the neighbors keep talking of him and me. I see him almost every night. Please advise. LILA."

The neighbors talk because you see too much of each other, dear. Every night is too often to entertain or go out with any one beau.

A Strict Parent.

"Dear Miss Blake: I am 18 and cannot go out with boys on account my dad. Do you think he is doing right? WORRIED.

Your dad isn't doing right. He is depriving you of friends. Friendships are made more easily at your age than when you are older.

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

That Fudge Cake.

We are about to write a long sentence, for here is repetition of the interest-arousing recipe which we snatched from the air [when it was being broadcast in the interest of evaporated milk], then tested, then put into public record with a misprint, after which we heard from many people on the subject, then a correction was printed which aroused a new interest in the cake and made some people who are irregular readers write for the recipe.

Then after that we began to get letters from people who had themselves made the correction and the cake, liked it, but lost the recipe. One cup of sugar, one tablespoon of butter, one egg, three-quarters of a cup of sweet milk, or use a mixture of half evaporated milk and half water to equal three-fourths of a cup, one cup of flour, two teaspoons of baking powder, one-fourth teaspoon of salt, one teaspoon of vanilla, two squares of chocolate. Cream the butter, cream into it the sugar and the yolk of the egg. Add the milk, then the flour, salt and baking powder sifted together. Add melted chocolate and vanilla and lastly add the beaten white of egg and bake at 350 degrees from forty to fifty minutes in the shape of a small loaf, or bake in two layers.

Mrs. P. H., who kindly corrected our error has again written as follows: "Again I want to thank you for all the cake recipes you have printed. I have tried most of them and all I have tried are fine. I am grateful for the fudge recipe because it is so economical without appearing to be cheap. So often we are called upon to furnish a cake for an occasion and with some of us the pennies count to the extent that it is a hardship, and upon such occasions it is indeed nice to have in one's possession the fudge cake or some similar recipe to fall back upon.

"Last Thursday I was invited to a shower and elected to furnish cake for a party of twelve so I doubled the fudge cake recipe and the result was a picture, two large loosely thick layers. I tried it with butter cream filling I made with two cups of four-X confectioners' sugar, two teaspoons of melted butter and enough orange juice beaten into it to form a thick paste to spread. It was an ideal combination and every woman complimented the cake so highly. There was only a tiny bite left so I fell they meant their praise."

Baptists Get $224,207 in Church Fund Drive

When the various team managers of the Baptist executive council's drive for $500,000 announced for the first time their subscriptions to date last evening at a banquet in the Hotel La Salle it was shown that $224,207 has been subscribed. The Baptists are raising the money to build additional churches in the city and for mission work.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Despite the tremendous "pull" necessary to start a resting train, the skill and experience of Pennsylvania enginemen cut the jolts and jars of railroad travel to the minimum

A WRITER has written of "The Courage of the Commonplace" which becomes the courage of the crisis.

Hand on the throttle of 200 tons of power, eyes on the unfolding miles of track, calm, strong, completely efficient, is it any wonder that they are the object of the shy devotion of countless American boys, of the respect of every man.

Pennsylvania enginemen have come up through years of service on the road, years of vital experience. The hundreds of miles of road "ahead" are impressed indelibly upon their minds, every tower and landmark, every milepost and signal, every second clicked off on the shining rails. They know the route of their runs as you know your way home.

Throttle and brakes, steam lines and gauges, miles of track, over them all the engineman keeps unceasing vigil, for your comfort, for your security.

Despite wet, slippery rails, despite the tremendous "pull" necessary to start a resting train, the skill and experience of Pennsylvania enginemen cut the jolts and jars of railroad travel to the minimum. Almost as sensitive in their hands as an instrument of precision are the tons of gliding steel that make up the train.

Look up when next you pass the panting engine at the end of your journey. Look up and see a man in whom the spirit of the Railroad lives.

When she just won't eat

Countless children victims of cachexia (run-down condition)

When children refuse to eat or develop strange appetite disorders, and consequently become nervous, anaemic and run down, the trouble may often be traced to the lack of a vital substance which is abundant in yeast.

As a tonic, regulator, stimulant and corrective for appetite and digestive troubles, give dried yeast to your children. Give it freely and for your protection give Yeast Foam Tablets.

They are an absolutely pure food; they don't ferment; they help build healthy tissue and good strong normal bodies. And this is the only yeast that is easy to eat and has a delicious taste.

RBSTEIN'S LAW EXPERT JOINS BAR; CARRIES ON

ffice Adviser to Take Over Practice.

After spending years as the confidential adviser of the late Charles E. Erbstein, during which he prepared that lawyer's leading divorce cases, Nicholas A. Socrates yesterday achieved recognition as Mr. Erbstein's successor. It was announced that Mr. Socrates, with another of Attorney Erbstein's associates for the last five years, Attorney Benjamin B. Davis, have formed a law partnership and will continue the practice of the late divorce counsellor.

With Erbstein 14 Years.

Fourteen years ago young Socrates was introduced to Mr. Erbstein. Ever since, except for the two years he served in the army, including twenty months in France, Mr. Socrates has been Erbstein's constant associate. Of late years, he made his home with the Erbstein family. For years Mr. Socrates had written the briefs used by Mr. Erbstein in the divorce trials and in carrying cases to the higher courts. With his expert knowledge Mr. Socrates remained a layman and did not seek admission to the bar. It was only after Attorney Erbstein decided he should have another ready to step into his shoes to carry on his practice that the lawyer prevailed upon his assistant to take the bar examinations.

Becomes "Attorney Socrates."

Just at this time Mr. Erbstein was taken suddenly ill and after only a few days died. In the interim, his practice has been continued by Attorney Davis, with Socrates as legal expert and business manager.

Socrates was summoned to Springfield last week to receive his license, and in ceremonies before that body he became at last "Attorney Socrates."

Yesterday Judge Henry Horner in probate court entered an order for a widow's award to Mr. Erbstein's widow, Mrs. Olivia K. Erbstein, which included the offices of the lawyer. The offices she then turned over to the firm of Socrates & Davis.

WILLIAM WEISS, LEGISLATOR, DIES AT WAUKEGAN

William F. Weiss, representative in the Illinois legislature for the last four terms, died at his home in Waukegan yesterday. On the night of the Dempsey-Tunney fight Mr. Weiss was waiting on an elevated platform, when he stumbled and fell against an approaching train. One of his legs was injured. Physicians said yesterday that the dizzy spell preceding the fall was a forerunner of the final stroke. Congressman Henry F. Rathbone was a visitor at the Weiss residence yesterday and while the two were chatting Mr. Weiss was overcome and died a few minutes later.

Mr. Weiss was born in Chicago in 1875 and moved to Waukegan in 1891. He was admitted to the bar in 1897 and had practiced law there since. From 1917 to 1920 Mr. Weiss was an assistant attorney general under Edward F. Brundage, stationed at Waukegan.

Surviving are the widow, Josephine, and one daughter, Frances. Mr. Weiss was a member of the board of education at Waukegan and an active member of the Lake county bar association.

WALTER B. CLARK, 46, 111 McGovern avenue, Highland Park, a city employe of that suburb for the last twenty years, died yesterday from blood poisoning at his home. At the time of his death Clark was assistant foreman of the water department.

Start Physical Tests of 4,000 Prospective Cops

Physical examination of approximately 4,000 men who hope to become members of the police department was started yesterday by the civil service commission.

RADIO PROGRAMS FOR TODAY

(Tuesday, October 18, 1927.) (Central Standard Time.)

Mark Love's Recital Tops W-G-N Program

MARK LOVE'S half hour recital between 9:30 and 10 o'clock appears to be the outstanding feature of the program tonight from W-G-N, THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE station on the Drake hotel. Mr. Love's basso voice is well known to listeners and he has selected a program that will show its qualities to perfection. Among his songs that listeners are certain to enjoy are "Now the Hungry Lion Roars," William Linley's adaptation from the lines in Shakespeare's "Midsummer Night's Dream," and "No More Dams I'll Make for Fish," Caliban's great song in Shakespeare's "The Tempest." He will close his program with Massenet's "Elegie."

Those popular Italian boys, the Salernos, are also to make one of their customary appearances on W-G-N tonight. These Neapolitan trobadours will be heard at 10:40 o'clock in a miscellaneous program of songs to accordion and piano accompaniment, and accordion solos. Both Frank, the accordionist, and Lawrence, the singer, will be featured in their first selection, "Addio a Napale," an Italian song.

A feature of tonight's W-G-N broadcast will be a fifteen minute miniature concert by the W-G-N studio ensemble. The ensemble consists of Armand Buisseret, violin; Leon Lichtenfeld, cellist; Herbert Johnson, pianist, and Frederick Meinken, harmonium. Their program begins at 9:15 o'clock, and will feature light classical numbers as well as selections from the more popular operettas of the day.

A radio announcer sets out on another journey tonight, when Quin Ryan, W-G-N's sports and feature announcer, is to give one of his "Rambles of a Radio Announcer." This time he is taking his listeners to Starved Rock, once the site of a French fortress and the scene of many a bloody Indian battle. All of the historic scenes about this midwest shrine will be described by Mr. Ryan during the feature which will be heard between 9 and 9:15 o'clock.

James Abbott, whose interesting travel talks have been one of W-G-N's features in the past, will be heard again today by afternoon listeners between 4 and 4:30 o'clock, when he talks on "Autumn Days." He still has a few strange lands left in his kit, and some of these will be described this afternoon.

Hoodlums Will Be Feature Over WLIB

The Hoodlums, those musical Gaelic roisterers, again feature tonight's program from WLIB, the Liberty Weekly station on the Drake hotel. Led by Art Smith the boys have planned another rollicking program, one of the high lights of which will be selections by Bobby Meeker and his Drake hotel dance orchestra. The two popular harmonizers, Carroll and Sorvillo, will be heard in a flashing group of songs, and there will also be ballads by Dick Wolrath, the cowboy "blues" singer.

The Drake concert ensemble and the Blackstone string quintet will give an hour's dinner concert between 7 and 8 o'clock over WLIB. One of the features of the morning program will be a talk during the good health and training period, 11:50 to 11:57 o'clock, by Dr. Thomas P. Saltiel, who will discuss "Infantile Paralysis."

Dr. Lyle M. Rader, noted chemist, who speaks nightly at Times Square, New York City, as a soldier of the Salvation Army, will address the report meeting of the Salvation Army drive at the Hotel Sherman at 12:15 p. m. today. The meeting will be broadcast by stations WLS and WENR.

Dr. Rader, who is Paul Rader's brother, wears the uniform of the Salvation Army soldier and lives the rigorous life required of them despite the fact that he is wealthy.

Contributions to the Army's home service appeal have reached $132,140, it was announced yesterday at a meeting at the Hotel Sherman by Lawrence Williams, vice chairman of the drive. The amount is $8,000 in excess of the same period last year. The mark set for the drive, which will last until Oct. 24, is $367,000.

Unity—the Secret of that Great Strength Within

Rosehill Mausoleum

From ancient days, and even up to now, those with royal power or ample means have built their own edifices to guard family names and remains. Yet the weakness of these edifices was that their protection terminated with the ending of royal power or family millions. Where these mausoleums were weak, Rosehill Mausoleum is strong through a unified strength which combines that of many families. The result is a protection never before known to man—of two trust funds comprising millions of dollars, also a perpetual charter such as the state can never again grant. By availing yourself of this modern way of combining protection, you and yours secure an immortality no king or millionaire could singly provide.

While precious space still remains, let us send you the book, "Rosehill the Beautiful," and arrange your trip here. This puts you under no obligation.

It's a hard battle, trying to keep up the family standing on a salary hardly big enough for one. Yet you know perfectly well that you could make good at bigger things if you had the chance.

If you are that kind—willing to study and work for success—here is your opportunity. Here is the chance to hold your present job and its present salary and to add an extra weekly check from us that will spell the difference between bare existence and an excellent living for you and your family.

If you are now employed, able to drive a gear shift motor car, can show a clean record, and will use your spare time in agreeable work, we are ready for you with a plan that will change your life plans.

This plan will add to your self-respect, determination, and confidence without disturbing your present bread and butter position.

This is a connection with a fine future, if you are successful. Write us openly, stating name, address, present occupation, salary, how long employed in present position, and how much time you can devote to this new plan. Address B L 254, Tribune.

AMBITIOUS SALESMEN.

The man we want does not often read these ads. If he had had considerable sales experience based on experience with human nature, if he is ambitious and honest he need not worry about money matters. No Chicago subdivision, stocks, bonds or "bunk," but a real deal. See GEN. MGR., ROOM 1540, 176 W. ADAMS, MIDLAND BLDG.

AN AMBITIOUS MAN.

We want men, preferably between 25 and 45, who are earnest, industrious, courteous, positive, far-sighted. Successful sales experience in specialty or investments line is desirable. References required.

THOROUGH TRAINING.

Those who are acceptable will be trained by men who have had broad educational and sales experience. Our next School of Instruction starts Tuesday, October 18.

ASSISTANT TO OFFICE EXECUTIVE,

Over 25 years of age, capable of handling sales crew. Mr. Blackshere, Suite 612, 32 W. Randolph-st.

AT WHAT RATE DO YOU VALUE YOUR TIME?

Commission salesmen have but one cashable assets—TIME spent getting cashable signatures.

The only reason we can assure topnotch straight commission salesmen more income—often double their present income—is because 100% of their time can be spent selling and signing up orders. We don't care whether you are now earning $10,000 or $3,000—it can be increased.

No time lost delivering goods, making collections, chasing down dissatisfied buyers or making service calls for the House. No three weeks pillar-to-post nursing before buyer is ready to say "Yes." No missionary work. No sitting around waiting for another "issue." No trips to town, after town for just one or two picked prospects. No "designs" or "copy" to submit or long conferences to endure—ALL AT YOUR EXPENSE.

You see we KNOW how the straight commission, go-getter loses money; therefore, we know what will make him money.

Knowing your TIME is MONEY, how would you like to take your present sales ability, applying it 100% to commission paying effort, and thus double your income without being any better salesman than you are now?

Yes, you will become a better salesman later; we'll help you to do that—that's when your selling time pays you still more money.

Just figure out how little of your selling time, each day, is now spent actually closing business, then figure out how easily you could double your earnings with each day spent closing order after order at an average $45 commission per sale. Then you'll begin to realize what your TIME is really worth.

No red tape; you don't have to break down any doors for a man-to-man talk; nor go under a microscope. All we want to know is that you can SELL.

Telephone Mr. H. G. O'Hara, Hotel Ritz, Superior 4568, and listen to the details of a business which will give you what you have been wanting all your life. Or write fully your selling experience. Address H H 583, Tribune.

Salesmen, Solicitors, Etc.

SALESMEN, A PERSONAL MESSAGE.

There are lots of advertisements for real estate salesmen in these classified columns, aren't there? Did you ever stop to reason why?

BECAUSE city real estate is the most salable and most advertised commodity in the world today—a commodity that the public is buying today more intelligently than ever before—a commodity they [the public] realize offers today and always will offer, as long as our American cities continue to grow in population, an opportunity for sound and profitable INVESTMENT, as distinguished from speculation. Carefully selected land in Chicago—within the city limits—represents the best of all realty investments.

There are a number of good real estate developers in Chicago. There are also many concerns starting in the business—concerns that will build not real but paper cities. Men desirous of permanent, profitable connections with the maximum chance to make big money must pick the company that stands out head and shoulders above its competitors in actual accomplishments—NOT PROMISES.

In spite of what Barnum said, the public are using more and more discrimination in WHOM they buy from. They don't believe all they hear, and, all things being equal, they would prefer to purchase from a tried and tested concern—a concern that in many cases has sold properties to their fathers before them—rather than from amateurs—upstarts in the business. These firms require the high pressure men. But we don't need them. The public knows us and our record. Here are our qualifications.

1. Originators in Cincinnati in 1887 of the now widely copied method of selling real estate on installments.
2. 262 developments in U. S. cities.
3. Sold $200,000,000 worth of properties in 31 cities worth close to a billion dollars.
4. 56,000 homes built on our properties.
5. 100,000 customers.
6. Renders real service in the way of parklike maintenance of properties after sale, assisting customers to resell their holdings [last year resold over $3,000,000 worth of property for customers' accounts]; stands by customers in time of financial stress.

You know what lowered sales resistance means. We can offer it. We want men who believe they can capitalize our record, who can walk, talk, and tell the truth—not geniuses, but workers who are ready to plug. They will receive co-operation, training, expert help in closing, recognition in the shape of advancement in managerial positions plus an opportunity to make more money than they ever made in their lives before. Experience is not necessary. We work with you, for your success with us is our success.

Apply any day. We want to meet you, tell you our story, and then go to it.

TEAR THIS AD OUT NOW AND BE ON TIME.

LADIES,

THIS IS AN UNUSUAL ADVERTISEMENT—THE MONEY MAKING OPPORTUNITY YOU HAVE DREAMED OF.

READ IT!..............ANSWER!

If you want a real opportunity, if your wishbone has not switched places with your backbone, and if you DO realize the absolute necessity of earning more money each week and the practical advantages of becoming a member [either part or full time] of this well known institution, we will put you in good paying positions if you really devote a few hours of your spare time every day in our work. NOW, THEN, IF YOU ARE REALLY SINCERE, READ ON.

LARGE INDUSTRIAL EXPANSION PROGRAM has made it possible for us to create a new department and to open new positions for women over 25 years of age who are at present employed in some legitimate work, or those unemployed that can furnish references. Ordinary common sense the only educational requisite.

NO EXPERIENCE OR RED TAPE.

Successful applicants should earn an extra weekly income from the moment their names are placed upon the pay roll, while still retaining their present positions. This is not an experiment, but a bona fide, dignified employment that every ambitious woman in Chicago would be glad to avail herself of if she knew the facts. NOW, IF YOU REALLY NEED MONEY and if you are really sincere in your desire to better your financial position, DON'T HESITATE. Apply in person only at the time mentioned below.

CALL AT ROOM 1512,
624 S. MICHIGAN.

Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 18th, 2:30 SHARP, or at 8 o'clock sharp Tuesday evening, Oct. 18th.

Idlers, star gazers, and curiosity seekers, stay away. Remember the time, 2:30 sharp Tuesday afternoon or 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, Oct. 18th. None considered after the above mentioned time.

OFFICE OF THE CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND AND PACIFIC RAILWAY COMPANY.

Chicago, Illinois, August 24, 1927.

A special meeting of the stockholders of The Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Company, duly called by the Board of Directors, will be held at the office of the Company, La Salle Street Station, in the City of Chicago, Cook County, Illinois, at [illegible] o'clock in the forenoon on the 31st day of October, 1927, for the purpose of considering, voting and deciding whether the stockholders of the Company will concur in, ratify and approve the proceedings and resolutions of the Board of Directors had and adopted at the regular meeting of the Board of Directors held August 24, 1927, wherein and whereby the Board of Directors authorized and whether the stockholders will authorize:

[1] The creation of an authorized issue of Secured Gold Bonds of the Company to be issued in series from time to time and to be limited to the aggregate principal amount of $80,000,000 at any one time outstanding;

[2] The execution and delivery of a Trust Indenture with The National City Bank of New York as Trustee, to secure the payment of said Bonds, which Trust Indenture shall provide for the issuance of a series of $40,000,000 principal amount of said Secured Gold Bonds of the Company to be designated as its Secured 4½% Gold Bonds, Series A Due September 1, 1952, to be dated September 1, 1927, to mature September 1, 1952, to be redeemable prior to maturity at the option of the Company on the terms stated in the Trust Indenture and to be issued upon the pledge under said Trust indenture as security therefor of $45,000,000 principal amount of the Company's First and Refunding 4% Gold Bonds due April 1, 1934, and shall further provide for the issuance of additional series of said Bonds thereunder from time to time, maturing at such dates, bearing such rate of interest and with such provisions for redemption and upon the deposit, as security for each series, of such collateral as may be determined upon at the time by the Board of Directors of the Company;

[3] The inclusion in said Trust Indenture of covenants to be made by the Company for itself and [in case of consolidation, merger or sale] for its successors and assigns to substantially the following effect:

[a] That neither the First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds of the Company nor any bonds prior in lien thereto will be extended;

[b] That on or before the maturity of the First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds, to wit, April 1, 1934, the Company, its successor or assigns, will make a new mortgage which shall be a lien upon all the properties then subject to the First and Refunding Mortgage and will make provision in said new mortgage whereby all the Bonds then outstanding under the Trust Indenture to The National City Bank of New York, as Trustee, shall be secured by the said new mortgage equally and ratably with all obligations to be issued under such new mortgage;

[c] That the total amount of bonds to be secured by such new mortgage, together with all outstanding prior debt, after deducting the bonds reserved thereunder to retire the prior debt[s] shall not exceed three times the then outstanding capital stock of the Company, its successor or assign; and

[d] That pending the making of the said new mortgage the Company, its successors and assigns, will not make [illegible] new mortgage upon any of the property subject to the lien of the First and Refunding Mortgage, so that upon satisfaction of the latter the new mortgage will have the same rank as the First and Refunding Mortgage now has;

[4] The approval of the form of the Trust Indenture;

[5] The pledge at the present time under the Trust Indenture of $45,000,000 of the Company's First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds as security for the $40,000,000 Bonds of Series A;

[6] The issuance at the present time of $40,000,000 principal amount of said Secured Gold Bonds to be designated Secured 4½% Gold Bonds, Series A Due September 1, 1952, and the sale thereof upon such terms as the Board of Directors may determine;

[7] The conferring of power upon the Board of Directors and officers of the Company to take all such action as may be necessary or advisable in connection with the creation of said authorized issue of $80,000,000 principal amount of Secured Gold Bonds and the issuance and sale or other disposition from time to time of additional series of said bonds;

[8] For the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

By order of the Board of Directors.
J. E. GORMAN, President.
CARL NYQUIST, Secretary.

REAL ESTATE LOANS.

SECOND MORTGAGE LOANS

We are not trying to make all the second mortgages that could be made in Chicago and the immediate vicinity. We are only trying to save home owners the excessive charges which have heretofore been attached to anything known as a second mortgage.

We regard a second mortgage on a home as a legitimate and safe piece of business for which the borrower should have to pay a cost in proportion to the soundness of the loan as a piece of business.

By avoiding second mortgages on commercial and speculative properties we have been able to reduce our originally low rate twice and at the present time we charge 6% interest with commission of:

9 % for 3 years.

It will pay you to shop for your second mortgage and in your shopping it will pay you to ask for a detailed proposition with regard to your own personal need.

REO

NO OTHER AMERICAN CAR LASTS AS LONG AS REO NOT ONE

REO cars are noted the world over for their LONG LIFE, for they continue to give satisfactory, economical, and dependable service year after year, under the most exacting road and climatic conditions.

When taken in trade by us every REO is given a complete reconditioning in our own modern shops. All worn parts are replaced. (Not merely repaired), new finish is applied, and all metal parts renickeled.

New tires are installed when necessary and all cars have complete equipment, and in addition they carry our regular new car guarantee.

Due to the unusually rapid sales success of the FLYING CLOUD and WOLVERINE models, we have on hand ready for immediate delivery, numerous late and current models.

Buicks,	Fords,
Chevrolets,	Dodges,
Oaklands,	Whippets,
Pontiacs,	Hupmobiles,
Hudsons,	Reos,

and Studebakers.

These cars may now be seen at our two daylight showrooms, and an early inspection will be to your advantage.
